

Victoria Square

Correspondent:
Mrs. W. Sandie
RR 2, Gormley

The April meeting of the W was held on Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Mabel Anderson with 19 ladies in attendance.

The election of officers was held and all officers were returned by acclamation, as follows: President Mrs. John McCague; 1st Vice-President Mrs. Reid Brumwell; Secretary Mrs. Earl Empringham; Treasurer Mrs. Harold Hill; Pianist Mrs. Richard Frisby; District Director Mrs. Reid Brumwell; Agriculture and Canadian Industry Mrs. Joe Stephenson; Citizenship and World Affairs Mrs. Reid Brumwell; Education and Cultural Activities Mrs. Harry Barber; Family and Consumer Affairs Mrs. Earl Empringham; Resolutions Mrs. Reid Brumwell; Curator Mrs. Mabel Anderson; Press Secretary Mrs. Wm. Sandie.

The Headford and Victoria Square congregations joined with the Brown's Corners congregation for a Meditation and Communion service on Good Friday morning at Brown's Corners United. The service was conducted by the Rev. Allen Hallett with James Bewell taking the Communion Meditation.

The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies for the Easter service on Sunday morning. There was also a lovely basket of flowers in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Westbrook. These were placed there by members of the family.

James Bewell gave a very inspiring message on, "Jesus Stands Among Them".

Neighborhood Notes

Special birthday greetings are extended to Miss Olive Glover who on April 18 will be celebrating her 82nd birthday. Miss Glover was a former resident of our community but is now a resident of Union Villa, Unionville.

Soups With Leftovers
By MARGARET SCHLOSSER

You'll find many varieties of prepared soups and soup mixes on the shelves of your favorite A&P WEO Supermarket. Such soups may be the flavourful beginning to a meal or a "meal-in-a-dish" themselves when accompanied with a crisp salad and a dessert.

Add your own creative touch to prepared soups by combining two favorites to make a new flavor combination. Make prepared soups into a gourmet dish by adding fresh ingredients when you prepare the soup. For example, a few slices of lightly sauteed celery or mushroom will do wonders for cream of celery or mushroom soup. Garnish pea soup with thin circles of pepperoni sausage and a sprinkle of Parmesan cheese. (Pop it under the broiler for a minute before serving in an ovenproof dish). To any flavour of cream soup, add cream-style corn, cubes of cooked potato. Heat through and garnish with bits of crisp bacon and snipped parsley. Presto: A hearty corn chowder which makes an excellent main dish when served with tossed salad, fruit and gingerbread for dessert.

Soups you make yourself can be great budget-stretchers as well as family-pleasers. Save the bones from meat prepared for other meals along with left-over vegetables and bits of the meat. Add rice or pasta, fresh vegetables to make a substantial soup to satisfy the hungriest of winter appetites — all at a minimum of cost.
