

TSS Tiger Tales

By JUDY McDONALD
Thornhill Secondary School Correspondent
(Telephone 889-4421)

I trust everybody had a good Easter holiday and returned to school with new enthusiasm. We still have some "catching-up" to do as term two draws to a close. Don't forget the reports are in the offing.

From tickets went on sale on April 16 and sold like hotcakes. The last report I heard left only five tickets still unsold. I do hope you've bought yours early and avoided being disappointed. The big night is May 23 at 8 pm. Our prom committee has engaged the paddle-wheel boat, the Maraposa Belle, for a four-hour cruise on Lake Ontario. It should be a unique evening for everyone.

The Sock Hop on the 19th was only moderately successful due to the small turnout, but the kids who attended seemed to be having a good time. The early evening action at the ping pong tables swung to the gym as the sounds of the fifties filtered through. A few lucky couples won chocolate bars for their dancing expertise, and the most exceptional of these was Aldo Malfara and his partner.

"The Way", sponsored by Mr. D. Foley recently presented a film preview of "Time To Run" in the TSS Library. This preview shows the problems faced by teenagers in today's society and how Jesus Christ can meet the needs of those who will give their lives to Him. The complete film will later be shown by local church groups and theatres. Some of the leaders of this group are Ted Heidman, Grant Heir and Glenda Hunt.

BOOK TALK

TOWN OF MARKHAM
PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Visit The Hebrides Or Africa
Through Interesting Books

LIGHTLY POACHED—by Lillian Beckwith. Devotees of these Hebridean books will welcome this fifth addition to the series. This volume is written with the author's usual humour and able characterization of the colorful people who inhabit these remote islands. (Non-fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville.)

ROTTEN WITH HONOUR—by Derek Robinson. A mild, apparently ineffectual British agent is sent into what seems like an incredibly stupid move to steal a momentous scientific secret from a ruthless Soviet spy. Soon the Briton discovers that his activities are only one part of a giant complex puzzle that often proves messily fatal to its parts. (Fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville.)

VOYAGE GASTRONOMIQUE—by Lillian Langseth-Christensen. A magic carpet journey with castles and fine restaurants in Vienna, Paris, New York and fashionable spas as landing places. The author's relaxed talk about fine food, her delightful, improbable father and her 200 recipes, make enchanting reading and vividly recreate a vanished epic and social stratum. (Non-fiction at Unionville.)

JAWS—by Peter Benchley. A murderous, almost supernatural, white shark threatens the safety of all swimmers in a popular beach resort. However, the corrupt officials of the town, in order to protect their tourist business, struggle to conceal all evidence of its presence from the public.

SAFARI - SOUTH AMERICA—by Christine Wood. This young English woman who was a participant in the "Operation-Gwamba" to save wild animals caught in the rising waters of a South American dam, writes skillfully of all her many adventures. (Non-fiction at Markham.)

"The Liberal" is pleased to announce that Paul Vetere, 234 Bayview Fairways, will be our news representative in that area. Mr. Vetere, a student at York University, will be grateful for the co-operation of the residents of his area in preparing his weekly news column. If you have had an enjoyable holiday, if you have entertained guests, if your church or school or social group has activities planned, just phone Mr. Vetere at 881-0169 so that your community's news can be recorded in this weekly newspaper.

Community News
"Boy Scouts? Yes, well, they wear uniforms and sell apples on Saturday."

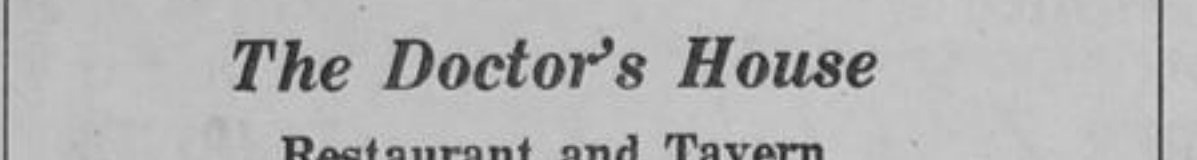

The above may be a typical reaction to the term "Boy Scouts". The Thornhill Cubs and Scouts are holding a dance, tomorrow, at 8:30. The locale is to be the Heintzman House. There will be a live band, old English pub, auction, buffet and one fortuitous couple will win a weekend at the Hyatt Regency, Yorkville. Tickets may be ordered from Maty Ann Pople at 889-7921, 251 Bayview Fairways. The price is $12.

In a communique with an unselfish man named Mike Scottie, I was informed that the Boy Scouts do more than wear uniforms and sell apples on Saturdays. Almost 100 boys benefit in the broad education they receive. There are cookouts and hikes in the environment, educational adventures to the Pickering nuclear plant and the Niagara Falls hydro plant. Citizenship development includes visits to newspapers and television stations. The boys meet one night per week, where they discuss and vote on projects for the future. They do have a hand in their own leadership. Weekend projects may consist of personal fitness and creativity.

I am told that the Thornhill boys are on their own. They do not receive help from the Toronto scouts. By going to the dance you will help provide financial assistance to purchase equipment (e.g. sporting, tents, etc.). If anyone has such equipment that they wish to donate, please contact Mike Scottie. Mike is a man who is concerned about the boys developing leadership skills for their future world. He is not selfish with his time, after all he looks at it this way, "somebody has to do it".

The tennis court at St. Joseph's Morrow Park has been resurfaced. There are also flood lights there. A tennis club is being planned but it still is at square one. Instruction will be provided if desired. Anyone interested please contact Joan Belton at 226-4691. Since it is still in the planning stage, your suggestions will be most helpful. It is planned to run from June to September but members have yet to decide any other details. Tennis is our "numero uno" summer sport. I strongly recommend it to retain your health or maybe even re-acquire it!

RICHVALE RECORD

Correspondent — MRS. MARY WATTS, 43 Spruce Avenue - 889-5787

That 'flu bug which has been going around has finally claimed me as one of its victims, so hopefully next week I shall be able to relate more happenings or things to come—in the meantime here are a few important reminders:

Library
I mentioned that results of the Richvale survey are now in our local library branch on Pearson Avenue. However, for those interested in looking at the previous survey which was done in the BAIF subdivision last summer, there is a copy of this in the main library on Wright Street. For comparison, this is a little premature, so there will probably be a later survey made in the BAIF area when it is more settled in. In the last two years, the population has been somewhat transient with many homes having been bought and then rented out.

The statistics in both surveys were compiled by Liz Croll, a student at York University, and for Richvale the questionnaires were distributed at random throughout the community by members of the South Richmond Hill Task Force. The earlier ones in BAIF were done by personal interviews.

Mother's Help
Already I have heard from a mother with a small child of her own who is willing, after the end of June, to care for another small child in her own home during temporary absence of its mother. This is the sort of community spirit we need, and hopefully there will be others who may be able to give their services in these emergencies, where mother is rushed into hospital and father is out of town or cannot take time off work to care for the young family at home during the day.

Please phone me if interested.

Senior Citizens
The Thornhill Theatre of the Performing Arts have seats available at the special price of $1 for all seniors who wish to come to their presentation of "Guys and Dolls" at Hart House Theatre on the opening night, May 2. Curtain time is 8:30. For more information call 884-4862.

Church News
Archbishop Philip Pocock will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation at St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church, Yonge and Dufferin Streets, April 29 at 7:30 pm. A general practise for the candidates and their sponsors will be held Thursday night at 7:30 in the church.

To celebrate Education Week an open house was held April 22 for all parents of pupils at St. Mary Immaculate School, Trayborn Drive. Last Monday was also the last meeting of the high school students program. They will resume in the fall.

The beautiful array of flowers around the altar for Easter in St. Mary Immaculate Church were generously donated by Joe Valenti of "Valenti Greenhouses" on Bedford Park Avenue. Joe recently took over the business there.

It's two, two, two cars in one.

"I think that the Volkswagen Campmobile is for camping and going away on trips."
"I think that the Volkswagen Campmobile is a station wagon for driving around town in."
Wait! You're both right! Because the VW

Campmobile is really two, two, two cars in one. First, it's a cottage on wheels. Insulated. With wall-to-wall carpeting. With a kitchen that has just about everything, including the kitchen sink.

There's an ice-box that you can fill with all the things you need to enjoy good old home-cooking while you're away from home.

There's a work-counter attached to the side to prepare those meals on. A storage shelf for spices, tins or whatever.

(And to really make somebody feel at home, the dishes can be washed inside as well, because the sink is connected to a big 7½ gallon water supply).

Like a cottage, the Campmobile has a dining room with a table that comfortably seats 4 people. But then folds up out of the way when you've finished eating.

Screened and louvered windows can be opened easily to let a gentle breeze in, while keeping not-so-gentle insects out.

Later on in the evening, when you've finished admiring whichever view you've chosen that day, draw the curtains and retire to one of two bedrooms.

Pull the back seat flat and you've got a full length double bed over 6 feet long. Pop up the pop-up top and presto, there's another 6 feet of sleeping space for two more. And if you've really got a big family, we have an optional tent with floor and screens that sets up in minutes and sleeps three more.

Once you leave the great outdoors and return to the city, simply fold away the camping gear and the Campmobile turns into a 5 passenger station wagon. With almost twice as much space as an ordinary wagon. As well as almost twice the gas mileage. (It still is after all, a Volkswagen).

Yet with all that space inside, it's miraculously just 14 inches longer outside than a Super Beetle.

So you can park it in most little big city spots. And maneuver it through the thickest traffic. (With an automatic transmission, if you like.) And the added traction of its rear-mounted engine not only helps get you through the wet grass and soft sand of the country, but also through the snow and ice of the city.

If you'd like to spend a little less money and perhaps use a little more imagination, you might think about either the standard VW Station Wagon or the VW Window Van. With 176 cubic feet of inner space, you can modify them for camping or holiday travelling to suit your self. While still enjoying all the other Volkswagen benefits, including the VW Owner's Security Blanket.

Drop into your nearest VW dealer's and ask him to show you the Campmobile, Station Wagon or Window Van.

3 ways Volkswagen can help to double your pleasure and double your fun.
