

York Theatre Shows
On Cable Television
 The first of five plays produced by amateur theatrical groups in York will be aired Friday by Classcomm Cable. "Barefoot in the Park" Theatre Aurora will be on at 6 pm and again at 8 pm.
 "The Matchmaker", presented by the Thornhill Secondary School Drama Society, is to be shown at the same times May 3.
 On May 10 viewers will be watching "Stuart" by the Unionville Arts Foundation, and on May 17, "The Importance of Being Earnest" by Goddard High School Drama Society.
 Last in the series will be "The Chalk Garden" by Theatre Aurora on May 24.

Neighborhood Notes
 Mrs. Tim Patterson returned recently from a Florida vacation, and has been guest of the Waltons. Miss Rhea Scott, she found an apartment, and her June her address will be The Village Squire, 56 in Street North, Markham.
 Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sherman were at Owen Sound last weekend to attend a family funeral.
 Mrs. Edgar Fuller is home in hospital, recuperating from a recent heart attack. She wishes her a speedy recovery.
 On Wednesday when Buttonville WI members met at their hall for their annual meeting, Mrs. Lloyd Baker enthusiastically returned the presidency. Mrs. James Dick continues as secretary-treasurer, and other officers remain static. Mrs. Ken is social convenor. Stesses for the day were Mrs. Mary Rodick and Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Walter presented a paper on "Inflation", the current nightmare. She quoted food prices in various countries, and said that in many places around the world the question is not "What is the price?" but "Is there any food?"

A comparative survey showed eggs in Ottawa, 84c; Brussels, $1.34; and Denmark, $1.24. Butter in Ottawa, 76c; France, $1.20; and Germany, $1.25 per pound. Loin steak $1.81 at Ottawa, 74 in Stockholm, Sweden, and $3.60 in Germany.
 Concerning ways to economize Mrs. Craig suggested a backyard garden; by supermarket brands, they are cheaper; take time to compare prices; make our own things; use public transportation, and "borrow wisely!"
 Following the talk there was a contest, and discussion. Dessert luncheon was served as members gathered at 8 pm.
 Sunday at Brown's Corners United Church Rev. Allen Hallett performed a confirmation service for Bryan and John Donaldson, receiving them into church communion. There was also a reception of new members transferred from other churches — Mrs. Allen Hallett and Mrs. Eleanor Walker. The soloist was Mrs. George Hooper who sang "The Holy City," and Rev. Hallett conducted a service of Holy Communion and preached a meditation.
 May 5 the church will celebrate its 132nd anniversary, and special services are planned.
