King Members Of York Humane Guild Hold Luncheon Meeting

BY DONNA MATTHEWS
King Correspondent
A beautiful spring day with energetic hopefuls walking the greens at King Golf Club was the setting for the luncheon meeting of the King Branch of the York Humane Guild. Sherry was served beforehand as members renewed acquaintances. The golf club is apparently under new management.

The head table consisted of Joe Nixon, a Director of the Ontario Humane Society; Mrs. Bernie Webb; Bernie Webb, Inspector of the OHS; Mrs. Shirley Lambert; Alex Boubtee, also a Director of OHS; Mrs. Peggy Reid; Tommy Tompkins, S. J. and a r. o. n. Leader and President of the OHS; board of directors; Mrs. Helen MacDougall, President of the Ontario Humane Society and guest speaker; Mrs. Phyl Benson, President York Humane Guild — King Branch; Gerry Barker of the Bradford Topic Newsmagazine; Mrs. Valerie Boutbee; Pat Lambert, also a director of OHS; Mrs. Gerry Barker; and Ian Reid.

SOCIETY PROBLEMS
Mrs. Benson introduced Helen MacDougall who appeared to be surprised and pleased at such a large group. She spoke of many of her own experiences while travelling with the inspectors on their calls. She told of the cat sanctuaries, the shelters, the storefront operations, the mobile clinic and the Scarborough hospital.

She said one of the problems facing the society was finding out the problems pertaining to animals and instituting the legislation to change the laws to benefit all animals. Proper facilities for animal care at the airports is one of the areas in which the provincial society is hard to work. Mrs. MacDougall was thanked by Past President Miss Mildred Wickson who said "people who are kind to animals are also kind to other people".

ORPHAN SHORTAGE
Pat Lambert presented Gerry Barker of Topic Newsmagazine with a framed plaque for his work in bringing the society to the notice of the general public.

Great success has been achieved with an "Adoptables" column, featuring pets, usually dogs and cats, housed at the Aurora shelter. One picture brought response of 16 calls in one hour. One day the shelter ran out of puppies. This is surely gratifying when so often these lovable pets must be put to sleep.

HOUSE TOUR
Mrs. Sandra Silcox announced the date of the annual House Tour in King Township as June 6. She distributed flyers and tickets to the members. Tickets are $4 and are available from 727-5651 and 895-2033.

The tour begins at the Stable Gallery in Snowball, continues on to "Chilters", home of John and Gillian Ball, from there to "Owlsdale", home of Dr. and Mrs. Anthony Calverly; next to "Southernly", home of Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Carmichael; "Fiddlehead Farm", home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Godso; then the residence of Kurt and Joy Larsen in Kingscross; "Sherwood Farm", home of Phil and Mae Sherwood; lunch at the King Ski Valley; on to "Morning Hall", home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wilson, and finally "Idle Acres", home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wisniewski. It sounds like a full day.
