Neighborhood Notes
Congratulations to David Hooper and his bride-to-be Rita Carey of Willowdale, who will be married at Brown's Corners United Church May 11.

Among those entertaining for the bridal couple were relatives at Willowdale, a shower for Rita at the home of Mrs. Bill Robb, Markham, with Hooper relatives attending, and last Saturday night Jim Jones held a stag for 25 of David's friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Jones.

Mrs. Douglas Hood had intended spending last week in Kentucky with the Markham Liberal Women's Tour group, but was taken ill and instead remained home under the doctor's care. We wish her a quick recovery.

Two neighbors have been in hospital again. Mr. Russell Boyington was in York Central Hospital for surgery last week; and Mrs. Edgar Fuller who returned home from York Central in mid-April following a heart failure is back in hospital again. So sorry.

132nd Anniversary
This Sunday, Brown's Corners United Church will celebrate its 132nd anniversary with two special services.

Special music is planned by both senior and junior choirs, and there will be special speakers. At 11 am Rev. Arthur Watters, chaplain at the Toronto Family Court will be the guest, and Rev. Martin Jenkinson, formerly of Victoria Square/Headford charge, will speak.

After the evening service there will be a friendship hour in the Christian Education Room.

Sunday there was a special confirmation service welcoming Gerald Reesor to the Brown's Corners congregation. Gerry was accompanied by his friends John Donaldson and Brian Carr. Also welcomed were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Steven of Thornhill.

Joining last week were Mrs. Wm. Clark, Mrs. Wm. L. Clark, Mrs. Allen Hallett and Mrs. Beverley Walker.

Buttonville won't seem the same after this summer when Aubrey Stephenson gives up his business at the Buttonville Mill. He and son Ken have been tending to local feed and seed needs for many years.

Wedding
WOOD - TENNYSON
Childhood sweethearts were married in a beautiful candlelight ceremony at Brown's Corners United Church, April 20, when Susan Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tennyson of Buttonville, and Bruce Robert Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wood exchanged wedding vows.

The families have been neighbors for years, and Susan and Bruce have known each other since kindergarten days at Buttonville school.

Rev. Allen Hallett performed the ceremony, and Regina Allen played wedding music from Romeo and Juliet.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a traditional gown of Chantilly lace over satin cut on empire lines, with long sleeves and graceful sweeping to a brief train. Her over-the-face veil was elbow length, and she carried a crescent of red roses and pink and white carnations.

She was attended by her sister Cheryl whose long rose-pink gown featured a mandarin neckline and puffed sleeves. Her flowers were similar to the bride's. Danny Wood was best man for his brother, and ushers were Steven Tennyson, brother of the bride, and the groom's uncle, George Wood.

Following the wedding service a reception was held at the Black Hawk Inn, Richmond Hill, where Mrs. Tennyson received guests wearing a skipper blue gown with crystal and sapphire beaded cummerbund, silver accessories, and corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Wood assisted wearing a turquoise gown with chiffon overlay, matching accessories, and red roses corsage.

Among the guests were Susan's grandmother, Mrs. Norman Denby of Thornhill and Bruce's grandmother, Mrs. M. LeLacheur of Fredericton, New Brunswick, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hood, Gormley; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Watt, Thornhill; Mrs. Donna Palmer, Kleinburg; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrow, Aurora; and Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Wood, Newmarket.

Bruce and Susan are living at Don Mills. They plan a later honeymoon trip to visit Bruce's grandmother at Fredericton this summer.
