School News
Today (Wednesday) was a professional development day at the E. J. Sand Public. Among the programs for the teaching staff at that school were instruction in the metric system by Mrs. Joan Routledge of the York County Board of Education, master teacher of mathematics.

Tuesday of next week, commencing at 7:30 pm, the Sand Parent-Teacher Group will present an evening of the school's club program demonstrations and displays. This show will include talks, gymnastic exhibitions, folk dancing, music by the school choir, a fashion show featuring results of the sewing club and other interesting events. The students involved in this program are from the junior section and are all under the direction of Mrs. Bonnie Robertson. Still with E. J. Sand Public, we learn that there is a continuation of their landscaping program as the parent-teacher group has made funds available to the school to add some shrubberies to the landscaping started last spring. Head Custodian Ted Watt is in charge of this program.

In the Sand boys' cosmo hockey playoffs the Leafs ousted the Rangers while the Bruins disposed of the Red Wings last week. This week the Leafs and the Bruins meet for the championship.

A week from Saturday will see the Sand school's annual fun fair.

Friday at Woodland Senior Public a contingent of 25 students with three chaperones, including Principal Bill French, returned home from an exciting visit to Mexico. A more detailed report on their adventures will appear next week.

Neighborhood Notes
Friends and neighbors of Cliff Howson, 107 Morgan Avenue, wish him a speedy recovery from spinal surgery. He returned home from Branson Hospital last Saturday.

Birthdays go out to Suzanne Geofery of 60 Babcombe Drive and Scott Edwards of Morgan Avenue, who each celebrate birthdays Saturday of this week. Suzanne will be 19 years old while Scott will be 15.

The Doncaster Community Ladies' Club meet at a new time schedule. Their next meeting is set for a week from next Tuesday.

Guides & Brownies
The Guide and Brownie groups are beginning to wrap up their year with a few special events remaining.

For the Guides and Brownies in the Bayview Glen area the annual cookie day will be held next Wednesday.

The company and packs on the west side of Bayview Avenue will hold cookie day May 15. These girls need expect and deserve your support in this, their main source of operating funds.

At their meeting Tuesday of last week, the 5th Thornhill Guide Company held a badge presentation ceremony. Receiving a collector's badge was Janie MacLean. Dene Hoffeldt, Kim Long, Julia Haggerty and Susy Smith each received child care badges. Dancer's badge went to Anne Marie Walsh. Heather Rubinoff was awarded hostess badge. Marlain Wietzes was given her laundress badge. Native love badge went to Susy Smith and Jackie Gillespie. Kim Long, Heather Rubinoff and Julia Haggerty each received a public speaker's badge. The team sport award was presented to Jackie Gillespie and Julia Haggerty and Jackie Gillespie also received her pet-keeper's badge. Toymaker's badges went to Janie MacLean and Susy Smith.

Three emblems were also awarded: Paul Brown received her "Religion and Life" emblem. Lynda Crossett and Marlain Wietzes each were awarded the "two little houses" emblems, awarded to Guides who earn four badges in designated categories.

Captain Diane Wietzes of the 5th Thornhill Company reports the company will be homeless for the next few weeks due to the elaborate stage settings being erected at Bayview Glen Public School for the school's operetta "Puddin' Head". In the meantime the girls will be practising their camping techniques for the big camporee coming up early in June.

On the weekend of April 19 to 21 at Bonita Glen, near Hawkestone, 20 Brownies of the 6th Thornhill Pack including their leaders, set out to accomplish a number of badge work programs. This week the girls have received the results of their efforts at the recent camp-out. Receiving holiday badges were Lisa Carl, Jennifer Hollings, Mary McAlister, Lorrie Ann McDermott, Nancy Lessard, Monica and Valerie Sheedy, Christie Walker, Laura Ann Watt and Monique Ward. Mary McAlister also received her writer's badge and Lorrie Ann McDermott her house-keeper's and beadworker's badges.

Receiving outdoors and crafts award were Annette O'Byrne, Linda Thompson, Jennifer Bennett and Anita Tannis.

Cubs & Scouts
The 2nd Thornhill Cub Pack met the 8th Thornhill "B" pack in a baseball game Thursday and came out on top 3-1. A rematch has been planned.

The 2nd Thornhill Cub Pack is also planning a visit to the Willowdale Police Station later this month and a Cub car rally for their June camp.

The 8th Thornhill Cub and Scout Group Committee members were elated over the good response to their fund-raising dance last Friday at the Heintzman House. An estimated 180 persons attended and had a good time.

Six of the 2nd Thornhill Venturer Group "A" members enjoyed kayaking down the Credit River near Georgetown recently.

All proceeds of the Thornhill Theatre of the Performing Arts annual musical Guys and Dolls presentation Wednesday of next week at Hart House Theatre will go to the 4th Willowdale Venturer-Scouts. The show runs May 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11 at 8:30 pm. Telephone 225-5818 for tickets and information. For students 16 years and under tickets are available for $2 at the Thursday shows. Regular adult tickets are $3.

Bus Service
Today the Markham Transit Service on Route 1 began its extended service to the Finch Subway Station.

Coming Events
A banquet for all boys who are members of the Richvale Minor Hockey Association will be held Saturday at 5:30 pm in the Don Head Cafeteria, Vaughan Road.

The ladies' auxiliary is providing a delicious supper for members of the executive, managers, coaches and all the players of the OMHA and house league teams. Parents are welcome to attend the presentation of awards which will follow the dinner at approximately 7:30 pm, otherwise they may pick up their boys at about 9:30 pm.

Don't forget next week is the annual Richmond Hill Spring Fair, May 10, 11 and 12. If you have any handicrafts or baking to enter be sure to have these in by Thursday at the new arena. Children's entries are being made through their schools. If not bring them in yourself Thursday afternoon or evening.

The Ross Doan Parent and Community Association will be holding a spring fair in the school on Weldrick at Avenue Road this Saturday from 11 am until 2 pm. Plants, crafts, grab bags and a draw will be featured. There will be a mini auction, fun house and a snack bar with hot dogs and soft drinks. For those wishing to enjoy a leisurely cup of tea there will be a tea room. It will be lots of fun for the pre-schoolers so bring the whole family along.

All ratepayers' groups are invited to send representatives to a meeting of Richmond Hill Citizens Advisory Group at Walter Scott School Thursday night at 8 pm, to discuss matters of interest to the whole town. The school is located on Markham Road just east of

COMMITTEE OF ADJUSTMENT NOTICE OF HEARING
Application: CA/74/26 Submission: A-19 IN THE MATTER OF Subsection 1 of Section 42 of The Planning Act (R.S.O., 1970) as amended.

An application for minor variance has been submitted by MR. E. G. BARRY, owner of Lot 215 of Registered Plan 2446, Markham. The subject property has an area of 7,000 square feet with a frontage of 50 feet and is municipally known as 17 Woodward Avenue, Thornhill, Ontario.

Relief from the side yard requirements of By-law 2237 as amended is requested of the Committee of Adjustment. The applicant wishes to construct a car port on the west side of the house. Due to the features of the house it is not possible to gain proper access for the car unless a minor variance is obtained.

The Committee of Adjustment hereby appoints Thursday, May 9th, 1974 at the hour of 8:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the Municipal Offices at Buttonville, Ontario for the purpose of hearing all persons who desire to be heard in support of or in opposition to this application.

DATED at the Town of Markham, this 26th day of April 1974.

H. D. Goldstein, Acting Secretary-Treasurer, Committee of Adjustment, Town of Markham.

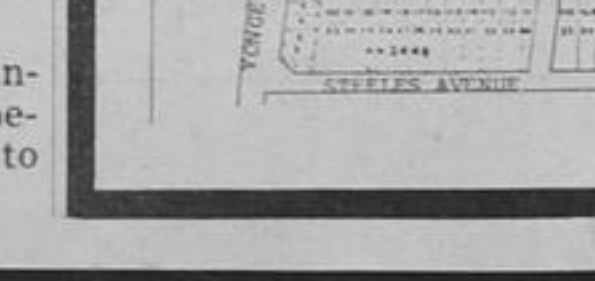

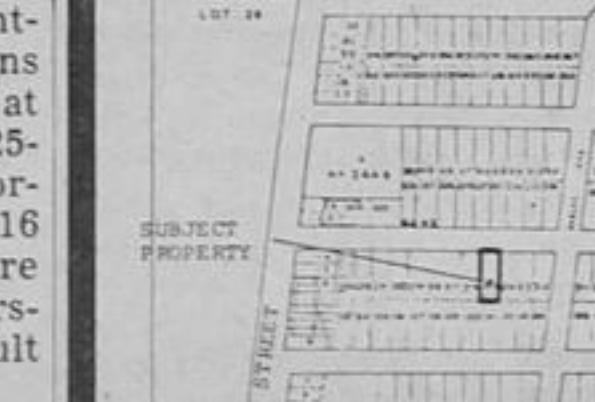

NOTE: Any person wishing to comment on this application but who is unable to attend the Hearing may send a signed, written submission to the Acting Secretary-Treasurer prior to the Hearing.

The applicants or a representative for the applicants must appear at the time of Hearing in support of the Application.

DATED at the Town of Markham, this 26th day of April 1974.

NOTE: Any person wishing to comment on this application but who is unable to attend the Hearing may send a signed, written submission to the Acting Secretary-Treasurer prior to the Hearing.

School Bulletin
Langstaff Secondary School held their annual prom with dinner and dancing at the Bayview Country Club on Steeles Avenue April 27.

Principal David Painter and Vice-Principal Donald Cober of Roselawn Senior Public took 33 students from their grades 7 and 8 classes to Mexico City April 17. They stayed at the Hotel Metropole, visited the anthropological museum and zoo, the "Zocalo" (the main square), the presidential palace and innumerable churches of great beauty and artistic design, including the famed cathedral of Mexico City.

A trip took them on a tour of the pyramids, another to Taxco, Pueblo and other small towns within 50 miles of the city. Some of the young people went to a bull fight.

One day was spent at the Mexican resort called Oxtipic, about 35 miles away from their headquarters. They enjoyed both American and Mexican foods and after a week of what proved to be a great educational experience from which the students drew up their individual diaries, they all managed to arrive back in Toronto by plane as scheduled, despite the strike which had been bringing all air traffic to a halt at Buffalo.

Church News
At St. Gabriel Anglican Church, Bayview and Crosby Avenue, Rt. Rev. Lewis Garnworthy, Bishop of Toronto, will be conducting the confirmation service May 7 at 7:30 pm. Among those being confirmed are members of Emmanuel Anglican Church Mackay Drive.

The monthly communion service and breakfast meeting of Emmanuel's Men's Club was held last Sunday with a good attendance.

The ACW's May meeting will take the form of a visit to the Victoria Square Community Centre, Don Mills Road and 18th Avenue, where a food forum will take place. This is sponsored by the Home Economics Branch of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food and will emphasize exciting combinations of cooking with poultry, eggs and other foods. Everyone is welcome. Admission free. Next Tuesday at 8 pm.

St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic, Yonge at Dufferin, celebrates first Friday this week with a morning mass at 8:45 am and again in the evening at 7 pm. May devotions will be held every evening during the month with Rosary and Benediction at 7 pm to honor the Mother of Christ.

First Communion for St. Mary's School and the public school classes is this coming Sunday.

YWCA
The annual Treasure and Trivia Bazaar will be held May 8 at the Lions Hall, Centre Street East. Doors open at 10 am. Luncheon tickets including admission are available at $1.75 from Kay Smith 884-1494.

There will also be a snack bar with coffee, doughnuts and soft drinks suitable for mothers with young children. Take advantage of the rest room upstairs where you may enjoy your snack. Visit the toy booth, fish pond and other attractions for the small fry. Downstairs will be the usual display of attractive new and nearly new items for sale at the various booths. Artificial floral arrangements will be one of the newest features, expertly handled by Ethel Brennan. Don't forget to call June Burnie at 889-6739 or me if you have any spare toys, games or even a wagon or old trike you have no further use for.

The mothers' TAB group will have the pleasure of learning how to cross-stitch on gingham aprons to obtain a most decorative effect. Marg Matresky will be instructing. This will follow exercises at 9:30 am in Charles Howitt School. For the remainder of the season only $1 will be charged for each session a mother attends. This will not be necessary for the following Monday since Andrea Tourigny has offered the use of her home and garden (weather permitting) for a pot luck luncheon — more details next week.
