Here Are Scheduled Events In Southern York This Week

MUSIC FOR LISTENING The Richmond Hill Youth Concert Band is presenting its first concert May 23 in Richmond Hill High School on Wright Street. Director is Bob Thiel. The program will also feature the MacKillop Public School choir under direction of Mary Fleming. The program ranges through marches, modern music, semi-classical and folk music. Curtain time is 8 pm and tickets are $1.50. For tickets call 884-1497, 884-4177 or 884-7420.

NOMINATIONS CONVENTION The North York Progressive Conservative Association is holding a nomination convention to select a candidate for the coming federal election. It will begin at 8 pm May 22, with registration of members eligible to vote beginning at 7 pm at Don Head Secondary School, Major Mackenzie Drive between Yonge and Bathurst Streets. PLANT SALE AND BAKE SALE Carrville United Church, Rutherford Road just west of Bathurst Street, is having its fourth annual sale of garden plants, bake sale, and snack bar at the church Friday 7 to 9 pm and Saturday 10 am to 2 pm. They are offering a large assortment of flowers and vegetables ready for planting.

BLOOD DONOR CLINIC With vacation time - and accident time -coming up, the need for an ample reserve of blood in our hospitals is urgent. Make a note on your calendar - Red Cross blood donor clinic - Richmond Hill Lions Hall, Centre Street East, May 30 from 2 to 4 pm and 6 to 9 pm.

PIRATES OF PENZANCE The students of Woodland Senior School, 150 Henderson Avenue, Thornhill, is presenting Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance" on May 30. The show is being produced by the grade 8 students. For information and reservations call the school at 889-4910.

KAP RUMMAGE SALE

The students of Bayview Secondary School are having a rummage sale at the school from 10 am to 4 pm Saturday to raise funds for their Korean adoption program and local charities. The students are foster parents to seven children. They also make substantial donations to local agencies and organizations.

SPRING FAIR

The residents of Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox are having a spring fair this weekend. It starts with a parade that takes off from Elmgrove Avenue at Yonge Street at 9:30 am Saturday featuring decorated bicycles, bands, floats, scheduled to arrive at Bond Lake Arena at 10 am when the grounds will be opened for outdoor activities until 7 pm. Local organizations, including the senior citizens, will have booths in the arena offering antiques, arts, crafts, and there will be an auction sale. In the evening there will be a dance in the arena hall sponsored by the Bond Lake Skating Club. Tickets for the fair are 50c adults, 25c children, $1.25 per family. Tickets for the dance, 9 pm to 1 am, are $15 a couple, bar and buffet included.

Non-profit organizations planning programs of interest to readers in Southern York Region are invited to contact Social Editor Margaret Lade at "The Liberal", 63 Yonge Street South, Richmond Hill, 884-1105 or 884-8177. Deadline for items for this column is noon on Tuesday.
