Senior Citizens
The Senior Citizens of Thornhill and the adjoining area held their last regular meeting for the season on May 22. There was a good turnout, and Joe Wain, the president, showed some pictures which he had taken in England and entitled "A Farm Grandfather's Christmas".

On June 20 the annual picnic is to be held. This includes four senior citizen clubs. There will be a trip to Oshawa in July and another in August.

Eta Psi Sorority
The Eta Psi Sorority is having a busy time these days. Jon Harris who is working on a LIP grant, came to a recent meeting to explain his project. It is called "Citizens' Advocacy" and it is a service project to assist persons in certain cases to get their rights as citizens.

Harris is attempting to contact individuals who would take an interest in a citizen needing help usually handicapped persons for one reason or another on a one to one basis.

At the next meeting Dick Piller spoke on the Triangle of Life—mind, body and soul. He is a member of Willowdale United Church where the Reverend Lindsay King is teaching a course on Pneumatology. This tries to help people develop along all three lines simultaneously.

The next few meetings will be devoted to studying the pledges of the sorority. The last social event for the season will be a Monte Carlo Night at Mrs. Eleanor Taylor's home. Mrs. Lenora Nielsen is the convener.

Variety Night
On last Wednesday evening the Langstaff Public School presented a Variety Night. It opened with a song and dance from grade six. Pamela Staddon, Cindy Krutler, Harry Stroud and Douglas Marlatt. Diane Burlon played a piano solo.

"Piffle, It's only a Siffle" was an original play by grade five pupils with the "Germ" as the main character!

Grade six then sang some folk songs from several countries. They also performed in two short French plays. (Some of us are going to be bilingual). Anna Kratochvil played the piano.

Grades one, two three and four, did an excellent operetta with everybody in the choruses. Cindy Krutler was master of ceremonies.

A comment from a mother who has seen these performances for the last seven years was: "the best I'd seen. All the teachers deserve credit."

Figure Skating
In preparation for the new skating arena a steering committee has been formed with the task of getting a Thornhill Figure Skating Club underway. The ladies involved are the Mesdames Chris Reardon, Karen Gammage, Shirley Foster, Donna Carroll, Barbara Levi, Barbara Wuster. Contact is being made with the Canadian Figure Association.

Four professionals have been contracted for next fall: Osborn Coulson, Barbara and Rick Stephens and Connie Madalino.

A general meeting for all interested who are residents of Thornhill, both Markham and Vaughan, is being planned for sometime in June at the Heintzman House. Any further information can be secured from Donna Carroll 881-1241, or Barbara Levi 889-4696. Please restrict calls to between 9 am and 5 p.m.

W. I. News
The Thornhill WI held the regular meeting last month at the house of President Mrs. Anne Jackson. The motto for the day was "A woman who wants to do something finds a way; the other finds an excuse." Mrs. Percy Bone read a suitable poem on this theme. The roll call was taken in the presentation of items for the 'Bring and Buy Sale'. Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, the visiting member from England gave a report on the 74th District Annual Meeting which was held at the United Church at Stouffville this year. Reverend James Carter welcomed the women. The citizens report followed; then a "scrumpious luncheon".

In the afternoon there was the election of officers. Next was a report of the public relations officer, Miss B. McClenaghof, a nutritionist from the Department of Agriculture, spoke on nutrition. It was a good meeting.

The Thornhill club celebrated Mrs. "Jamie" Jamieson's birthday, held their sale—a very active one—and then enjoyed the refreshments.

The next meeting will be a pot luck lunch at Mrs. Jackson's on June 27.

Of Interest
Mrs. Arthur Ward of Storonway Crescent has been elected president of the United Nations Society of Toronto. Previously she had been the executive secretary for the same organization. She knows the work involved as well as the challenge, and will be a great acquisition to the society.

Baythorn Parents
It was only recently that the Baythorn Public School Parents' Association was formed. They are now steaming full speed ahead. They co-operated with the school staff in carrying out a field trip to Toronto Dominion Centre, the City Hall and Casa Loma with the grade 2s. Another, this time, was with grade 4 to Pioneer Village.

There recently was an assembly in which grade 5 put on an excellent gym display. Grade 4 had created a rain forest display from the Amazon regions. There were stories and explanations of displays. Parents were provided with punch and cookies.

A bicycle rodeo was arranged for grades 4, 5, and 6. Constable Young and Sergeant Longman were in charge.

ge. The children performed well. As well as the emphasis on safety, maintenance was also considered.

"Le Fair" — Woodlands
On Saturday morning Woodlands Senior Public School held "Le Fair" in order to raise funds for student trips to Quebec. The success outdid the anticipations of the convener! The students entered into the project with great vim and vigor, and helped in all directions.

There was a bake sale, tea room, plant sale, etc. Short cartoons were shown.

Mrs. Ebby Fotheringham and Mrs. Norma Laine were co-chairmen. Darryl Thompson made an excellent treasurer. Jack Shepe, the science master, pinch hit for the principal who was ill. He was great as the auctioneer of special items gleaned from the white elephants sent in. Mrs. Judy Speirs and Mrs. Toni Simpson, as well as all the other teachers, were hard and able workers on the whole project.

Lions' Auction
The Lions' auction sale takes place Sunday at 1 pm at the Farmers Market, Elgin and Yonge Street. Come, enjoy the fun. Get yourself a treasure and assist the Lions in the many, many good works for the betterment of life in the Thornhill community.

Church News
Last year, due to some misunderstanding, there was no meeting for the World Day of Prayer in Thornhill. Holy Trinity Anglican prayer circle decided this must not happen again, and so they convened a meeting to plan for the next one on March 7.

Representatives from the various churches attended. Mrs. Gregorish, president of the Ukrainian Church Women, graciously extended an invitation to use St. Vladimir's Church on Church Lane for the service. This suggestion was accepted. The group will meet later in the year to continue the planning.

There will be a class for young children and infants at the 10:30 service each Sunday during July and August.

Colorful Cast Of Bayview Glen Public School Operetta

One of the biggest events this year at the Bayview Glen Public School in Thornhill was the recent staging of the operetta "Puddin' Head" by pupils in grades 4, 5 and 6. The show was presented in the evenings May 15 and 16 for parents and the public. Fellow students watched dress rehearsals May 13 and 14. Classes from other Thornhill schools also enjoyed it.

lespie and Karen Bauer. In the third row are Nicky Schmiegelow, Lisa Cayne, Jane Todd.

The back row has Marshall Swadron, John Cunningham, Linda Hawke, Heather Rubinoff, Pennie White, Diane Billes, Marina Drew, Tricia Houston, David Wright and David Sidwell.

The show proved a big success, with the school auditorium close to full both nights. All the teachers were involved in this big effort with music teacher Mrs. Beverley Stewart the music director and Mrs. Bonnie Beldan the pianist. Bayview Glen Public doesn't do a show like this every year, but several years ago they presented "Tom Sawyer".

Lots Of Foreign Titles For Curious Readers

OLIVIER — edited by Logan Goulay. Here are assembled views by friends and colleagues of this great actor. They evaluate his tremendous achievements, yet some express the opinion that he was a failure as director of the National Theatre. Thirty-two pages of photographs. (Non-fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville.)

THE SURVIVORS — by Anne Edwards. A most successful first novel of suspense set in Switzerland and London. The gruesomeness of the mass murders set against the precarious sanity and undoubted charm of the suspected heroine results in one of the best horror stories of the year. (Fiction at Markham.)

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL — by Katharine O'Shea. With "the troubles" in Ireland very active, this re-issue of the life of Parnell is most timely. By means of both narrative and letters Mrs. O'Shea tells the world-famous story of her love affair with the great Irish leader. (Non-fiction at Thornhill.)

CELESTIAL NAVIGATION — by Anne Tyler. A penetrating, sensitive novel dealing with human enigmas and failures; and the peculiar aura that surrounds this group of people in a Baltimore boarding house. (Fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville.)

A BOY AT THE HOGARTH PRESS — by Richard Kennedy. This book, offering a peep into the lives of Virginia and Leonard Woolf and other literary giants at the Hogarth Press, is a masterpiece both for the marvelous drawings it contains and for the disarming candor of the text by this young apprentice. (Non-fiction at Thornhill.)

DARK AND BLOODED GROUND — by Mary Eastman and Mary Bolte. The outstanding beauty and aptness of the photographs and the exceptional literary quality of the text make re-reading these well-known Southern ghost stories a new pleasure. (Non-fiction at Thornhill.)

Thornhill Girls' Rep Teams Open Season

Flames And Streakers Combine As Thornhill Flaming Streakers

BY MARG HOUGHTON
The Thornhill girls town representative softball teams opened their league schedules on three fronts last week, and in each case the Thornhill girls came out winners.

The Midget Streakers, sponsored by Sanders' Realty, and the Bantam Flames, sponsored by Travelways, each play in the Lakeshore League. Dues to a large number of teams entered in the league this year, north and south divisions were formed.

With Thornhill in the north division, the Streakers play against Uxbridge, Keswick, Greenwood and Port Perry. The Bantam Flames meet Stouffville, Beaverton, Uxbridge and Keswick, and are entered in the North York Midget league.

"In case we find ourselves overmatched against any of these clubs, we have included 6 midgets on our roster," reasoned Manager Al Howard. "We call ourselves the Flaming Streakers." The outlook appears bright as all three teams opened their schedule last week.

The Flaming Streakers shut out the Willowdale

Midgets 24-0. Kelly MacInnis was the winning pitcher as she, Sue O'Connell and Deb Howarth combined to hurl 10 strikeouts. O'Connell was also the hitting star, collecting three singles and a double, while Darlene Harrison knocked out four singles.

The Bantam Flames made a long trip to Beaverton worth while as they easily dumped the home team 19-5. Lynda VeViola smashed two singles, two triples and a home run. Liz Seelye knocked two home runs while Stephanie Clarke and Theresa Bach collected three hits each. Deb Howarth was the winning pitcher, fanning eight out of the 11 batters she faced early in the game.

The Midget Streakers made their debut a winning one as they crushed Grand Ravine 19-3. The Streakers appeared rusty in the early going, trailing 1-0 after four innings. But back to back doubles by Jean Goulay and Patricia Keffer were followed by a home run off the bat of Christy Lee, and the Streakers were off and running. Eleven runs crossed the plate in the fifth inning with every girl in the line

COMING GAMES

The action continues hot and heavy again this week. The Flames travel to Smithville on Saturday June 1 to participate in the season's first tournament. On Monday the flames take on Uxbridge and the Streakers tangle with Keswick in a double header at Grandview Park. Tuesday the Flaming Streakers play Grand Ravine at Duncan Park and on Thursday Stouffville plays the Bantams, also at Duncan Park.

Elizabeth Dick '74 Prom Queen

Well, it's hard to believe that Prom '74 is over when I think of the many weeks the students prepared for and looked forward to May 23. The Maraposa Belle had ample room to accommodate almost everyone of the top deck as it cast off from Pier 6 and headed towards the whitecaps in the Toronto harbor.

The top deck served as a dance floor, and the two lower decks were used as lounges. We cruised around Centre Island and saw many of the sights of the Toronto waterfront.

Everyone was delighted to see many members of Thornhill Secondary's staff in attendance, and especially our Principal, Mr. Sherman, who assisted Kathleen Kushmier in the presentation of a bouquet of roses and the Queen's tiara to this year's Prom Queen, Elizabeth Dick.

The four runners-up were Elizabeth Birchmore, Kathleen Chutter, Debbie Dowker and Jane Goodyear. Each received a bouquet of red roses as a tribute to their contributions to Thornhill Secondary.

B.O.S.S. ATTENDS CONFERENCE
Our B.O.S.S. executive attended the York County Secondary School Student Conference held at Lake Couchiching last weekend. We'll probably be hearing the results of this meeting in the near future.

The first issue of Vanguard is being distributed in the school this week. It is a small publication containing articles written by students.

Watch out for the Athletic Assembly coming up!

Don't forget the Sock Hop this Friday afternoon in the gym. It is true that greasers have more fun!

As the only honor graduate in the agricultural secretary course, she received an award of $100. She was also recipient of the 1974 "Girl of the Year" trophy.

A grade 13 student of Earl Haig Secondary School in Willowdale, Miss Cranfield plans to marry Martin Dawson of Windsor, a 1973 graduate of Ridgetown in farm management, and move to Alberta later this year.

Why didn't we talk it over?

Time and time again every funeral director hears this comment.

Perhaps the most difficult part about making funeral arrangements is trying to choose the kind of funeral service the partner would have wanted.

Why NOT talk it over?

The Ontario Funeral Service Association suggests that you talk it over in advance with your funeral director, so that you will not be unprepared.
