Woodland Senior Public's first fun fair was exceedingly successful according to reports. The fair was staged last weekend to raise funds for the grade seven students' trips to Quebec City.

From 30 to 35 car owners took advantage of the car wash service and Jack Shepa replaced Principal Bill French as auctioneer, when the latter was unavailable because of illness.

Winner of the 10-speed bike was D. W. Langlois, 31 Maple L.A.W.N., Etobicoke. Langlois is the uncle of two Woodland students.

Grade 9 Student Neil Howard won the "guess how many jelly beans in the jar" contest.

Special praise was voiced for teachers, Mrs. Joy Spears and Mrs. Toni Simpson for their fine efforts in working with the grade 7 students who operated the venture.

The first 20 students embark for Quebec City Thursday of this week. In the following two weekends other groups of 70 students will make the trip.

Also on Thursday at Woodland Senior the grade 8 students will NOT be seen in their production of the Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, "The Pirates of Penzance" as the show has had to be postponed for an indefinite time. This show is to raise money for that grade's trip to Ottawa and graduation awards.

Moving over to neighboring E. J. Sand Public we learned their "bike rodeo" of last week, conducted by the York Regional Police Safety Officers Doug Young and Karl Hawthorne, was well received.

Top marks for bicycle operating went to Lisa Carl with 24 points, Jennifer Stow and Lee Wintjes of Mrs. Susan Grossman's grade 2 and 4 class received highest credit for bike inspection.

From Mrs. Jean Beaton and Eleanor Scott's grade 6 classes Paul Keely was tops with 18 points.

At the end of their ride, before the police officers, Michael Couper and Todd Smith each had 22 points. A re-ride gave Michael an extra point to be the best from Mrs. Bonnie Robertson's and Peter Jamfeson's grade 4 classes.

The grade 5 winners from Allan Loughhead's class were Patty Jones and Ted Nengies, each with 22 points.

Tuesday and Wednesday of next week E. J. Sand's Junior section present an operetta "Mirror, Mirror" at 7:30 each evening. It is interesting to note that the school's musical director Mrs. Jean Beaton has prepared two casts for this show — one will appear in the Tuesday performance, the other on Wednesday.

The tickets for this show are on sale in the school library — adults 50c and children 25c. Proceeds will be used to defray costs of costumes and scenery used in the show.

At Henderson Avenue Public a track and field challenge tournament got underway May 21 and will continue for several more weeks. A cup will be presented to the class obtaining the highest number of points from the different track and field events at the conclusion of the tournament.

The only news from St. Luke's Separate is that Monday is a professional development day which will see their kindergarten and grade 1 teachers attend a primary workshop in Richmond Hill.

E. J. Sand also reports an inter-school baseball tournament was scheduled for today (Wednesday) at this school. Stornaway and Henderson Avenue Public are among those that will be participating.

Thursday Mrs. Jean Pogue's and Mrs. Melody Williams' grade one classes visited Pioneer Village. Meanwhile Mrs. Marie Plock's and Mrs. Cathy O'Brien's grade 1 classes toured the Kensington Market in Toronto.

The cast of Bayview Glen School's "Puddin' Head" operetta have been invited to a special showing of the E. J. Sand's "Mirror, Mirror" as a reciprocal gesture.

Wednesday of next week the Bayview Glen students will be entertained by the Thornhill Secondary Orchestra.

Neighborhood Notes
Friends and neighbors of Mrs. May Barbour, 136A Henderson Avenue, are happy to learn that she is home from the hospital and that things in the family's apartment are returning to normal following the flooding during her absence.

Birthdays greetings this week go out to Paul Wilson, Morgan Avenue; Victor Dekker, 54 Dawn Hill Trail; and David Sidwell, 14 Multiflora Place. Paul will be 16 years old Saturday, Victor will be the same age Sunday and David marks his 11th next Tuesday.

The 5th Thornhill Guide Company held a "fly up" ceremony Tuesday of last week. Commissioner Mrs. Gail Thompson attended to present 17 girls with their backyard camping badge and backyard cooking badges.

Next Tuesday the company will enjoy an outdoor year-end party, complete with a barbecue dinner.

The ACW Maytime tea was a welcome break from the rain. Congratulations to Convenor Linda Robertson, the tea hostesses and to all the groups for their attractive booths and fine "buys". More than $800 was raised to help the ACW in its work.

Brownie leaders will be held after church Sunday in the fall 1st Thornhill Pack which meets at Holy Trinity. Anyone who can give some time to this great group is asked to call Mrs. Warburton at 881-0417.

There will be a class for young children and infants at the 10:30 am service during July and August at Holy Trinity. It will be supervised by mothers. Any mother who could give even one Sunday is asked to call Mrs. Campbell at 889-6549.

A special United Church congregational meeting will be held after church Sunday to elect a new chairman of the mission committee and to fill some vacancies on administration, Christian education, community service, fellowship and mission committees.

Former Leader Miss Trudy Johnson of Woodward Avenue was a special guest and spoke on her favorite subject, "Camp Ilihee". This is a camp for the handicapped which is in its ninth year of operation in the Metro area.

put on a concert before visiting other high schools in Northern Ontario. All students were billeted in local homes as guests of local band members. It was an enjoyable and educational experience for them. Due to the teachers' strike in York, our students were limited to an excursion of one day and night only as they strive to make up for the loss of school time this year.

Choral
The "Cantabile Choral" of Thornhill will be presenting its spring concert at 8:30 pm June 3 at St. Matthew's United Church, 333 Crosby Avenue, Richmond Hill. Special guest artists will be "The Voyageurs" string quartet and Tenor Nigel Fonjehka. Phone 881-0817 for further information.

Theatre
A reminder that Thursday is dress rehearsal night at the Curtain Club. All senior citizens will be welcome to see the play. Phone 884-7240 for further information or a pickup if needed. Opening night for "Sound of Murder" is May 31. This is the last presentation of this season.

Church News
At Emmanuel Anglican, Mackay Drive, the June meeting of the ACW will take the form of a pot luck supper at the home of President Joan Turlebury at 7 pm. This will wind up the winter and spring seasons and plans will be made for the autumn and winter starting in September.

It is with great regret that the parishioners of Emmanuel learned of the resignation of Organist and Choirmaster Robert Long. He has been appointed to a similar post at the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, St. Clair Avenue, Toronto.

Bob has been in this parish for seven years and has given able and devoted service as well as endearing himself to all. He has also been very active in the youth work of the church and hopes to continue to be of assistance in that capacity in his new domain.

When he leaves in July, he takes with him the affection

Markham was retired scoreless in the first. Lead off batter Angel for Thornhill was awarded first base after being hit by a pitched ball, and stole his way home on the next three pitches, for first score of the game. Greg Daurio and Ron Reinders were walked into scoring position and then brought in on a well hit ball by cleanup Greg Pacek. Thornhill errors allowed Markham to tie the game at 3-3 in the top of the second. The Cards responded with a single run by Paul Thomas on only Thornhill double of the game. In the crucial third the Cardinals exploded for five runs on only one hit, the story of this inning being told in 13 stolen bases for Thornhill.
