CORRESPONDENT: MRS. CHAS. MILSTED
Telephone - 889-9063

Neighborhood Notes
Belated congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Doner, now of Parkview Home, Stouffville, but lifelong residents of Gormley. They celebrated their 88th birthdays — Mrs. Doner Sunday and Mr. Doner Monday.
Miss Karen Benson had the misfortune to fall at school on Tuesday and fractured her left wrist.
Mrs. William Webster and baby son of Vittoria have spent three weeks with her mother, Mrs. Clarence Bass, while her husband is visiting the Holy Land.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Taylor (nee Arlene Reesor, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reesor) who were married Sunday evening at Victoria Square Community Hall.
Congratulations to Miss Judy Reesor (younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reesor) who graduated last week from Brock University in St. Catharines.
Clarence Steckley had a successful auction sale Saturday afternoon. Mr. Steckley was able to leave Sunnybrook Hospital for a few hours in order to be at the sale.
In our column last week we had the incorrect total for the Mennonite Relief Sale at New Hamburg. It should have been $120,000 which is the highest record of sales.
Mrs. Jack Wright, Mrs. Elton Boettger, Mrs. Geoff Campey, Mrs. Fred Yake, Mrs. Ron Elliott, Mrs. Fred Harris, Mrs. Murray Bennett and Mrs. Bob Sayers attended the annual women's retreat at the Emmanuel Bible College Campus in Kitchener over the weekend.

Develop a skill this summer at Seneca King

Seneca College's King Campus now offers summer skill sessions in Visual Arts, French, Equestrian and Recreation programs. Register now — classes start soon:

Visual Arts
Intensive daily classes in June: beginning painting, spin and knit, enamels with Alan Perkins, jewellery-making with Reeva Perkins, beginning ceramics, batik and tie-dye, basic nature photography, landscape painting, weaving, ceramic studio problems and kiln building, stitching with Marie Aiken, painting with Alex Millar in Killarney. Each class is one or two weeks. Fees: $30-40 per class, except Killarney: $75.

Conversational French
An intensive daily program from July 8-19 designed for those with some previous experience, even though rusty. In addition to morning classes, students can participate in recreational activities or dialogue with francophone students from Quebec. Fee: $25.

Equestrian Workshops
Training, driving, blacksmithing, judging, feeding and nutrition, breaking and training young horses, helping you and your horse — beginners, helping you and your horse — advanced riders or green horses. June-August, each workshop four evenings, Mon.-Thurs., 7-9:30 p.m., $15.

Recreation Skills
Golf — June, daily 2-3 or 7-8 p.m., $10 per week

Buttonville Community Happenings

Neighborhood Notes

Mrs. Ken Stiver tells us the car rally sponsored by the pairs and spares at Browns' Corners United May 25 earned more than $100 for the Markham Family Life Centre. About 25 cars entered the rally for a delightful trip through the countryside up Uxbridge and Cannington way, and returned to the church for Supper. Judy and Jack Curtis and Wayne Stiver acted as marshals. Convenors were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stiver and Mrs. Alan Carr.

Prizes were donated by Jack Heppell of the local Shell Station, Joe Arruda of Sunoco, Paul Sobie, Superintendent, and Richmond Hill Little Ford. Bill Hood donated soft drinks, the A&P store allowed a discount on purchases, and the Sunkist Fruit Market near Steeles Avenue donated Spanish onions for the hamburgers. A nice addition to a fine day.

Among the prize winners were the Terry Fielding Family, the Don Reesor family, the Gordon Page family, and the prize for the best lady driver went to Mrs. Mildred Brown.

Saturday was a gorgeous day for seeing the countryside, and there were plenty of attractions. Thousands of fun seekers found their way to the Unionville Festival

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. F. H. LEAF — PHONE 294-5290

There were not disappointed. With his 1915 Ford, in the antique cars display at the Library lawn, and Mrs. Olive Miller had crafts at a gift and antique shop.

Russell Boyington is still in Sunnybrook Hospital following surgery early last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig went to Coopersville, New York, last week with the Markham Museum Association tour, which was conducted by Mrs. Bill Champion. Beautiful weather, fine accommodation, wonderful time.

Mennonite women were quilting on the lawn, and paintings by local artists were displayed. Guests sauntered in and out of antique shops, sat on lawns, or visited with friends. They ranged from the tiniest babies to the eldest elders. And in the early evening Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and Barney Danson, MP, York North were at the circle in front of the arena to shake hands and mingle with the crowd. A festival to remember!
John Brumwell was there

Church News
On Thursday evening, members of Brown's Corners UCW will be guests of Eastminster UCW for a dinner meeting.

On Wednesday of next week the women are invited to attend a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Leaf, 61 Wooten Way North, Markham. The committee, Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson, Mrs. Ernie Walton and Mrs. Leaf will provide the first course. Guests are asked for salads or dessert. Miss Blanche Flumerfelt will be the guest speaker.

"June is Dairy Month. But really every month is Dairy Month at Dominion. After all, we sell more dairy products than any other supermarket in Canada. The variety we offer is exceptional. Our volume keeps our prices down. And nobody beats our freshness. It's the rules we follow that make it so.
All Dominion eggs are graded in a government approved egg grading station.
And we won't use any supplier who doesn't meet our rigid standards of quality control. When you sell as many dairy products as we do, you must be selling the finest. Or our name isn't Dominion".
