

Buttonville Mill Has New Opener

Buttonville Mill, built by Aubrey Stephenson in 1933, has been sold to Dr. John Mollard of Richmond Hill. Dr. Mollard, who operates the Richmond Hill Veterinary Clinic at 11 Centre Street East, Richmond Hill, has informed "The Liberal" that the mill will continue to operate under the management of Tom Perry. Mr. Perry is a resident of Richmond

Hill where he attended public and high school and is a graduate of the University of Guelph. It is planned to feature pet food products at the mill at a competitive price.

Electors Warned-Check Voters'List

Enumeration for the July 8 federal election has been completed, and York North Returning Officer Brian Bailey reports 85,991 registered voters, 6,332 over the 1972 total of 79,659.

Of these 17,624 live in Richmond Hill south of the Stouffville - Gamble Sideroads, the northerly boundry of the riding.

In Vaughan south of Major Mackenzie Drive (excluding the Village of Maple, which is in York Simcoe) there are 6,886 eligible voters listed, and in Markham, which is entirely within the riding, there are 28,358 names on the list.

The remaining 33,125 live in North York between Victoria Park Avenue and Yonge Street north of Finch Avenue and in a narrow corridor south of Finch Avenue between Yonge Street and Bayview Avenue south to Highway 401.

People who have been left off the list and have reported the fact to his office (669-9835 or 6699841) will be visited at their homes by people from his office begining June 14, says Mr. Bailey.

People who have not appealed by that date may report to courts of revision which will be sitting in various locations June 19, 20 and 21. Dates, times and places will be advertised.

Those people who will be out of town on July 8 may vote at-advance polls between 9 am and 9 pm daylight saving time June 29 or July 1. On July 8 the polls will be open from 9 am to 8 pm.

Mr. Bailey predicts that about one million people across the country will be disenfranchised because they will be away on vacation on voting days. Cottage owners, he suggests, might be able to solve the problem by applying to the returning officer in the ridings where their cottages are located and having their names added to the lists in those ridings. This would, however, have to be done no later than June 21.

People on vacation cannot vote by proxy, he points out. Only those who have a doctor's certificate of physical incapacities, fishermen and prospectors may vote by proxy. Application forms are available at the returning officer's headquarters and at the offices of most candida-

The names of the person wishing to vote by proxy must appear on the voter's list, and the name of his agent must also appear on the list in the same polling sub-division. Deadline for getting proxy certificates is July 5. Mr. Bailey advises,

"Get the application early". His office is at 7771 Keele Street, northwest corner of Highway 7, and is open to 10 pm week nights.

People problems can be serious problems.

This is what Ontario is doing to help solve them in advance.

Recently arrangements were made for a group of Indian children to attend the public school in a northern Ontario town. The principal of the school in the town was aware that Indian children sometimes had a rough time at the hands of other students. and to try to forestall this kind of situation, he called in a Human Rights Commission counsellor to talk to the other children. The counsellor asked the children if any of them had ever moved to a new school. and what they thought it would feel like if they were the strangers. In this way he helped them understand how the Indian children would be feeling when they arrived, and the integration proceeded relatively smoothly.

Community counselling is one of the major roles of your Ontario Human Rights Commission. We hold seminars and discussions with police in areas where there are communication barriers between them and minority groups, to help relieve tension and promote mutual understanding. We attend meetings of immigrants and native-born minority groups to explain to them both their rights under the legislation and their responsibilities as citizens of this Province.

We also help bring people into contact with local agencies like home-and-school groups, community and government agencies, and churches, which are available to help but which many people don't even know exist. Wherever there's a difficulty based on race, language, colour or creed, the Human Rights Commission is available to generate discussion and motivate people to develop understanding and respect for the other's point of view.

Our job is to help bring people together and encourage healthier relationships among all groups.
