Charge Markham Youth With Mischief, Theft In Robbery Hoax

A youth, who told police he had been robbed at gunpoint of $395, while working at a service station, May 26, now faces charges of causing public mischief and theft over $200.

Police said the youth, an attendant at XL Gas Bar, Kennedy Road and Steeles Avenue, even supplied them with a description of the alleged robber and of the car he was driving.

Arrested in the matter was Richard Hanna, 18, of Main Street North, Markham.

Another kind of hoax is still around. A phoney $10 bill was turned in at Shoe Shelf, 103441A Yonge Street in Richmond Hill last week. Police said the bill was tendered in payment for a pair of shoes costing $9.97. Serial number of the bill is DG7857146.

The holidays have proved expensive so far for George Hancey, son of Councillor Lois Hancey and Lionel Hancey, 173 Sussex Avenue. Home from University in Thunder Bay, George had $235 worth of fishing equipment taken from his car while at Vivian County Forest, Whitchurch, June 4.

One of life's little ironies was recorded in an Aurora Street last week. Earl L. Sintzel, 37, was picked up on an impaired driving count, June 5. His address: 99 Temperance Street.

An Islington woman had a rude awakening early in the morning of June 4. Police said the woman was found in an intoxicated condition sleeping in her car on Highway 7, east of Woodbridge.

When awakened by police, she complained that her purse was missing. The purse was found outside the car, but $1,700 was gone from it. Police are looking for three other people who had been in the car and then left when it ran out of gas.

Somebody must be anxious to show off his home movies. Both Bayview Fairway Public School in Thornhill and Beverley Acres Public School in Richmond Hill, reported the theft of projectors recently.

The projectors are valued at $580 and $700 respectively.

A 36-year-old Richmond Hill woman told police that a man had followed her to the hallway of her apartment last week and then beaten her.

The incident was said to have occurred June 6, about 10 pm, at 10087 B Yonge Street.

The woman was unable to supply police with a description of her alleged assailant. Dorothy Graham, 9600 Bathurst Street North, Richmond Hill, told police she discovered a diamond ring was missing from her home shortly after workmen had been there making repairs to her kitchen, June 3, between 1:30 and 2:30 pm. The ring is valued at $3,000.

Need Softball Photographer

The Thornhill Softball League requires a volunteer photographer immediately. About 50 team pictures must be taken over the next few weeks before vacations begin to play havoc with the membership. A photographer with dependable equipment and some expertise will need to spend a few nights a week for the next two or three weeks getting this accomplished. Please call President Bob Adams at 889-1295 to volunteer.
