The worship service for the people of St. Matthew's United on Sunday will be held at Camp Richidaca, Kettleby. The congregation, their families and friends will meet at the camp at 9:30 am for pancake breakfast, then proceed to the campfire circle for worship. This will be immediately followed by games and races. Everyone is asked to take along a lunch and a bathing suit. Tickets at $1.50 per family may be obtained from Unee-ta Joyce 884-4959.

More than 1,000 hospital Johnny gowns for a hospital in Zambia is the record compiled by Vi Clarke, a retired Bell Employee, "a bundle of energy who never stays still for a moment." She has made the gown for the Mississauga Council, Telephone Pioneers, and they are shipped to Harry and Marjorie Glaves who are working for the United Church of Zambia at Mwandu Hospital. Harry Glaves is a retired Bell employee from the Toronto Area Plant and the Johnny gown project has been in operation for four years.

Vi makes the gowns from clean, used men's shirts supplied by the Mississauga Council which recognized her 1,000th gown by a bouquet of flowers presented by President Howard Thomas and Chairman Ruth Farwell, Community Services.

But Vi, who retired from Toronto Area Traffic Facilities in 1962, doesn't limit her activities to making Johnny gowns. She serves as treasurer of the Richmond Hill Senior Citizens' Club and scorekeeper for the Senior Citizens' Bowling Club. She sews articles for bazaars and sales in this area, purchases and dresses dolls for young patients at Princess Margaret Hospital, and makes aprons, felt and knitted articles for Christmas sales at church bazaars.

A resident of Richmond Hill for the past eight years, Mrs. Clarke has just moved to Laverock Avenue from Essex Avenue and before that lived on Lawrence Avenue.

Pupils of Estelle Markham had their year's end recital June 6 at the Heintzman Building, Don Mills, in the appropriate setting of numerous organs and pianos. It was well attended by proud parents and friends who appreciated the performance reflecting practice and diligence of the students.

Congratulations were extended to David McCartney, Jill Tomasson and Julie Markham for their achievements in piano examinations, scholarships and awards. And the younger students displayed extraordinary stage presence in announcing their selections and in their reaction to enthusiastic applause from the audience.

Senior students presented a diversified program from classical to popular renditions competently and sensitively executed.

The highlight of the evening was the binding of the talents of teacher and student in a spirited rendition of a concerto by Rowley by Mrs. Markham and David McCartney followed by an organ solo by Mrs. Markham.

The program concluded with a presentation by the Greenborough Community Church Choir conducted by Mrs. Markham.

Guests were invited for refreshments at the home of Mrs. Markham, 27 Vaughan Road, a delightful end to an enjoyable evening.

June 21 meeting of Richmond Hill Coin Club featured a varied program. Stan Clute reported on the success of the inter-club meeting hosted by the North York Coin Club. John Fotheringham delivered a report on tentative plans for the Canadian Young Numismatists Association's autumn show.

A motion was passed to revise the club's constitution and bylaws and to put them in booklet form along with the club's history. It was noted that two members, Paul Johnson and Don Cole, had won exhibit awards at the Peterboro coin show May 15.

June Clarke gave a report on the progress she is making with preparations for the club's annual show. The Hillcrest Mall at Yonge Street and Carville Road would be happy to provide space for the show in the fall, she said.

Named to the show committee were General Chairman Norm Belsten, Bourse Chairman Bob Porter, Display Chairman Ricky Morse, Exhibit Case Arrangements Brenda Gray, Publicity Stan Clute.

The staff of Richmond Hill Library was delighted to receive a visit last week from a former colleague, Mrs. Naida Berry, who with her husband, Ray, were in Hamilton to attend the graduation of their younger son, Kip from McMaster University.

Former long-time residents of Mill Street, the Berry's report that they are thoroughly enjoying life in their new home in Southampton. The winter passed quickly with lots of bridge, curling and many new friends in the area. They are now looking forward to a good golfing season, and of course, lots of good reading from the two excellent libraries located closeby.

The rite of infant baptism was conferred on Shawn Douglas Chivers, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Chivers (nee Barbara Bennett) at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Also at this service the Joyful Sound young people displayed the colorful banners they have made and explained their significance to the congregation. Miss Bernice Jubin of Overcourt Presbyterian Church was the guest soloist.

The adult fellowship of this church is holding a swim-steak-salad party June 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Bennett, 160 Ruggles Avenue. Please call the manse for reservations — 884-1831.

On June 6 Richmond Hill United's afternoon UCW group left by chartered bus for Duclos Point. They were welcomed at the cottage of their hosts, Ruth and Floyd Perkins, dressed in gay matching tropical shirt and sundress.

The party enjoyed a delicious pot luck lunch to the full. After a fun, old fashioned sing song, the shortest business meeting of the year was conducted by President Marjorie Waters, Secretary Elsie Astin and acting Treasurer Irene Roberts. The latter also reported on the parcels mailed to aid the lepers.

It was a perfect day, sitting by Lake Simcoe, relaxing and drinking chilled fruit beverage served by the hosts. Everyone helped make it a delightful occasion.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE
Duplicate bridge club winners June 3 were north-south Fred Tierney and Delia Ladewig first, Bob and Edna Dunn second; east-west Theresa Tierney and Marg McTavish first, Ruth and Gerry Browning second.

On June 5 first were Marg McTavish and Ann Jansen, second Natalie Platzer and Cora Gillham.
On Friday north-south winners were Bob and Edna Dunn first, Ron Dickie and George Laundry second; East-west the top two couples were tied, taking first and second place. They were Phyllis Lennie and Doug Brown and George and Ann Payment.

Next Monday there will be a chance for extra rating points — come and get some. For partners and information phone Marie Cole, 773-4280.

Coin Club
The May 21 meeting of Richmond Hill Coin Club featured a varied program. Stan Clute reported on the success of the inter-club meeting hosted by the North York Coin Club. John Fotheringham delivered a report on tentative plans for the Canadian Young Numismatists Association's autumn show.

A motion was passed to revise the club's constitution and bylaws and to put them in booklet form along with the club's history. It was noted that two members, Paul Johnson and Don Cole, had won exhibit awards at the Peterboro coin show May 15.

June Clarke gave a report on the progress she is making with preparations for the club's annual show. The Hillcrest Mall at Yonge Street and Carville Road would be happy to provide space for the show in the fall, she said.

Named to the show committee were General Chairman Norm Belsten, Bourse Chairman Bob Porter, Display Chairman Ricky Morse, Exhibit Case Arrangements Brenda Gray, Publicity Stan Clute.

After the business meeting adjourned refreshments were served and Ricky Morse conducted an interesting educational forum.

The club hopes to have a guest speaker at the June 18 meeting in the Lions Hall, Centre Street East, at 8 pm. Visitors are invited.

Since moving to their new homes near Orillia in February, Mr. and Mrs. George De Baere have been frequent visitors to the Hill. Their last trip to town was for the purpose of attending the wedding of their youngest son, Robert, who was married to Miss Ella Davidson of Richmond Hill in Richvale Bible Chapel on June 1.

Most of us look forward to summer, visits from friends, family vacations, weekend trips, working or relaxing in the garden. But some do not. There are lonely people in our community, people for whom the days drag on and on and on. If you have a few free hours to talk to such a person or play cards with them or drive, call Helpmate, 884-2727.

The Richmond Hill Minor Soccer Association's women's auxiliary is a very active group, working hard to promote soccer for the boys and girls of the community and to see that they have the necessary equipment to carry on. Their next project is to be a garage sale June 20 at 37 Maralim Road from 7 to 10 pm.

Mrs. Shiela Zidenberg's grade 6 class at Walter Scott School, Markham Road, is presenting the play, "Oliver Twist" at the school at 7 pm next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Tickets are just 50c for adults and 25c for children with a family maximum of $1.50. Proceeds will go to the Hospital For Sick Children, and everyone is invited.

The annual meeting of the North York Branch of the Ontario Registered Music Teachers' Association was held Sunday at the home of Mrs. Estelle Markham, Vaughan Road who began her duties as president for a two-year term. Everyone enjoyed the informal garden setting, and refreshments were served after the meeting adjourned.

The ladies of St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Marathon Bridge Club singles held their closing out party at Summit View Gardens Restaurant on the evening of June 5. They enjoyed an excellent dinner and prizes were awarded. Winners were Sandy Ingram, Marg Lawlor, Grace O'Brien, Catherine Van Wieringer and Helen Buchanan.

A gift of appreciation was presented to Conventor Deane McVey who will continue as conventor when the club begins a new season in September.

Your social and club activities make interesting reading for "It's Happening in the Hill". Your friends and neighbors like to be kept up to date on vacation news, guests from out-of-town, academic achievements and special projects and social events.

This is a free service, but news items should be into the office by Monday for inclusion in the current issue. Address your news to Social Editor Margaret Lade, "The Liberal", 10101 Yonge Street, telephone 884-8177 or 881-3401.

"Craigmore House of Things", a handcraft and antique reproduction store, located on the east side of Yonge Street, just south of Oak Ridges, will be selling the work of many talented local craftsmen at its opening on June 23.

The three partners, Margot Crack, Dilys Rubow and Audrey Randall-Smith, have spent a very enjoyable few months meeting and talking to these people and seeing their individual crafts, all of which will be a feature of the store.

Look for the announcement in next week's issue of "The Liberal" and plan to join in the opening celebrations.

The Explorers of Richmond Hill United are continuing their salvage drive through the summer to keep tin cans out of the garbage and return them for recycling. The cans may be taken to the church or left at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanderson, 8 Church Street North. Better still, save the young people a trip and take your cans directly to Crown Cork and Seal, Keele Street south of Maple, just north of Highway 7.

Cans should have both ends removed, labels removed. Tuck the ends in the can and stomp it flat. Pop cans should be kept separate from food cans.

YR SO

June 16 starts Senior Citizens' Week in Ontario, and on the Monday residents of Country Place Nursing Home on 18th Avenue will be treated to a wine and cheese concert with music provided by a string quartet made up of members of the York Regional Symphony Orchestra.

Shari Smith, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith, 33A Elgin Mills Road West, entered the Pinto Horse Show at Vandon Sunday, her first show, and won numerous awards.

With her pony, J. P.'s Little Imp, she won a first prize, two seconds, a third, and one reserve championship. She also won ribbons for her pony equitation, pony pleasure and halter and trail riding classes. Her trainer is Barry Bull of Oxford Glenn Stables, Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Whitaker of Pemberton Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shropshire of Lucas Street are still reminiscing happily about their two-week trip to Hawaii last month. They visited four of the major islands, and highlights included the 150 mile motor trip across the island of Hawaii to see the state's largest volcano and visits to the Fern Grotto and canyon in the island of Kauai. There were numerous other side trips and tours which contributed further to their enjoyment of their holiday.

Accident Is Old But Fire Is New

It's been more than three months since a CN freight train and a tractor trailer collided at a private crossing in Richvale, derailling the train and causing $1 million damage or more, but the repercussions linger on.

Last week, Richmond Hill Fire Department was called to the scene at Scott Drive and Yonge Street to help extinguish a fire that was a belated result of the mishap. A pocket of fuel, which had spilled from one of the cars at the time, burst into flame, but eventually burnt itself out.

PRINTING FIRE
An early-morning fire at Ronalds Federated Graphics, 1481 Yonge Street, destroyed 33 rolls of printing paper, weighing 1,340 pounds a piece.

Much of the damage was caused by water from the automatic sprinkler system.

The fire, which was of unknown origin, was reported by an employee who noticed smoke coming from a storage area.

ROSE BUSH FIRE
A burning rose bush caused $2,000 damage in a fire at H. J. Mills, Limited, 123 Dufferin Lane, June 6, about 11:48 pm.

The bush had been piled against two fuel tanks and the fire spread from them to a greenhouse.

Cause of the fire was unknown.

Nancy Medeiros of Hobique, Richmond Heights Centre, is planning an outdoor art show for June 22 featuring the works of local artists and craftsmen. Works submitted for display and sale are to be set up in an attractive setting, including floral decorations on the pavement, along the Yonge Street frontage of the centre.

In the short time Miss Medeiros has been operating her shop next to Mister Donut, she has found that the works of amateurs are often much more interesting than those offered by manufacturers and she emphasizes that only original works will be accepted for the show — Work done from kits will not be considered. Any persons interested in participating in this exciting venture may call Miss Medeiros at Hobique, 884-8355. In case of rain on the 22nd, the show will be postponed to June 29.

Bonanza Days at Richmond Heights Centre were great days for senior citizens of the community when the merchants at three breakfast parties. There was entertainment with Wilkie Ranger as master of ceremonies, assisted by Mrs. Ranger and Marino Vanum — onetime Canadian champion accordionist, who could really tickle the ivories. They were joined by the inimitable Millie MacKenzie, who rendered her very amusing, "Listen To The Mocking Bird" and other humorous songs. Ranger, too, was in fine voice and kept everyone happy with his singing of Western and other old favorites.

There were lucky draws each morning for prizes donated by the merchants, and everyone was given a beautiful rose, a ticket for a free loaf of bread, a packet of gum and a ticket for a delicious cup of coffee and donut, all of which added up to three most enjoyable mornings, greatly appreciated by the guests.

Senior Citizens' Week begins Sunday, and an invitation has been extended to all seniors to attend the 10:30 am church service at Richmond Hill United.

Monday there will be a pot luck luncheon at the club room, 71 Centre Street East at 12 noon sharp. Have fun!

Tuesday the bus for the trip to Terra Cotta Park leaves at 11 am, and on Wednesday there will be the regular euchre at the club room at 1:30 pm. Afternoon tea.

On Thursday there will be a hobby show at the club room. Everyone is invited to attend and show their hobbies, beginning at 1:30 pm sharp.

There will be a trip to Springwater Park, Midhurst Friday, leaving at 9 am. Saturday will be "Fun Day" at the club room beginning at 1:30 pm and all are invited.

On June 23, the seniors are invited to attend the 11 am service at St. John's Baptist, 75 Oxford Street. Anyone requiring transportation please contact Mr. E. P. Roblin, 884-1726.

Any member of Richmond Hill Senior Citizens' Club wishing to obtain a little wooden name badge, contact Mrs. Grace Sayers at 884-1316. The price is 80c. She is sending in an order within the next few days, so order now. There will not be another opportunity for some time.

A postcard from Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Saunders, formerly of Jefferson, now of Lefroy, and holidaying in Great Britain, was received Monday. From London the Saunders report five days of perfect weather with temperature in the mid-70s, with the gardens blooming riotously and the food perfect, although prices are a little high. They report conditions in Scotland not as good with strikes and a severe gas shortage. They send their best wishes to all their friends in our area.

The June exhibit of local crafts sponsored by the Richmond Hill Library has been arranged by Miss Peggy Barrett of Harrygan Crescent. Miss Barrett has on display in the library showcase several beautifully designed pieces of batik work combined with an interesting collection of small antiques.

Batik is a "resist" method of imparting design in color on natural fabrics with hot beeswax and dye — a technique that has been known in Malaya and India for several centuries.

The library, on Wright Street just west of Yonge Street, willingly offers space for other collections or displays. Please call 884-9288 for information.

A talk about art and the installation of new officers were the main features of the May 22 meeting of Delta Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at the home of Donna McPhail, Lucas Street.

The program was presented by Joan Hood and Margaret Moon, and the guest speaker was Mrs. Keith McKinnon of the women's committee of the Art Gallery of Ontario.

Officers for 1974-75 were installed: President Judy Weir, Vice-president Monica Dewar, Secretary Carole Draper, Treasurer Mary Lyons and Extension Officer Hilda Baxter.

On May 25 the final mixed social of the year, a barbecue, was held at the home of Mary Lyons. It was enjoyed by members and their husbands, a fitting ending to a very successful year.

2 Awards For Groom

Ray Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frank, 50 Dufferin Street, Richmond Hill, has won his second award in less than two years in the x-ray technician's course at Toronto East General Hospital.

A grade 12 graduate from Richmond Hill High School, Ray worked for a year at York Central Hospital before entering the course, which will be completed in September.

On March 28 he delivered a paper on "Ultra Sound" to a meeting of the central area Ontario Society of Radiological Technicians at Mount Sinai Hospital in Metro and subsequently received a special award from the Winthrop Pharmaceutical Company.

A year ago he received an award for an essay on "Osteoporosis" which was published in East General's own local newspaper. The award came from the Picker X-Ray Company.

Ray is pictured above following his marriage December 1 to Debbie MacDonald, also of Richmond Hill, in Richmond Hill United Church. The couple now live in Toronto.
