Horticultural Society

Roses and peonies will be the stars at the June Flower Show of the Thornhill and District Horticultural Society meeting June 18, at the North Thornhill Community Centre, Baythorn Drive and Royal Orchard Boulevard. A strong supporting cast of other June flowers, as well as vegetables, should provide a colorful and artistic display with classes for specimens, decorative design and juniors entries.

The speaker will be Alex Raab of White Rose Nurseries. His subject is Roses in Landscaping. Other items on the program are plant sales, draw prizes, use of the library and refreshments. The meeting opens at 8 o'clock. Visitors are welcome.

Historical Society

There will be a meeting of the Vaughan Township Historical Society on June 24 in Velloro Hall at 8 pm. R. V. Strym of the Ministry of Universities and Colleges, Historical Museums Branch, will speak on local museums. As you are aware a museum for the Town of Vaughan is on the books. Should you have any suggestions or ideas on this matter, please phone Mrs. Amy Lord at 832-2281, extension 61. (This is the Municipal Office and the mayor has asked for your help in this important step. Thornhill Lions A very, very successful auction sale was held on

Senior Citizens

The Senior Citizens will be going to Woodbridge for a joint picnic with Clubs from Maple, Woodbridge, Kleinburg and the Town of Vaughan on June 20. The bus will leave the Towne and Country Plaza at 10 am and the Farmers' Market at 10:15.

On July 3 they will be joining the Oshawa and District Clubs for their Golden Anniversary Picnic. The bus will leave the Towne and Country Plaza at 9:50 and the Farmers' Market at 9:45. On August 7 the always popular Gravenhurst boat trip and lunch will be enjoyed. Time of departure is not yet arranged.

Church News

The Bible Society Walkathon total to date collected by the seven co-operating churches is approximately $2,000.

Camp Big Canoe announces that Camp 2 and the Canoe Trip Camp 1 are already filled. It is his time to register in case campers are disappointed about dates.

School News

The Sixteenth Avenue Public students from Mr. M. Birman's and Mr. J. Davidson's classes toured to Brantford Tuesday of last week. The accompanying parents were Mrs. Shalldoff, Mrs. Fleiner, Mrs. Tustin, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Hohener, Mrs. Moorehead, Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Aubie, and Mrs. Logush. Once in Brantford all were able to study the TeleScience 100 exhibit and part of the town itself.

The students of Woodland Senior Public took a train trip to Ottawa on June 8 and returned to Toronto on June 8. Upon arrival in Ottawa the students were accommodated in the residence of the Ottawa University. Mr. A. Peachman was in charge of the trip. The students visited places of interest such as Parliament Buildings, House of Commons, Senate, Library, Peace Tower on Friday morning. Friday afternoon they toured to the Royal Mint, and toured it. From there they proceeded to the War Museum. After dinner was the time for a boat cruise or sunning.

On Saturday morning the students went for a two hour educational tour of Ottawa and district after this was completed they toured the National Art Centre. After lunch they visited the National Museum of Science and Technology. From here they went to the CNR station and home-bound they were.

Neighborhood Notes
On Saturday June 8 the Dennis Morre School of Dancing held their recital at Eaton's Auditorium. The pretty little girls of this area were Nancy Nikolaus of Duncan Road, Loretta Lazzer of Elm, Kim Prebble of Elm, Susy and Christine Hamann of Hillview.

Happy Birthday Greetings to Judy Tustin of Sixteenth Avenue who will be 11 years old June 17, Clyde Elliott of Duncan Road who will be 14 years of age on June 18. The best to both of you.

Temple Art Show Social Financial Success

The first fund raising event for the new Temple Har Zion on Bayview Avenue in South Thornhill, an art show on May 25, was an overwhelming success. Offered for sale at the show were works of prominent Canadian, Israeli and international artists including pottery, tapestries and metal wall hangings. Refreshments, including wine and cheese, fruit and pastries, were served through the evening which ended with a lively auction sale. The all-purpose room of the temple which opened in January, was converted to a gallery by skilful use of moveable panels. The congregation was meeting in temporary quarters for about two years before their building was ready for use. Its spiritual leader is Rabbi Michael Stoh.

Neighborhood Notes

A couple of weeks ago Marie Danko had the distinction to play at Ontario Place's Forum. Marie is a member of a musical performing group called the Music Makers. This year the Music Makers finished first in the Newmarket Music Festival. They continued to go onto bigger and better things. The Forum, for example. The Music Makers is made up of Thornhill youngsters aged 12 to 15. They entertain various community groups, such as old folks' homes. I recalled a friend of mine who played in a six-man band at old folks' homes. He received a federal grant to do so, during the summer. So I assumed this was a similar situation but to make sure I asked Marie's mother.

"Who sponsors the group?" "Who do you think sponsors the group?" The mothers! I then told her about my friend and suggested, "Apply for a federal grant. Simply tell them how much, how many are in the group, exactly what you intend to do to entertain the community and say that you are from Montreal and you'll have no trouble getting it."

A 300 yard oil streak from a U.S. tanker, down Bayview Fairways, was responsible for a motorcycle accident. The bike apparently slid out of control. A quick-thinking citizen, who preferred to remain nameless coolly informed the police. The two riders were taken away to the hospital. But the next day they were observed walking about, yet seriously bandaged up. Naturally our wishes are for a speedy recovery.

Lighting has now been installed at the Bayview Fairways gravel pit, with a base-ball screen. Anyone with information concerning schedule of games to be played here, is welcome to phone me. Thank you.

Flames, Streakers Win 4 League Games

BY MARY HOUGHTON
The Thornhill girls' town representative softball teams, the Flames and the Streakers, continued their outstanding play last week, going undefeated in four league contests and showing extremely well in their weekend tournaments.

This week's big story was the Midget Streakers, sponsored by Sanders' Realty, who advanced into the "A" finals of the Uxbridge Tournament before bowing to Scarborough Bridlewood in a 7-6 thriller.

Thornhill dumped Keswick 11-5 in their opening game to place themselves in the "A" division of the tournament. Kelly MacInnis was the winning pitcher, as she hurled 16 strikeouts. Big hitters were Diane Morrow with two homers, Karen Booker with a homer and two singles and Christy Lee with a home run.

The Streakers crushed Cedar Hill 12-1 in their next game as MacInnis hurled a fine two-hitter, striking out eight. Janet Curley, Janet Buxton and Diane Morrow each had two hits for Thornhill.

The locals took on the provincial "A" champion Scarborough Bridlewood club in the final game. Thornhill jumped into an early 6-1 lead but the experience of Bridlewood proved the deciding factor, as they scored six runs in the last two innings to win 7-6. Pitching her third game of the day, MacInnis fanned seven batters, but tired in the late innings.

IN DORCHESTER
The Bantam Flames travelled to Dorchester to play in a midget tournament on the weekend. "We won a Bantam Tournament last week, so we decided to try our luck against older girls," explained the coaches.

The Flames had the jitters in their opening game, as they were upended 18-12 by Woodstock. But the locals came right back and played an excellent game and whipped the Grimby Midgets 15-3, eliminating them from the tournament. Debbie Howorth recorded her 12th win of the year, and she was given tremendous support from her fielders. Big hitters were Sue O'Connell with two triples and two singles, and Stephanie Clarke with three singles.

they had been in a battle. The score saw-sawed back and forth as the Flames put up a good fight before finally bowing 15-11. Being only a Bantam club, the Flames had become the sentimental favorites of the crowd. Coaches Al Howard and Bruce Howorth would like to thank convener Kerry Slater for her support and for the fine treatment the Flames received in Dorchester. "We hope Dorchester will come to Thornhill in the near future."

STOUFFVILLE, UXBIDGE
In league play last week the Flames won two, crushing Uxbridge 37-2 and dumping Stouffville 13-1. Howorth was the winning pitcher in the Uxbridge game as she struck out seven. Theresa Bach played a fine game as catcher and she also knocked out three singles and a home run. Darlene Harrison had seven hits and Lynda Vejilola had four as the Flames batted in seven or eight runs every inning.

The Stouffville game was closer but the outcome was never in doubt. Howorth picked up 13 strikeouts to record the win. Nancy Schneider led the hitting attack with two homers and five RBIs while Darlene Harrison also had a home-run.

BEAT KESWICK
The Streakers had one league game last week, and they easily disposed of Keswick 15-3. Kelly MacInnis picked up the win as she struck out 10 batters. MacInnis also hit a home run, while Deb Milnes knocked out five hits as did Denise White.

In North York League action, Thornhill downed Grand Ravine 15-5. Sue O'Connell was credited with the win as she. Howorth and MacInnis tossed 10 strikeouts. Denise Barclay and O'Connell each had four hits for Thornhill.

2 TOURNEYS AHEAD
In coming action the Flames play in a Keswick Tournament while the Streakers travel to Port Colborne for a tournament on the weekend.

The Bantams play in Stouffville on Monday while the Midgets host Greenwood on Monday and travel to Port Perry on Wednesday. On Tuesday the Flames play at Glenfield and on Thursday at Grand Ravine.

Precedent Setting Thornhill Noise, Nursing Convictions

Two unusual and significant court cases last week involved Thornhill. A local woman was the first to be convicted under the province's Environmental Protection Act for operating a noisy air conditioner.

And an operator of two southern York Region nursing homes was convicted of five offenses under the new provincial Nursing Homes Act. Altogether 16 charges involving staff adequacy were faced by Town and Country Nursing Homes Limited, 8038 Yonge Street, in Richmond Hill Court before Provincial Judge Clair Morrison.

Nursing Home President J. C. Ryan pleaded guilty to the five charges and the other 11 were dropped by Health Ministry Prosecutor Israel Freedman. The firm was fined $200 for each of five, a total of $1,000.

BABCOMBE DRIVE
In the air conditioner case Sylvia Lieberman of Babcombe Drive was given a suspended sentence and six months probation by Provincial Judge Russell Pearse in Newmarket Court. The charge was laid following a complaint from a neighbor who said a noisy air conditioner on the Lieberman property interfered with the use of her backyard.

Maximum penalty for a first conviction is a $1,000 fine.

Should YOU pre-arrange your Funeral?
The wise head of every family takes care to prepare a Will and carry ample Life Insurance with one unselfish motive in mind — to assure his family of security and peace of mind.
Doesn't it make sense then that one should pre-arrange his funeral and leave instructions as to his wishes?
Generally speaking, should it not be YOUR responsibility to arrange YOUR funeral?
Any member of the Ontario Funeral Service Association will sit down and discuss pre-arrangement with you without obligation. Why leave this task to someone else?

PROCLAMATION

The Council of the Corporation of the Town of Markham at a meeting held June 11th, 1974 resolved that JUNE 16 to 22, 1974 shall be observed as
"Senior Citizens' Week"
IN THE TOWN OF MARKHAM
In compliance with the aforesaid resolution, I hereby proclaim JUNE 16 to 22, 1974 as "SENIOR CITIZENS' WEEK" in THE TOWN OF MARKHAM.
ANTHONY ROMAN, MAYOR, TOWN OF MARKHAM

ABOUT YOUR GLASSES
The criteria for color choice in frames are the same as in choosing clothes — personal coloring, and garment or mood matching. How you proceed with your selection depends, of course, on how much you are inclined to spend, and how you use your glasses. If your prescription permits on-and-off, or casual use, you may choose gay colors that match your mood or your wardrobe.
For constant wearers, preference is usually for a more subdued color. But there are sensible rules to follow, in which your optician is well able to assist.
• Choose a color that "belongs" on your face, that "don't be afraid of some of the primaries. A deep wine is beautiful with black hair, and a redhead can wear a soft green, or coffee color, or dark tortoise to great effect. Black or deep blue are excellent for most blondes. Don't be afraid of color, so long as it is of muted shade.
• Don't forget that there is color, and color shade. For most flattering effect, choose the shade for its balancing "temperature" — a cool shade of the color for warm complexion tones, a warm shade if your skin tones are cool, or pale.
• Frame color and thickness should vary with the feature size: the larger, or heavier the features, the darker and thicker the frame.
• You choose your wardrobe colors with care. Why not your glasses? They can be the most rewarding part of your wardrobe.
This public service announcement is brought to you through the courtesy of Steeles Optical, Towne & Country Square.

BOOK TALK TOWN OF MARKHAM PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Young Montreale's Fancy Novel Of Alienation

STAY OF EXECUTION — by Stewart Alsop. Good journalistic writing; a suspenseful account of the author's courageous fight against the onslaught and ravages of leukemia; interesting relatives and friends — all make this an exceptionally entertaining memoir. (Non-fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville.)
LOCKED ROOMS AND OPEN DOORS — by Anne Morrow Lindbergh. These diaries and letters from the years between 1933 and 1935 reveal Mrs. Lindbergh's rare ability to convey the pain of her desperate quest for privacy. The death of a beloved sister was another grievous added to a burden bravely born. (Non-fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville.)
RECIPES FOR ART AND CRAFT MATERIALS — by Helen Roney Sattler. A book which will be eagerly welcomed by parents, teachers and crafty youngsters. It included directions for using inexpensive materials to make pastes, inks, modeling compounds, casting compounds, paper mache and so on and on and on. (Non-fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville.)
