Neighborhood Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson spent three days visiting relatives at Frankfort last week, the town where Mrs. S. was born.

Mrs. Joan Hooper Wednesday evening of last week was guest soloist at the Richmond Hill Presbyterian WMS meeting, she was accompanied by Mrs. Marguerite Jones who played the autoharp.

Farmers in the area have been sowing seeds by moonlight as well as sunlight, to make up for the very bad weather in May. It is a common sight to see tractors and other equipment plowing the fields toward midnight. And in the Highway 7 area there have been many interruptions to the farmers because of highway construction. Entrances to fields are closed off, roads are too narrow for heavy equipment.

It was Memorial Day at Thornhill Cemetery on Sunday, and among those present were Jack and Mary Rodick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, the Roas Hords, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fuller and Mrs. Reg Crowford.

On Saturday there was a rallying of the Elliott family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Champion. Mrs. Champion is a descendant and other local descendants who joined the 82-member gathering included Bill Hood, Mrs. Douglas Hood, Mrs. Don Reesor and Sharon, Mrs. John Brumwell and daughters Diane and Peggy, Tyros Raise $462.

That was quite a walkathon made by Gordon Brown's for Brown's Corners United and the Society for Crippled Children Saturday. Eleven boys aged 8 to 12 trekked a total of ten miles each to ear $462.

Gerry Reesor had $131 riding on his heels, and Brian Carr $60, with the others earning an average of about $40 each, a great accomplishment. Gerry, Robin Stephenson and Barry Bondarchuk were the first to finish the course. The funds earned will be divided 25% for the church and 75% for Society for Crippled Children.

Cheryl Hanson Search

Buttonville was alive Saturday morning with car and busloads of volunteers who came to search for Cheryl Hanson, missing from her Oak Ridges home for more than a week. Searchers started to come from Toronto and other points about 7 am. Two busloads were from the Salvation Army. Until last fall Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Hanson, Cheryl and her two brothers lived in the apartment at the Martin farm, where Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson live, and Cheryl had many playmates in the areas. Deputy-chief Bob Hood, YRP, formerly of Buttonville, supervised the search Saturday. But no trace of the little girl was found.

Bruce McArthur was among the many Scouts who attended the York Summit Jamboree last weekend. His big brother David is now working at Silverwoods.

Church News

Rev. Allen Hallett conducted the service at Brown's Corners United, Sunday and Sharon Buchanan was organist in the absence of Mrs. Don Reesor who was ill. Afterward the annual Sunday school picnic was held at Bruce's Mill where hamburgers were king and games were supervised by a special committee. Great weather, great time.

About 20 UCW members from Brown's Corners Thursday evening were guests at Eastminster Church (formerly Danforth and North Broadway United) for dinner and entertainment. Among those present were Mrs. Don Reesor, Mrs. John Buchanan, Mrs. Richard Carr, Mrs. Allen Hallett, Mrs. Gordon Spring, Mrs. Harvey Brown, Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. Jack Cough, Mrs. Douglas Hood, Mrs. James Rodick, Mrs. Walter Craig, Mrs. John Donaldson and others.
