Neighborhood Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stots spent a few days recently at Owen Sound and Kitchener. Mrs. William Champion entertained Saturday at a tea for her daughter Margaret, who will be married next month. Margaret has been a member of the Montessori School staff at Flaska Farms on Concession 2, south of Highway 7.

Paul Steffler who is attending the School of Music at McGill University, is working at Leitchcroft Farms during the summer and living with Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson have been in Haliburton vacationing at the Harvey Colard's cottage.

Keith Hood and Don Brodie arrived home from Kansas City where they travelled with the East York Barbershoppers to attend the International Competition of Barbershoppers. They placed well in four categories but missed out in top prizes. Reg and Joy Crawford have had Dougie Crawford, Reg's brother, as their guest this month. Last weekend they returned with him to Bancroft for a weekend with Reg's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Sherman were among the friends who attended the Alick Gardener's 50th Wedding Anniversary recently at their Keswick home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper Jr. are now living at the family ranch near Kirkfield.

Mrs. Douglas Hood has been ill and last week was unable to attend the Buttonville WI picnic.

The Donald Reesors have been vacationing in the Kenora district with Mrs. Kenora's sister Marian and her family, the Jack Stephensons of Unity, Saskatchewan. The Bob Hood family has been in that area also.

WI Picnic
Buttonville WI members and friends boarded a bus Wednesday morning of last week for Haliburton country and a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper Sr.'s cottage on Mitchell Lake.

Hostesses were Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. James Rodick and Miss Elizabeth French (for Mrs. May Hill) and the trail led into beautiful country through Whitchurch, Uxbridge, and on to Kirkfield on the Trent Canal where the group saw boating parties as they passed through the lift locks there. Lunch was at the Hooper cottage, and afterwards there was a euchre game.

On the return trip the party stopped at Brown Hill for dinner. Among the guests attending were Mrs. Wes Middleton, Richmond Hill; Mrs. George Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fitzpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Young, Unionville; Mrs. Florence Hamilton of Colgan; Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly Sr., Newmarket; Ron Godel, Russell Burr, Jim Rodick, Jack Robinson and Ken Stots.

Church News
Rev. Bradley Cruxton is conducting services at Brown's Corners United Church until August 4 when Rev. Douglas Davis will preach.
