Mrs. Jesse Steckley

Sympathy is expressed to the family of the late Mrs. Jesse Steckley and family in the passing of their wife on July 19. She is survived by one daughter, Miriam, at home and Keith Keswick, three grandchildren and one sister Miss Ella Ober of Parkview Home, Loufville. The service will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 at the Hill Brethren in Christ church.

Clarence Steckley

Sympathy is also expressed to the family of Clarence Steckley in the passing of their son, Earl Steckley, on April 21, 1988, passed away at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Toronto, following a lingering illness July 16, in his 77th year. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Steckley, and spent most of his life in the Gormley area where he was engaged in the building trade.

In 1922 he was married to Rose Gibson of Bethesda, who predeceased him. To this union were born five children — Helen (Watt) of Scarborough, Carl of Toronto, Douglas (deceased), Hazel (Kennedy) of Aurora and Donald of Willowdale.

In October, 1949, he was married to Margaret Ward, who survives him. He is also survived by five sisters — Elsie (Mrs. Roy Wideman), Anna (Mrs. Abram Lehman) of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Ida (Mrs. Roy Brillinger), Clara (Mrs. Peter Stickle) and Luella (Mrs. George Sheffer) of Stayner and one brother Walter of Barrie.

Rev. Andrew McNiven conducted the service, Friday in Heise Hill Church, assisted by Rev. Elwood Flewelling of Agincourt, with burial following in Heise Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were six nephews — Clifford Winger, Mervin Wideman, Walter Brillinger, Bruce Steckley, Earl Steckley and Leslie Sheffer.
