Neighborhood Notes
Mrs. Wm. Rodick and her daughter Grace (Mrs. Ted Early) of London, were in Peterboro for several days last month and while there visited Rev. Austin and Mrs. Huston, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Newson at Lakefield.

Mrs. Cal Parton, Janice, Susan and Gregory have been at Muskoka for the past three weeks, with Mr. Parton joining them on weekends.

Kirby Parton is attending summer school during the day, and working hard evenings and weekends at Buttonville Golf and Country Club to earn money for a new trumpet. He hopes to join a band in his off-school time this fall.

Among other Buttonvillians at the golf club this summer are Mrs. Rae Donaldson and Cheryl Tennyson (nights & weekends) — During the day Cheryl may be found at the office of The Toronto Daily Star in Richmond Hill.

The Tennyson family had an early vacation this year, spending time at Flanelon Falls and in the Peterboro area late in June.

Mr. Fred Tennyson is presently in the Extensicare Unit on Steele's Avenue near Leslie Street.

Brian Buchanan is working with the Markham Parks and Recreation maintenance staff this summer. In September he begins his university career at Lakehead University in Thunder Bay.

Susan Buchanan who is spending her vacation from Western University has co-ordinated the town playgrounds program and is now concentrating on the new program at 'New Adventure Playground' in the bush by the Heintzman House on Royal Orchard Boulevard, Thornhill, where children from slick subdivisions in the neighborhood can play at roughing it. There is an enclosure with a stockade, a creek, building materials — they can swing from trees, dig holes. Sharon says they love it.

Doug and Brucette Waterston of Manitoba have been visiting Brucette's family Mr. and Mrs. George Tooley, 17th Avenue, and Doug's parents Mr. and Mrs. Waterston of Unionville, recently. Doug, a Guelph graduate, is raising pigs on his farm operation out west.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hord spend some time at David's in Foxboro near Belleville and more recently have Judy's children to visit them daily. Judy's husband, Marshall Benson, is starting a new business venture and Judy is assisting him for the time being.

Jim and Elsie Hood have been weekending with Keith and Millie Hood at their cottage on Four Mile Lake near Cobocook. Ted and Bonnie Hood spend their free time with Bonnie's parents at Balsam Lake.

Friends were sorry to learn of Mrs. Bill McArthur's illness. She has been in Scarborough Centenary Hospital but is making good progress now.
