King City Robbery Attempt Foiled By Alert Store Man

York Regional Police officers Monday night of last week scrambled to the Mac's Milk store in King City where the manager spotted two men in the parking lot with a gun.

Arrested for conspiracy to commit robbery and attempted armed robbery were Bradley Kelley, 21, and James Potts, 18, both of no fixed address. An apparently abandoned pellet pistol was found. Kelly was also wanted by Snelgrove OPP on two outstanding committal warrants.

Police got the call at 10:30 p.m. Detective Sergeant William Hay of 19 Division hurried to the scene with Detective Dick Witteman and Constable Larry Leigh. They were backed up by Constables William Janes and John Robson.

The two suspects ran from the parking lot after being spotted by the store manager. They were arrested at 11:06 pm on the King Sideroad west of King City, police said.

No Inquest In Pool Death

A post mortem has shown a Vaughan Town golf course bartender trainee probably hit his head on the side of a swimming pool and drowned in the water during a staff party at 4 am Friday, says YRP 29 Division Detective Barry Delaney, officer in charge of investigating the incident.

Delaney says Dr. Bernard Granton, coroner, has indicated an inquest isn't likely to be necessary in the case.

The body of Joseph Dworzynski, 20, of 72 Langside Avenue, Weston, was found at the bottom of the swimming pool at Maple Downs Golf Course on Dufferin Street, just north of Major Mackenzie Drive. The body reportedly was found immediately after the young man was missed at 4 am.

Dworzynski was pronounced dead on arrival at York Central Hospital by Coroner Granton.

Housebreaking In Thornhill

There was a small rash of housebreaking reported to York Regional Police last week in the North Thornhill area.

Entry in one case was made through one of those milk boxes police have so often warned residents to close up. This was Sunday night at the home of Gordon McMahon, 25 Donalbain Crescent. Stolen was an endorsed $80 baby bonus cheque and $85 in cash.

Also Sunday someone forced a basement window at the Jack Webber residence, 43 Donalbain, but only got away with $2.

Vernon Evans of 42 Colonsay Road lost a currency collection valued at approximately $251 when someone pried open his back door latch and gained entry Sunday night.

Between Friday and Monday a rear door was forced at the home of William Manzie, 41 Donalbain Crescent and $150 in cash was stolen.
