QUICK PICNICS by NANCY McMAHON
Come on kids! Let's go on a Picnic Easy to say — Easy to do!
Nothing is any fun these hot summer days that involves a lot of work, is it? Kids like the simple foods that they can nibble in their fingers—and you can see to it that the meal is a good one nutritionally by including fresh fruit and vegetables (tomatoes, cucumbers, lettuce, etc.) Jane Parker rolls filled with tuna, salmon or egg salad are great on a picnic. Roll them in tin foil, and if there is a barbecue at the site of the picnic—just put them on the grill — grand! Carry a cooler — there is nothing worse than wilted lettuce — in a cooler, wrapped in plastic, the lettuce will be fresh and crisp! Hard-boiled eggs have never lost their popularity, and don't forget the good old peanut butter and jam sandwiches that generations of children adore!
Write to us, we have some Quick Picnic tips for you—and we hope you have many happy summer days—with fun in the sun!
