"AN ABSURD VIEW"

"An Absurd View", to be presented by Summer Theatre Workshop '74 is a program of three one-act plays: "The Bald Soprano" by Eugene Ionesco; "Impromptu" by Tad Mosel and "Then" by David Campton. The Theatre Workshop, comprised of student actors-directors from the Richmond Hill area, has been rehearsing since mid-June. It is making its first public appearance in Richmond Hill United Church auditorium, Yonge and Centre Streets, at 8:30 pm August 15 and 16. Tickets $2 at the door or from members of the company.

P.H.A. HORSE SHOW

The Professional Horsemen's Association Ontario Chapter is staging a four-day horse show August 15, 16, 17 and 18 near Pottageville, on Aurora Sideroad between Concessions 7 and 8 in King. Events will start at 9 am each day. Thursday will be ponies; Friday will be junior riders; Saturday and Sunday senior hunters and jumpers. The show is a member of the Canadian Horse Shows Association and is "A" rated in all divisions. Spectators admitted free.

FIESTA OF FUN GAMES

St. Paschal Baylon Roman Cathoic Parish is presenting a two-day fiesta at the church, Steeles Avenue just east of Yonge Street (opposite Towne & Countrye Square), August 17 and 18. On Saturday from 8 pm to midnight there will be food, entertainment, dancing to "The Amigos", admission $2, door prizes including a trip to Italy. At 11:15 am Sunday Solemn Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Philip Pocock followed at noon by "Fiesta" with games for children, pony rides, games of chance, refreshments to late evening. Beginning at 6 pm there will be entertainment and dancing outdoors to "The Casanovas". The draw for "fantastic prizes", including a car, will take place at 10 pm.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE Harbourfront '74, the program for development of the shores of Lake Ontario, is adding new attractions almost weekly with recreation facilities between Bay and York Streets, Spadina Avenue and Bathurst Street. At 235 Queen's Quay, just east of York Street, there are weekday lunchtime concerts, also music for children at 1:30 and 3 pm. Saturday and Sunday concerts begin at 1 pm. The new Bohemian Embassy coffee house is open every night with new artists appearing daily. Sports and games equipment is available and there are free classes in gymnastics, judo, physical fitness. Free sailing is offered and there are two playgrounds specially designed for children. For information call 369-4951.

J. Dooba, dispensing one kind of medicine humor — is being presented daily at Ward's Island at 10:30 and 11:30 am and at Centre Island at 2 and 3 pm. Free show runs daily, ending Friday. 967-6584.

An evening of poetry with P. K. Page, winner of the Governor General's award for poetry, 1954, will be presented at the Parliament Street Library House, 265 Gerrard Street East at 7:30 pm Thursday. Admission is free.

CONCERTS, PUPPETS, FILMS, CRAFTS

"Summer Strings '74", a group of four students of the University of Toronto's faculty of music, are presenting three concerts of semi-classical and popular music for strings at three North York Libraries beginning tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 pm at York Woods Library, Finch Avenue between Keele and Jane Streets. The quartet, viola, cello and two violins, will be at Don Mills Library Lawrence Avenue just west of Don Mills Road, at 1 pm Friday. On August 23 at 2 pm they will be at the Willowdale Library, 5126 Yonge Street, north of Sheppard Avenue. All concerts are free.

Also free is the puppet show, "La Bouleversante Histoire De La Jeune Lulu", at 2 pm at Don Mills Library, 888 Lawrence Avenue East. Produced by the centre for French-Canadian cultural activities, "La Chasse Galerie", the show features more action than dialogue, so full comand of the French language is not necessary for enjoyment of this production.

Summer forum at Willowdale Library, 5126 Yonge Street, concludes with two fulllength feature films. Tonight (Wednesday) at 8 pm the film is the 1941 production of "Citizen Kane" with Orson Welles and Joseph Cotton. At the same hour on August 21 "Top Hat", the 1935 production featuring Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers with words, music and lyrics by Irving Berlin, will be shown. There is no admission charge.

Registrations are being accepted at the Brookbanks Library in Don Mills for a picture hooking course to begin August 21 for ages nine and up from 10 am to 12 noon Wednesdays and Fridays. At the same library there will be instruction for children in the same age group who are interested in kite building. The "Go Fly Your Kite" group will meet at 2 pm August 21 and 28. Pre-registration is necessary for both of these groups. For information call 445-0822.

Non-profit organizations planning programs of interest to readers in Southern York Region are invited to contact Social Editor Margaret Lade at "The Liberal", 10101 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, or 881-3401. Deadline for items for this column is noon on Monday.
