MEAT DEPARTMENT FEATURES

Here's a happy thought! TURKEY for outdoor eating

Yes! Turkey makes a wonderful, thrifty meat for barbecues and picnics! And you can buy turkey to fit your plans... be it a whole turkey for barbecuing to a rich, golden brown on a lazy spit, or half and quarter turkeys basking on an open grill. Cut-up pieces, too, like drumsticks, wings, thighs, make excellent outdoor fare. And remember, sliced turkey is swell for picnic sandwiches.
