Neighborhood Notes

Rev. and Mrs. Allen Hallett, Jane and Jonathan returned home in mid-August after a month's visit with family in Montreal, Fredricton and Cape Breton. Mr. Hallett is back in the pulpit at Brown's Corners United Church and on the Sunday he returned Regina Allen played the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Reesor and family have been week-ending at their Haliburton cottage as often as time permits.

Mrs. Gordon Spring was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harper (formerly of Unionville) recently, at their home in Little Britain, and met several friends in this "little Scarborough" community — so called because many former Scarborough residents live there — the Russell Littles, the Henry Beares, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Walton kept the home fires burning at the Milton Sherman Home while Milt and Mary were vacationing at Owen Sound. Recently the Waltons attended a Silver Wedding Anniversary celebration at Bowmanville for Mrs. Walton's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ferguson of Ancaster.

A number of neighbors joined the Markham Women's Liberal tour recently on a trip to Oshawa where they visited the Windfields' Stud Farm and Parkwood, the former home of Col. Sam McLaughlin. Dinner was at the Guild Inn. Among those attending were Mrs. James Rodick, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. Wm. Rodick, Mrs. Wm. L. Clark, Mrs. John Donaldson, Mrs. Fred Leaf and Mrs. Wm. Champion.

Mr. Roy Boyington has been in poor health at Markham Lodge, and was recently removed to hospital.

Mrs. Harold Ashley visited relatives in Colorado recently.

Mrs. Elmore Hill spent some time with her sister Mrs. Lloyd Baker at Locust Hill in recent weeks.

Margaret Champion, whose marriage to Edward Arsenault of Toronto took place August 20, at the home of and Mrs. Wm. Champion, the bride's parents, Mr. was entertained at a series of parties before the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Ray McTavish of Buttonville held a buffet supper; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jeffrey of Uxbridge hosted a supper party; there was a shower and dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hood, Buttonville; and Mrs. W. E. Bridgman of the Cabot Country Club entertained at an afternoon tea and shower when guests were members of the senior class of the (Flaska) Montessori School and their mothers. Margaret has been a teacher at the school for a number of years.

Neighborhood Notes

Miss Mary Knowles of Brightway Crescent is recovering at home after a fall off her bike last week. She spent one night in the hospital with concussion and bruises.

Master John Bredmore of Merrylynn Drive also had a bad fall from his bike last week. He spent several days in the hospital where he had to have surgery.

Bruce Kilpatrick of Rathfon Crescent spent last week at the Rothman Canadian Open Tennis Championship Games in Toronto. He is the co-ordinator for this and all Rothman Canadian tennis games. Many months of planning and preparation are involved before an event like this to make it a success.

We would like to tell about many more of the happenings in the neighborhood. Call us about your holidays, parties, birthdays and so on. We would like to welcome a new neighbor and say farewell to one who is leaving. Little people love to read about their trip to hospital or that birthday party.
