Blood Donor Clinic
August 29 is a date to remember as this is the Tuesday that a Blood Donor Clinic will be held in Richmond Hill at the Lion's Hall on Centre Street. It will be held from 2 to 4 in the afternoon and 6 to 9 in the evening. Since we all know how important blood is to our survival then why not give a pint?

Neighborhood Notes
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Thomson of Duncan Road on their wedding anniversary on September 2.

Congratulations to the Richvale Bantams who won the "B" Championship on Sunday, August 18. The jubilant players ended the day with a celebration at Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sawyer's home. Rose Trailers the sponsor of the Richvale Bantams supplied the pizza and drinks for everyone. Coach Ralph Sawyer was a very happy man that day.

The Richvale Squirt boys won easily over Oak Ridges Squirt boys with a score of 20 to 10 in their game at Ross Doan on Thursday.

The Richvale Bantams won over the Thornhill Blacks in their game on Thursday.

Change Of Name
Starts August 31
RC School Board

The name change of York Regional Roman Catholic Separate School Board from York County Roman Catholic Separate School Board will become official at midnight, August 31 this year, board members agreed at the August 20 meeting.

The decision to change the name to conform with the name of the regional municipality was made at the June 18 meeting and approved by the Ministry of Education July 9. In neither case was a starting date given.

The board's solicitor had advised that for legal purposes a date for the change should be set and the trustees agreed to follow his advice.

King City Scholar's
Nuptials At Maple

The lovely sunshine of a quiet August evening shone down on Jill Fraser as she entered St. Stephen's Anglican Church in Maple to become the happy bride of John Holditch.

To the organ sounds of "Praise My Soul, the King of Heaven", the bride accompanied by her father, was preceded down the aisle by her sister-in-law Joan Fraser and her maid of honor Merle Allan.

The bride wore a silk chiffon, empire styled gown with a lace bodice. The delicate pleating at the neckline was repeated at the cuff of the full bishop sleeves. The full skirt was finished in a slight train. A shoulder length veil completed the ensemble as did the sheath of red roses and baby's breath.

Her two attendants wore long sleeved gowns of floral red and white silk jersey with jewel necklines. They carried nosegays of white spider mums and baby's breath. Tiny flowers adorned their hair.

The groom, John Holditch, was attended by his best man Robert Ellis of Ancaster, and his future brother-in-law Andrew Fraser.

The church was decorated with red and white gladiolas standards and white bows on the pew ends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Ramsay Armitage with music on the organ by Valerie Woods.

Following the service, a receiving line was held on the church lawn. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Grant Fraser wore a blue silk jersey shirtwaist with a wrist corsage of darker blue cornflower and tiny pink carnations. Mrs. Ross Holditch, mother of the groom, wore a gown of pale pink with a lovely orchid corsage.

A reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fraser at the Garret Room of the Old Mill. It was a small gathering of close friends and relatives with dancing afterwards to the house orchestra. John Holditch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Holditch of Islington and is a graduate of Ryerson Polytechnical Institute. Jill, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fraser of King City, was an Ontario Scholar graduate of King City Secondary School and is now a third year pharmacy student at the University of Toronto.

The happy couple are enjoying a wedding trip to Banff and Jasper and will reside in Islington on their return.
