Binder Twine

One community effort that has snowballed into something way past everyone's expectations is the annual Kleinberg Binder Twine Festival. This year a larger area has been cordoned off and on September 7 from 12 noon on, the festival is on! It is officially advertised as an Antique, Arts, Handicrafts, Exhibition and Sale and over 50 dealers will participate in the Flea Market or "Drury Lane" area. Offered will be old and interesting curios, silver, books, Canadian collectables, furniture, china, brass, glass, clocks, prints, lamps, jewelry, etc.

There will be demonstrations of spinning and weaving, and furniture refinishing. Continuous entertainment will be provided with Master of Ceremonies ventriloquist Billy Davis, and celebrities Uncle Bobby, Karen Hendrix, Hazel Walker, the Toyland Puppets, the Queen City Harmonizers, Ross Sully and the Sounds, and comedian Rolly Hammond.

Food will include home-made apple pie and sarsaparilla. Pony rides, games of chance, bingo, children's costume and pet parade, hanging basket contest, grinning contest, apple pie contest, and sheaf tossing contest will all vie for your attention.

Three simultaneous street dances will fill the evening. Swing to the big band music of Jimmy McDonald, rock to the music of Nightowl, and Hoe Down with Cousin Lupe and the Country Rhythms featuring Don Celsie. Admission is $1, children under 12 free. See you there!

Cancer Society

The annual general meeting of the King Branch of the Cancer Society will be held Monday at 8 pm in the King City Community Centre. Volunteers will be asked to work on dressings and diversional therapy kits for the Princess Margaret Hospital. This is a public meeting and everyone is welcome.

Ballet

The Cathy Condie School of Ballet offers ballet lessons beginning with Pre-Ballet which is for ages 4 to 6; Form 1 for ages 7 to 10; and Form 11 for ages 11 and older. Fees are $20 per term or $6 per month. Term 1 begins September 11 and runs until January 22. Term 11 begins January 29 until May 28. For registration please call Miss Condie at 833-6393.

Seneca College

Seneca College, King Campus now have their brochure out advertising the fall courses available and if you did not receive one in your mail please call 884-9901.

In this brochure the college invites you to participate in a variety of educational experiences for career development or leisure enjoyment. In admitting adults to individual subjects, whether credit or non-credit, Seneca College has as its primary concern the suitability of the subject in the light of the individual's interests and background. The college seeks to assist you in determining whether a given subject will be beneficial in the light of the effort, time and money that is committed.

This fall and winter program represents a response to many requests from individuals and groups. Additional suggestions are always welcome.

Classes start on September 23 and again on January 6. The subjects range from Business and Secretarial Skills, Early Childhood Education, English and Communications, Equestrian Programs, Hospitality Programs, Liberal Studies, Recreation Facilities Management, Recreation Skills, Technical Interests, Underwater Skills, to Visual Arts. Under each of these headings are many variations. You're sure to find one to interest you.

Beef and Oyster

The annual Beef and Oyster Party sponsored by the York North Progressive (provincial) Conservative Party will take place on September 7 at the King City Community Centre. Beef and oysters will be served from 5:00 until approximately 9:30 pm, with music to dance to until 1 am. Music is being provided by the Richmond Hill Youth Concert Band under the direction of Robert Theil; and also by George Cowie's Sextet. Hugo Walker of Kingcross is the president of the PC North Riding. Volunteers are needed. Tickets are $10 per couple. To volunteer or obtain tickets please call 833-5200.

Hockey Registration

As the cooler weather

arrives, boys (and girls) begin to think of fall activities. Registration for the King Minor Hockey Association will take place at the King Arena on September 7 and 14 from 10 am until 3 pm. Fee schedule is as follows: Regisers—$25; House League—$40; Girls—$40; OMHA—$40. Family maximum is $120, which includes a season's pass to the King City minor hockey games.

Figure Skating

The executive of the King City Figure Skating Club, through its president Mrs. Joan Evans, announced registration will take place September 14 at the King City Community Centre and anyone interested will please register between the hours of 9 am and noon. Fees are $40 for the first child, $35 for the second child, and $30 for the third child. Family maximum is $110.

Carib '74

The Figure Skating Club and the Minor Hockey League again present Carib '74 as their major fund-raising event of the year. It will be a festive event on the evening of September 21. Tickets are $6 a person and available from members of the hockey and figure skating organizations. Also from Isobel Shelton at 833-5169. At the same time purchase a $1 ticket giving you a chance to win a Trip for Two to Acapulco, Mexico. The Limbo Floor Show will begin at 10:30 pm. Dancing will be to the music of Dick (Syncona) Smith and his Steel Band. This band was recently featured at Ontario Place.

I'm sure everyone is watching with interest the renovation of the old Crawford Wells General Store. The new railing is a great improvement.

New in King

For everyone who has been wondering why there is a blue enamelled rocking chair atop a pole on the lawn of a local real estate office, the answer is The Brass Duck. The Brass Duck will also be the answer for all those folk who love to dream, muse and meditate while rocking to their own personal tune.

To reach The Brass Duck which is officially, without fanfare, open for business, first look for the Brass Duck sign located between the real estate office and the post office, and follow the arrow down the board walk to the tiny shop behind.

At one time a chicken coop boot shop, and label printing factory, and undoubtedly many other usings, this old building is now the project of Tim O'Hara who with the assistance of many friends converted it into an interesting shop where he will present for sale rocking chairs of the past. Although rocking chairs are the shop's main theme, O'Hara also hopes to include a bit of macrame, green plants, and some lesser known brands of tea and coffee.

Also included in the venture is Richie Forrest of Richie Forrest Limited, who has a small office off one end of the shop. Forrest specializes in wood lot management, and tree planting. Wood lot management is the improvement of your woodlot by careful thinning and replanting. Forrest is one of the friends who assisted in the conversion of the chicken coop into the Brass Duck and also laid the board walk.

For Toronto urbanites who travel up to King City to visit the Stable Gallery, Color and Contrast and Kingcraft House, a visit to the Brass Duck is a must!

Norm's Travelaugh

I had the pleasure of meeting with two travellers in the North Bay region last week. One was Hugo Walker of Kingscross Estates and the other, Rev. Neville Bishop, rector of All Saint's, King. What a combination! A priest and a lumberman! After all, who wants "holy wood?" I would expect it would be a "blessed nuisance" on any construction job.

Construction News

It was recently announced that Captain Developments Limited of Toronto plans to build a 10-storey apartment and office building in Aurora. The new high-rise structure is to be located at Wellington and Haida Streets. The value was not disclosed.

Diane and Murray and their other children, Stephen and Juanita, used to live on Marilyn Crescent (now Hughes Street) before moving to Liverpool, Nova Scotia, in May.

Hockey

The Oak Ridges and District Minor Hockey Association is sponsoring another Country and Western Show at Bond Lake Arena September 14. There will be dancing all evening from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m. (The bar opens at 7 p.m.)

Appearing will be: Honey

West, star singer, E. M. Capitol Records artist; Lloyd Mackey and the North Winds, recording artist for Boot Records of Nashville, Tennessee; and other local talent.

There will be door prizes and dance prizes and the tickets are $10 per couple, available from Shirley Smith at 773-5754 or at Toby's Restaurant and Tavern in Bradford.

Master of Ceremonies will be Bob McAdorey of CFGM. Restricted to persons 18 years of age and over.

Minor hockey registration will be held September 7 and 14 from 12 to 3 p.m. at Bond Lake Arena. Fees are $50 for the first child, $40 for the second with a $150 family maximum. This includes membership card and entry to all league games.

Hockey coaches are still needed for OMHA and house league teams. Please contact Shirley Smith at 773-5754.

Filthy

Driving down the 401 recently I saw a filthy license plate. Really I did! The car itself bore the legend "Filthy McNasty" and the license plate — a California one, I think — just had the word

FILTHY on it!

If any readers can enlighten me, I'd welcome it. I'm wondering who Filthy McNasty is and, with my imagination, who knows where that will lead.

I did have some thoughts on it as I drove. First, I imagined that he was a wrestler, then I disregarded that idea as defaming or demeaning to the noble art of wrestling. Maybe Mr. McNasty is a Mafia fingerman, or a sewer cleaner from Los Angeles.

If you know who Filthy McNasty really is, help, before I get threatening phone calls from "The Godfather".

Wed In King City United Church

Candelabra, green leaves and bouquets of gladioli formed the attractive setting in King City United Church for the August 24 evening wedding of Gwyn Marlene Urquhart to Colin Howard Marriott.

The bride, a third year student at the University of Waterloo, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Urquhart, RR 2 King, formerly of Richmond Hill. The groom is a graduate in chemical engineering and is a process engineer with 3M-

Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marriott, 110 Secord Avenue, Ottawa.

Rev. Dr. Grant Brown was the officiating clergyman and traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Peggy Renshaw of Richmond Hill.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line dress of white European cotton lace and white polyester crepe and carried a bou-quet of green leaves. Her headress, trimmed with lace, flowers and pearls held a shoulder-length veil. Her only accessory was a string of Majorca pearls, a gift of the groom's parents.

She was attended by her sister, Margaret Karen Urquhart, as maid of honor and Cheryl Matthews as bridesmaid. Their gowns were fashioned of print and plain materials with swirl skirts, the maid of honor's being pale green and the bridesmaid's pale yellow. They wore large floppy hats and carried baskets of daisies, carnations and ferns.

While the photographer was taking pictures at the bride's home the 85 guests were entertained with punch and tidbits. This was followed by an informal reception at King Valley Ski Lodge where a buffet dinner was served and dancing enjoyed.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco, the young couple will be living in London, the bride attending Western University.
