

Rams Prepare For New Season

Summer is over for these members of the 1974-75 edition of the Richmond Hill Provincial Junior "A" hockey Rams. But they don't look unhappy about it. Shown preparing to hit the ice for another heavy practice are three of last season's stalwarts (left to right) Defensemen Allan Potts, Benny Pederson, and Forward Bobby Bangay. Bangay is also trying out for the Kitchener Major "A's".

They'll be doing a lot of this from now on. Applying tape to hockey blades. Two of this season's Richmond Hill Provincial Junior "A" Rams, Jim Roffey and Jim Graham, are among those returning from last season. They're currently among the 40-odd youngsters scrambling to make the Rams in workouts described by Coach Karl Brimblecombe as being "the most impressive since I've been coach here." The squad was slated to open its exhibition series at home tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 o'clock against Toronto Nationals and will be playing subsequent exhibition encounters against Wexford Raiders and Aurora Tigers the next two Wednesdays at 7:30 pm.

No School Sites Needed In Seven Subdivision Developments, York

York County Board of Education this week reviewed reports on school site requirement in seven proposed subdivisions in the area, including one in Richmond Hill, and agreed with its staff no new schools were required.

The Richmond Hill report was the result of a proposed amendment to the town Official Plan to re-designate the land use from rural to urban residential at the corner of Bayview Avenue and Markham Road, south of Bayview Secondary School.

The report stated there would be 180 rental apartments, yielding about 33 elementary and 14 secondary school students.

It was felt accommodation would be available at Walter Scott and Crosby Heights Public Schools, and Bayview Secondary and Richmond Hill High School.

VETO KING SITES

There were three potential sites turned down in King Township.

The board agreed temporary accommodation might be required for a proposed subdivision north of Nobleton for a 470-single family development, until the number of students justified an addition to Nobleton Senior and/or Nobleton Junior Schools, where some 470 elementary school students are predicted.

Accommodation for the approximately 188 secondary students would be available.

The board said accommodation would also be available for both the expected 91 elementary and 37 secondary school pupils for a proposed 91-single family development in Schomberg.

The third proposed subdivision in the township calls for 160-single family dwellings, and approximately 115 elementary and 46 secondary school pupils in King City on the west side of Keele Street, north of Doris M. Patton Public School.

Temporary accommodation would be provided for the elementary school pupils until such time as the number of students in the King City junior schools attendance area, justified the building of additional accommodation, the report said.

MARKHAM VETO

The remaining three will be provided.

school sites turned down, included one in Markham and two in Newmarket.

A proposed amendment to the Markham Official Plan to change the land on the west side of Highway 48, north of 16th Avenue from agricultural to residential, called for 77 single-family dwellings.

The report said accommodation would be available for the approximately 55 elementary and 22 secondary school pupils expected.

The first Newmarket development is proposed for the north side of Gorham Street, east of Muriel Avenue.

About 78 elementary and 32 secondary school pupils are expected from the 108 single-family dwellings.

Temporary accommodation would be provided until additional permanent accommodation was required.

The other proposed subdivision in Newmarket is for the south side of Davis Drive, east of J.L.R. Bell Public School, and calls for about 28 elementary and 13 secondary school pupils in the 134 apartment unit division.

Temporary accommodation would be provided.

Minor Soccer Results

House League Finals

HOUSE LEAGUE ATOMS
With the league competition now complete it is interesting to reflect on the close games of the past month. There were a few surprises and this should point to much keener games during the cup tournament which is now underway.

The stronger teams during the league play will not find things quite so easy and there is every indication of some upsets taking place.

It's good luck to everyone during this competition and may the best soccer team win through.

Final standings for the league play show-Richvale Scaffolding winning the league and in first place with 25 points. MOSQUITO EXHIBITION (September 3)

Richmond Hill 1, Armourdale 0
In a warm-up game played at Willowdale J. H. Field, the locals blanked the strong Armourdale team by the only goal scored by C. Rothwell. Both teams are preparing for the Cup games schedules which will be out this week.

Coach Les Trotman expects all 14 girls to be available for the Cup game which, he thinks, Richmond Hill can win and emulate some of the boys in the Premier league.

PEEWEE - NORTH YORK LEAGUE (September 4)

York Mills 2, Richmond Hill 1
A real turnaround this one. While the local Parks Electronics team have been forming an exceedingly well this year it goes to show how a good squad can lose to one at the bottom of the league by really displaying overconfidence. But the locals still won the league. Goalie Donna Smith was injured but not seriously. She will be back for next week's game.

SENIORS

SCARBORO LEAGUE (September 4)

Don Mills 1, Richmond Hill 0
Despite a good display, the Baif team could not overcome the one goal superiority of the winners. Best player for the locals was Marion Brown and her one header off the goal line and follow up clearance to the sideline was as good as any boys. Special mention to Kim Kernohan for a sound display in goal.

In Richmond Hill Industrial League

Town Auto Body In Top Spot Playoffs Start This Week

By DAVE BARBOUR
The past week saw a winding down of action in the Richmond Hill Industrial League as the playoffs start this week. With one game of the regular schedule remaining to be played, President Fred Simpkin decided to get the "A" playoff series underway. This series pits RH Auto Body, who finished in first place meeting Jenkins Garden Supply, the third place team, in a best of three set.

In a key game Friday, Barrow's downed Joe's Garage, which keeps them alive and gave third place to Jenkins. Barrows then met McKinlay Drywall Monday in the last game of the regular schedule. A win for Barrow's would produce a two-way tie for the fourth and last playoff spot. Should McKinlay win, the defending champs are dead.

A ruff game for the last playoff spot between Joe's and Barrow's, if necessary, will be played at 9 pm this evening (Wednesday), otherwise it will be Town Auto Body and Joe's getting underway. "B" of the playoffs under way.

Town Auto Body 9, Fram Filtration 0
Due to the weather, only one game was played Monday of last week, which was over before it started as Fram defaulted. A short game was played in a light drizzle as Town loaned Fram a pitcher. Town won 1-0 as Dwight Powell singled and scored on Gary Oliver's double for the only run of the contest. Oliver was on the rubber for Town, while his backup man, Don Quinton, threw for Fram.

RH Auto Body 9, McKinlay Drywall 0
In the first game Wednesday, RH Auto Body locked up first place as they downed a stubborn McKinlay team at Crosby Park.

Alex Smith singled in the top of the second. This was followed by a bunt single off the bat of Dave Luke, then Lou Vanderploeg singled to load the bases. Ian Oliver reached first on an error which allowed two runs to score. The Hillers' third run came in the next inning on Ken Faulkner's first homer of the season. The pitchers were Smith for Hill Auto and Dennis Sexton for McKinlay.

Town Auto Body 9, Lake Wilcox 1
In the nighttime Town trounced a disorganized group of Lake players. No further details are available.

Barrow Insurance 3, Joe's Garage 2
Friday night brought the game everyone was waiting for — Joe's versus Barrows and Barrows did what they had to do — WIN.

In the bottom of the first inning Barrows drew first blood as Glen Wright doubled and scored when Roger Ball sacrificed. Joe's bounced back in the top of the second and found themselves with the bases loaded and none away. Brian Madely was at third, Ed Kay was on second and Bob Howard decorated the first sack. A base on balls to Bob Smith scored Madely before Barrows went to work and got themselves out of the jam. Barrows grabbed the lead again in the bottom half, as with two gone, Ball hit into a fielder's choice and reached first and advanced as Bob Viverette singled. Ball then scored, as Grant Rose blasted a ball over Joe's Hurler Wayne Kirchen who, in an attempt to grab it, deflected it into the green. Again Joe's came back in the next inning to tie up the proceedings. Howard drove a shot towards the fence in right, however, a diving stop by Viverette, on second, held him to first base. Smith followed with his second walk of the game and then Clyde Dimmell socked a double which scored Howard.

Ball crossed the plate in the bottom of the fourth with the winner as he singled and was sacrificed to second by Viverette and to third by Rose. Dave Roberts' double brought Ball home. Billy Hamilton was on the rubber for Barrows.
