DIRECTORY OF RELIGIOUS SERVICES FOR THE WEEK

CRAFT FESTIVAL The Craft Festival at Gibson House Museum, 5172 Yonge Street behind Willowdale Post Office, will include demonstrations of china painting, spinning and dyeing, crewel work and embroidery, chair caning and rushing, doll making and many other pioneer arts. There will also be apple butter making, taffy pulling, blacksmithing, Highland and Scottish dancing, 19th Century folk music, corn-on-the-cob, ice cold cider. The festival takes place Sunday from 1 to 5 pm, and admission to the pre-Confederation house and galleries is 50c for adults, 25c for children. Refreshments extra.

MARKHAM HERITAGE FESTIVAL

The Markham Museum Grounds, one and one-half miles north of Highway 7 on Highway 48, will be humming from 11 am to 4 pm Saturday with the Markham Heritage Festival sponsored by the Markham Historical Society. There will be a steam engine and old time printing press in operation, sale of pioneer crafts, food sale, demonstration of old time crafts such as whitling, weaving, spinning, quilting, tatting. There will also be an old time blacksmith's forge in operation, corn on the cob for sale, old time fiddler exhibition, music by the Markham High School Band and draw for valuable prizes. Admission free and refreshments available. Parking at the grounds.

COUNTRY AND WESTERN SHOW Oak Ridges and District Minor Hockey Association is sponsoring a Country and Western Show at Bond Lake Arena Saturday. The bar opens at 7 pm and there will be dancing from 8 pm to 1 am. Appearing will be star Singer Honey West; E. M. Capitol Records Artist Lloyd Mackey and the Northern Winds, recording artist for Boot Records of Nashville, Tennessee, as well as a variety of local talent. Master of ceremonies will be Bob McAdorey of CFGM. Door prizes and dance prizes. Admission at $10 per couple restricted to persons 18 and over. Tickets available from Shirley Smith, 773-5754, or at Toby's Restaurant and Tavern in Bradford.

FALL FESTIVAL AT SENECA More than 80 artists and craftsmen will dispay their works Sunday from 10 am to 6 pm at Seneca College's King Campus, two miles north of King Sideroad on Dufferin Street. There will be a sale of arts and crafts as well as antiques, also free guided tours of Seneca's visual arts centre and of Eaton Hall, studio demonstrations, lunches and hayrides on the 696-acre estate. Admission is $1 for adults, 25c for students, no charge for children with parents. Free parking. For information call 884-9901.

FLOOD VICTIMS' BENEFIT Friends and sympathizers are sponsoring a dance Friday in St. John's Parish Centre, Newmarket, to raise funds for two local families who suffered serious losses by flooding as a result of the "big rain" last month. A flood fund has been set up at the Toronto-Dominion Bank on Main Street, Newmarket, to receive contributions. Dance organizer is Mrs. Mary Bergin, 895-5527. Other numbers to call for tickets are 895-7387 and 895-6904. MILLIONAIRES' NIGHT

The Rotary Club of Aurora is sponsoring a Millionaires' Night at Aurora Community Centre Friday with bingo from 4 pm to 10 pm, casino from 6 to 11 pm and dancing from 3:30 pm to 1 am. Funny money purchased or won is redeemable for merchandise or valid for auction at 11 pm. Admission is $10 per couple.

LEARNING TO LIVE WITH KIDS North York Library and Family Services are co-sponsoring an informal discussion group, "Learning To Live With Kids" in Fairview Library, 5 Fairview Mall Drive, Willowdale. The program begins at 7:30 pm Monday and continues weekly for seven weeks. It is based on applying new approaches to raising children and there is no charge for the course.

were: June (Mrs C.) Atkin- and lay.

OSHAWA AUTOFEST '74

An Autorama Saturday and Sunday will kick off the week-long Autofest at Oshawa Civic Auditorium, Highway 2 and Thornton Road. Gates open each day at 1 pm and close at 10 pm. The program includes a fashion show, model car contest, Can-Am midget race and safety clinic. Three racing cars which are tops in their respective forms of motorsport will be among the more than 40 vehicles being shown at this year's Autorama. Advance tickets are $2. Charge for tickets purchased at the gate is $2.50.

OPEN FORUM FOR WOMEN

Questions regarding law, finance, second careers, health, etc., will be brought up and discussed before a panel in the Open Forum For Women on September 18 in Willowdale Library, 5126 Yonge Street, south of Finch Avenue. Sponsored by the North York Library and North York YMCA the program will begin at 8 pm. Admission free. For more information call the Y at 225-7773.

FALL FASHION SHOW

York Central Hospital Auxiliary is having its first fall fashion show September 18, 19 and 20 at Hillcrest Mall. The show is also the first for the, Mall at Yonge Street and Carrville Road, Richmond Hill. Drawing on the 40 fashion merchants of Hillcrest and the knowledge and flair of the Mall's fashion coordinator it is sure to be an outstanding show. There will be two shows daily, at 2 pm and 7:30 pm. Tickets $1 from any auxiliary member. For further information call Lou Pamenter, 889-6095.

THORNHILL THEATRE GROUP

With summer over and long autumn and winter evenings ahead, people are casting about for interesting ways of spending their leisure hours. Thornhill Theatre Group is offering opportunities on stage and behind the scenes for persons interested in amateur theatricals. Their offering this season will be "Peel Me A Lotus" by Byron Wade, directed by John Herbert, author of "Fortune and Men's Eyes". There will be a "make-up workshop" at the Heintzman House, Baythorn and Royal Orchard Road at 8 pm tomorrow (Thursday), and all interested persons are invited. On October 19 there will be closed auditions for principal parts in the play at Thornlea Secondary School, Bayview Avenue south of Highway 7, and on October 3 there will be auditions for other roles. Auditions are open to members only and the fee for membership is $18. For further information call Robb Imeson, 884-2677 evenings.

MANAGERIE THEATRE The Canadian Premiere of Edward Albee's latest play, "all over" is being presented at the Central Library Theatre, St. George Street just north of College Street, from September 10 to 28, featuring promising Canadian players. For tickets, $3.50 for adults, $2.50 for students, call 489-1314. Director is Graham Harley.

Non-profit organizations planning programs of interest to readers in Southern York Region are invited to contact Social Editor Margaret Lade at "The Liberal", 10101 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, or 881-3401. Deadline for items for this column is noon on Monday.
