Women who like to sew but are not happy with the finished product, or those who have identified certain problem areas in their sewing will want to consider "Decisions in Dressmaking", starting September 26, 7:30 to 9:30 pm.

Emphasis will be placed on thinking before doing, considering the alternatives, and assessing the results. This 12 week program will help persons who have basic sewing skills to create finished products of which they can be proud. In addition to the skills of the instructor, specialists will be brought in to assist with particular problem areas.

This 20-hour course costs $25. Register by phoning 884-9901.

Car Wash
Students at King City Secondary School are holding a car wash Saturday from 8 am until 4 pm. For the small sum of 99 cents, your car will be washed and polished, inside and out.

Lloydtown Rebellion Day
The second annual Lloydtown Rebellion Day festivities are being planned by King Township Historical Society and the date is September 28.

The setting will be the hamlet of Lloydtown, situated just west of Schomberg, off Highway 27 and the activities will continue from 11 am until 6 pm.

There will be an authentic old time auction sale of antiques and things, a flea market, contests of log-sawing, nail-driving, horseshoe pitching, and many other feats of skill and daring.

There will also be quilting, weaving, wood-carving, and pioneer cooking demonstrations. Antique cars and carriages and steam engines will be on display.

A special kiddies' playground area has been set aside, capably supervised, with pony rides, organized games, and prizes. Truly a family affair!

The celebration is planned to commemorate the fact that Lloydtown was a recruiting centre for the 1837 Rebellion against the "Family Compact" in Upper Canada. The rebellion led to the Durham Report and the beginning of responsible government in Canada.

"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent for King City is Donna Matthews, 832-1579; and for Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox please call Janet Russell at 773-4105.

The tiny hamlet was founded by Jesse Lloyd, a Quaker immigrant from Pennsylvania in the mid 1820's when he and Samuel Lount and Peter Mathews led their rebel-troops on Toronto. They were very wealthy men and had much to lose, and lose they did. Mathews and Lount were captured and hung in Toronto back to back. Jesse Lloyd escaped to the United States where he died a broken man.

Admission or head tax is $1, children under 12, free. For additional information call Bill Poulis at 727-6322.

Tenders are due September 25 at 3 pm, for an addition to the Town of Aurora Library on Victoria Street. The new wing will provide 12,000 square feet of floor space in its two storey structure. Architect is Denis Bowman of King Summit Estates, King City.

The King Township Recreational Committee has produced a very handy booklet listing recreational activities, organizations, and facilities available to the community and everyone should receive a copy by way of our postal service. An addendum sheet listing displays and activities at the libraries includes a Creative Drama Group. This planned program has had to be postponed.

Residents of the area will be given an opportunity to see the new Langstaff Wing of York Central Hospital October 3, following opening ceremonies for the facility. The hospital will be opened by Lieutenant-Governor Pauline McGibbon, who will cut a symbolic ribbon with the same shears used to open the original hospital in November, 1963.

Public tours of the hospital will follow from 2 to 4 pm, and 6:30 to 8:30 pm, with refreshments at the end of each tour.

The wing is named after the Langstaff family, which produced six doctors who have cared for the people in the area for more than 100 years. It brings the total capacity of the hospital to 404 beds.

York Region Humane Society holds its annual Tag Day September 28, and volunteer taggers will be busy throughout the region (except in Richmond Hill) encouraging you to support

"those who cannot speak for themselves".

Today is the third birthday of Nicholas Dudley, son of Walt and Irmegard Duley of Dew Street.

September 30 is the 35th wedding anniversary of George and Helen Waterson. They celebrated with a trip out west earlier this year. Congratulations!

Taxes, more than anything else, keep consumers from ever getting their money's worth.

Our dog Toby and myself are attending weekly classes in dog obedience at the York Region! Dog Club held in Vander! Hall. With two St. Bernards, two standard poodles, a Doberman, a Bouvier, a Lab and other assorted pedigrees in the class, it is needless to say an interesting experience.

York's election costs for Candark - Simcoe riding were disclosed recently. It was Progressive Conservative Sinclair Stevens $33,152 to be re-elected in the July 8 federal election. His campaign expenses were $5,600 less in 1974 than in 1972 when he defeated Liberal John Roberts. Liberal Mike Willinsky, who ran second in the last election, spent $19,235 in the campaign. NDP candidate Wally Gustar raised $3,675 for his campaign, but spent only $3,109.

Horses
During his travels back and forth to Sudbury, Norm brought home a copy of the Parry Sound newspaper "The Georgian Bay Beacon". The Rothman's Northern Ontario Grand Prix was held in Parry Sound Labor Day and apparently was a tremendous success judging by the coverage and beautiful pictures. It was attended by talented equestrians from all over Ontario including Jimmy Elder of Elderberry Farm, Aurora.

He won third place in the Parry Sound Sweepstakes on Bobbi McGee, and seventh place riding Silver Dollar. Evie Kinzler of Oak Ridges placed sixth riding For Sure in this class.

Mr. Elder took first and second place in the Rothman's Northern Ontario Grand Prix riding Silver Dollar for first and Damji for second place. He also placed fourth in this class riding Amahi and 8th riding Touch of Class.

In the class for junior jumpers Steve Pierce of Saracola Farms, Newmarket, placed second riding Saracola. Jeff Begg of Jokers Hill Stables, placed third riding Fancy Rio; Steve Weisz of King placed fifth riding Brennan; and Morgan Carpenter of Kingridge Farm, Kettleby placed 7th, riding Artful Dodger.

Parry Sound hopes to make this an annual event. Everyone gave a lot of credit to Jim Elder who had brought eight horses with him.

Last week I reported on a "front yard" carnival to raise funds for the fight against muscular dystrophy. Hot on the heels of that report comes another, this time from the other side of town.

Organized by Lisa Mencil, aged 12, and Cathy Chapman, 11, this carnival held August 28 at Lisa's home on Toscanini Road collected a grand total of $102. Wow! Very well done girls.

Approximately 100 people attended and took part in games and swimming contests, had fun on the trampoline, bid at the auction and hunted for treasures at the bargain stall.

Lisa and Cathy wish to thank their brothers, Jeff and John, Deanna Batch and Anne Cole for their great help. Also many thanks to those who donated prizes: Doane Hall Pharmacy, Mr. Davies (Stedman's), Bond Lake Arena, Gallacher's Supermarket.

Lisa and Cathy are looking forward to holding a bigger and better carnival next year.

King Council Briefs

King Township Council considered the following items at its regular council meeting Monday night:

Authorized purchase of shrubs and trees from King Nursery and Garden Centre in an amount not exceeding $450 to be used for landscaping its Administration Building. Council's urban works department will do the planting.

Approved a resolution to accept the quotation of T. H. Oliver Limited for the servicing of the municipal offices air conditioners for a total estimated cost for this year of $850. The proposal provides for the inspection, lubrication, cleaning and installation of replacement filters for the 12 window units and the roof unit for the council chambers at an annual cost of $187. The proposal also requires the installation of 12 metal frames for the filters

A committee-of-council has suggested two other alternative sites for a proposed new post office building on the south side of the King Road in Nobleton. The other sites would be closer to the centre of Nobleton.

An official from Public Works Canada and its architect have agreed to investigate the sites.

Council has approved the low tender by Court Contractors of $38,400 for construction of three tennis courts at King City, Nobleton and Schomberg park areas.
