Bill Leslie and a group of boys from Fernie House provided entertainment for a group of members of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Wednesday evening of last week. The audience was impressed with the evident joy of the young lads in making music with mouth organs, guitar, trap drums, maracas. They were accompanied by staff members at the piano and with guitar and mouth organ.

The evening was hosted by the Mary and Martha Guild and began with a pot luck supper to which husbands were also invited.

At a meeting of Richmond Hill-Thornhill Family Services board of directors September 19, Chairman John Stevenson reported on many meetings regarding the financial situation which had taken place during July and August. No summer courses were held due to staff changes.

On Thursday, September 12, Mr. and Mrs. Eric George held a wine and cheese party at their home on North Taylor Mills Drive to formally launch Mr. George's campaign for regional councillor for Richmond Hill in the December municipal elections.

There were 16 friends and neighbors present to sample Canadian and imported wines and cheeses during the evening.

Although there was a decided nip in the air, St. John's Baptist had a good Saturday afternoon "Round-up" on September 14 on the church lot. There were pony rides for the children, games and volleyball, topped off by a barbecue, presided over by Chief Cook Ron Winnacot, around a cheery bonfire.

The "Round-up" was to introduce the fall program of the church, featuring a Sunday 10:30 am unified service, with folk of all ages meeting for an hour's worship (though there is baby care separately), then the smaller children leave the sanctuary before the sermon.

At 11:30 the younger folk move into groups and classes and the adults, with sustaining cups of coffee, divide into two groups for half-hour discovery sessions — of the Bible and of current topics.

John Lewis, teacher of history and English at Bayview Secondary School, and George Laundry of Northview Heights Secondary School in Willowdale, have been appointed area representatives for Ship's School of Canada, Inc.

Ship's School is the oldest student travel organization in Canada and has arranged overseas tours for tens of thousands of Ontario students since its inception.

Mr. Lewis and Mr. Laundry, along with 25 other area representatives, will act as liaison between Ship's School and education officials in their area, assisting teachers in setting up tours for their students. These will include trips to Europe, Africa, Hawaii, South America, the Bahamas, Mexico and the South Pacific during the coming Christmas, March and summer breaks.

Richmond Hill-Thornhill Family Services' Volunteers held their bi-monthly meeting September 17 in the board room, 10225A Yonge Street.

The 13 members present were welcomed by Chairman Jane Seringer who described the busy fall schedule, adding that more volunteers are needed.

Office-Co-ordinator Cheri McQuire outlined the new structure soon to come into effect in the office. Due to the increased work load, more volunteers are needed on both day and evening shifts. An orientation meeting for office assistants will be held on October 8 at 1:30 pm.

The fund raising event of the year will be a spring fashion show. Members of the show committee are Edna Beacock, Phyllis Andrews, Elizabeth Hamilton and Dorothy Price.

A Christmas meeting of volunteers will be held November 19 at the home of Mrs. Hazel Brown, 171 Centre Street West.

Baptised in Richmond Hill Presbyterian on Sunday was Rebecca Lynne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cowan.

Two events of special interest to local Anglicans are scheduled for Sunday. At 4 pm there will be a Service of Witness at Varsity Arena when one of the church's most distinguished young leaders, Rev. Michael Marshall, vicar at All Saints, Margaret Street, London, will be the speaker.

Later in the day, at 7 pm, Don Downer, former parish intern at St. Mary's Anglican, will be ordained to the priesthood at St. Jude's in Oakville.

Old and new residents of the Hill are interested in what is going on in the community — service clubs, church groups, social happenings. Keep them informed through "It's Happening in The Hill".

Personal and neighborhood news, vacation trips, out-of-town guests, academic achievements, are also of interest to our readers. Keep your friends informed through this free service.

Items for inclusion in the current issue of "The Liberal" should reach Social Editor Margaret Lade, 10101 Yonge Street, Box 390 Richmond Hill, by 10 am on MONDAY.

Robbie, Eileen and Linda Robbins were in town Wednesday of last week for a brief visit. They report they are always happy to welcome Richmond Hillites at Pine Valley, their cottage and restaurant property in South Muskoka on the Kahshe River, 16 miles north of Orillia Highway 11. As an enticement to drop in, Robbie reports his coffee (and its good!) is still only 10¢ a cup. Former Richmond Hill Police Chief Robbins is thoroughly enjoying his new life in the north.

STOUFFVILLE: The town's new coat-of-arms will be incorporated into the design of a stained-glass window which has been commissioned for the town offices in civic square. The window will be installed in the main upper-office and will cost $925.

STOUFFVILLE: The mound of garbage at the York Sanitation dump on Highway 48 grows higher and higher. Concerned citizens are planning a mass meeting to force Environment Minister Bill Newman to close the dump.

Insects Were Topic Of Guest Speaker At Flower Show

Insects, good, bad and indifferent, were the topic of an illustrated talk by Neil Densen at the fall flower show of Richmond Hill Horticultural Society on September 10.

It was a very successful show with about 100 members and friends present and 217 entries. Judges were Mrs. Doris Spafford and Mrs. Doris Benson, both of Thornhill, who made many complimentary remarks about the specimens and displays.

SHOW WINNERS
Winners were: specimens Otto Conner 44 points, Jack Manning 40 points and William Risebrough 37 points; arrangements Mrs. George Barker both with 10 points; vegetables Art Stong 29 points and Otto Connor 24 points.

In the court of honor were William Risebrough, specimens; Mrs. Marg Runney, arrangements; Mrs. Ev Boyd, vegetables.

TALK AND PICTURES
Mr. Densen of the Toronto-Lakeshore Society, an avid camper and photographer, fascinated his audience with his talk about and pictures of his hobby, "all kinds of insects".

On slides an ant was magnified to look like a dinosaur, a spider web would show drops of dew, rain caught in the silk. He gave vivid descriptions of each insect and its function — destructive or helpful to plant life.

The meeting closed with the usual door prizes, and refreshments served by Mrs. Vivian Hart and her committee.

Volunteers Needed For English Course

Fall Fashions In The Garden

"Autumn Reflections" was the theme of a showing of fall fashions sponsored by the West District Association for Guides and Brownies. Latest styles from Warwick House, Leventdale Road, Richmond Hill, were modelled by members of the association in the attractive grounds at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Douglas-Crampton, Elgin Mills Road West, on the afternoon of September 11.

It was a successful show and a very enjoyable afternoon for guests seated at tables on the lawn as models paraded around the pool. Commentator Rick Butt of Warwick House was introduced by the association Chairman Ruth Coxford. Mr. Butt is pictured above with Model Joan Flett who is wearing a washable ultra-suede skirt with matching cardigan and German blouse. Proceeds will help finance the work of Guide Companies and Brownie Packs in the district as they start their new fall programs.
