Sponsored by Newmarket Recreation Department, the fifth annual Algonkian Festival will be in full swing at the fairgrounds park on Saturday from 10 am to 9 pm. The theme will be community participation with many organizations sponsoring booths, activities and exhibits. Events will include a free corn roast, band concerts, games and a children's midway.

LLOYDTOWN REBELLION DAY

King Township Historical Society is presenting its second annual Lloydtown Rebellion Day Saturday in the hamlet of Lloydtown, just west of Schomberg. There will be booths, games, draw prizes, and the Queen's York Rangers will be on hand in their costumes from the era of 1837 when Jesse Lloyd, the community's founder, led troops to join William Lyon Mackenzie in the rebellion against the rule of the Family Compact in Upper Canada. Festivities will continue from 11 am until evening. Adults $1 for the day, children free.

INTERNATIONAL PLOWING MATCH

The largest outdoor display of farm machinery, parades of farm exhibitors, a 100-acre tented city, and of course the competitions themselves will combine to make this year's International Plowing Match one of the most fascinating events of the fall season. The first sod was turned by Agriculture and Food Minister William Stewart on September 11 and the match continues from September 24 to 28 on the farm of Craig Reid, Georgetown north on Trafalgar Road at the Highway 401 interchange.

PICTURESQUE AUTUMN RAIL TOUR The Upper Canada Railway Society is sponsoring a 250-mile round trip diesel rail excursion to Haliburton on Saturday. The "Haliburton Highlander" will leave Toronto Union Station at 8 am, travel through Stouffville, Uxbridge, Lindsay, Fenelon Falls, Burnt River, Kinmount and Gelert to Haliburton. It will return at 5:30 pm arriving at Union Station at 11 pm. Fares are $13.95 for adults, $7.75 for children five to 12 and $2.25 for infants. There is a 50¢ surcharge for tickets purchased the day of the trip.

MINOR BALL DANCE The Richmond Hill Minor Ball Dance at the Lions Hall, Centre Street East, Saturday, will be a gala affair. There will be door prizes, draws, spot dances, raffles between 8 pm and 2 am, buffet available and refreshments served. Tickets are $2.50 from Mrs. Lynda Price, 884-9872 or at the door.

HEIDELBERGFEST The women's committee of the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir is sponsoring a "Heidelbergfest Friday at St. Lawrence Market, Front and Jarvis Street, from 8 pm to 12:30 am with fun, food and Bavarian beer garden. Beer and wine are available. Admittance is $3 per person at the door.

MUSSELMAN'S LAKE FAIR Meet your friends at the fair at Cedar Beach Park Saturday, 12 noon to dusk quilts, arts, crafts, pottery, antiques, home baking, exhibits and demonstrations. Entertainment and fun for the whole family. The bargain emporium offers items for early

MONTESSORI FALL FAIR The Toronto Montessori School is having its annual fall fair from 11 am to 3 pm Saturday on the school's grounds at 8569 Bayview Avenue in Thornhill, just north of Highway 7. Planned primarily for children, it will feature pony rides, games, prizes and western-style food geared to the 12 and under set, plus more than 2,000 prizes. Accompanying adults will be interested in the white elephant sale and home baked goods. Admission free.

SHERRY, FUN AND FASHIONS The CWL of Blessed Trinity Roman Catholic Church, 3320 Bayview Avenue south of Steeles Avenue is having a sherry party Tuesday from 8 to 11 pm with fashion show of both men's and women's clothing, minimystery auction, door prizes and refreshments. Admission is $2 per person. There will also be tickets available at $1 for a draw for a one-week vacation for two to Disney World in Florida. The draw will be made at the party. For tickets for the evening or the draw or both call 221-3391. All proceeds will go to Participation House, Markham, a residence for severely handicapped young adults. * * * * *

TOUR OF MENNONITE COUNTRY The ladies of Gormley Women's Insti-Mennonite Country October 3. This includes a beef dinner in the Mennonite church and a guided tour, leaving Gormley Post Office at 8 am. For further information contact Mrs. Russell Ellas at 888-1762 or Mrs. N. Brown at

888-1764. JOKERS HILL HORSE TRIALS

Special guests at the Jokers Hill Horse Trials Friday, Saturday and Sunday, will include Captain Mark Phillips, husband of Princess Anne. Lieutenant Governor Pauline McGibbon and Premier William Davis will also be there. One hundred entries will compete in the event of dressage, endurance and stadium jumping. Trials will include the North American Junior Team Championship. The show is open to the public. Jokers Hill is in King Township, Concession 3, three miles north of King Sideroad.

ALL ABOUT TREES A two-hour forestry tour is scheduled for Boyd Conservation Area, just north of Woodbeginning on Islington Avenue, on Saturday beginning at 10 am. The theme is "All About Trees". Led by Professor K. A. Armson of the faculty of forestry, University of Toronto, participants will see and learn about the various species of trees found in this part of Ontario. The tour starts at the nature trail parking lot, and walkers should wear walking shoes and clothes suitable for the time of year. For further information call the conservation authority at 630-9780.

Non-profit organizations planning programs of interest to readers in Southern York Region are invited to contact Social Editor Margaret Lade at "The Liberal", 10101 Yonge Street, Pichmond Hill, or 881-3401. Deadline for items for this column is noon on Monday.
