R.N.'s and R.N.A.'s Nurses Who Want To Nurse

At York Central you can join an active interested group of nurses who want the chance to nurse in its broadest sense.

Our fully accredited hospital is young and already expanding from 126 beds to over 400.

Nursing is a profession we respect and we were the first to plan and develop a unique nursing audit system.

There are opportunities for gaining wide experience, for getting to know patients as well as staff.

York Central Hospital is situated in Richmond Hill, just 5 miles north of all the cultural and entertainment facilities of Metro Toronto.

For winter, summer or weekend holidays, the pleasures of rural Ontario are easily accessible to the north.

If you are really interested in nursing, you are needed and will be made welcome.

Residence accommodation is available.
