Neighborhood Notes

The new wing at York Central Hospital will be open for business next month, and introductory tours have been conducted for the past two or three weeks. On September 23 and the previous week Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. Harold Ashley and Mrs. Russell Boyington, members of Buttonville Branch YCHA, served tea to guests, and they will also assist at the opening October 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pralet, formerly of Don Mills Road and presently living at Locust Hill, have purchased a new home in Markham and expect to move shortly. The Pralats' acreage on the Markham-Pickering Townline has been expropriated for the International Airport.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gough have had guests from England for the past three weeks. Ten years ago Mrs. Gough went to Markham to attend her niece's wedding and this year the young couple made their first visit to Canada to celebrate their 10th anniversary. The Goughs have been showing them points of interest — Niagara Falls, Algonquin Park, Toronto, etc.

50th Anniversary
When Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller, RR 2, Gormley, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay of Markham, September 22, all members of the original wedding party were present, and more than 250 guests attended. The bride of 50 years ago was Olive Tibbles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tibbles of Toronto, and the groom's parents were Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of Scarborough. Mr. Miller's heritage dates back to the first Scarborough settlers, David and Mary Thomson.

The Millers were married at Scarborough Junction Methodist Church September 24, 1924, with the late Rev. J. J. Humphrey officiating, and members of the wedding party were Nell Miller (Tibbles), Mr. Miller's sister now married to Mrs. Miller's brother Leslie; Les Tibbles, best man; flower girls Rosaleen Tibbles (Waterston), sister of the bride, and Verna Tibbles (Vowles) a niece; Mrs. Vera Everest Leayrod, organist; and Mrs. Ruby Walton Cook decorated the church for the occasion, with Mrs. Mary Graves (a well known Women's Institute worker) now deceased.

The Millers have two sons and two daughters all of whom were present. Jim operates the family farm business and lives with his wife Rosemary and their children in Markham; Velma is Mrs. Donald Otis of Pueblo, Colorado; Rena, Mrs. Paul Mingay of Markham, was Sunday's hostess, and Robert, of Ballantrae, has an engineering firm in Scarborough. There are 18 grandchildren, all present.

Tea assistants at the golden wedding celebration were Mrs. Joe Symons of Uxbridge, Mrs. John Miller of Stouffville, Mrs. Margaret Miller and Mrs. Madge Tibbles of Scarborough, Mrs. Eva Brodie of Markham, and three granddaughters Mary-Rose Miller, Martha Mingay and Rebecca Otis.

Members of the Brown's Corners United Church UCW, where the Millers attend, provided refreshments, under the leadership of Mrs. Milton Sherman, Miss Adele Carruthers arranged floral arrangements, and orchid corsages for the assistants, and Miss Edna Whitehouse and Mrs. Fred Leaf greeted guests.

Afterward, there was a buffet supper for 50 members of the immediate family and close friends.

The Millers have lived for the past 25 years at their present home on Concession 3, Richmond Hill (formerly Markham). Before coming here they farmed for 13 years north of Unionville and at Scarborough. Mrs. Miller is active in Brown's Corners UCW and choir, York Central Hospital Auxiliary, Buttonville Branch, and at Union Villa.

Among the guests at the golden wedding celebrations were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leek and Mr. and Mrs. Cummer Lee and Gordon.

Nursery School

A mothers' co-op nursery school has started for the Richvale Baif area with classes three days a week in one of the local schools. A very interesting program has been planned for the children and there will be regular outings for them as well. There are still vacancies for both morning and afternoon periods if you are interested in having your child become part of it. For more information call Peggy Finch at 884-2949.

Church News

The Carrville Road UCW

had the Maple UCW as their guests at a pot luck supper in the church last week. The guest speaker was Mrs. Reesor from the Mennonite Central Council. She showed slides and told about the people they help in some of the depressed areas of the world. Some time ago they started a self help program for these people. This involves bringing their handwork here to be sold. Mrs. Reesor brought a beautiful array of wood carvings, embroidery, bead work and things made from straw. She also had two-way dolls and moccasins and all sorts of things from many different places. The ladies enjoyed a pleasant hour of browsing and shopping.

New Arrival
The new babies on our street have all been boys since we moved here and last week we had another. Dennis and Nicole Howes were proud to announce the birth of their first child, Kevin James, Monday morning.

Mrs. Beulah Jones enjoyed several days at Brooklin with her friend, Mrs. Maude DeHart, just recently released from hospital.

The Pioneer Festival on Saturday at Pioneer Village was very successful. Gormley ladies worked in the coffee booth. Local Auctioneer Alvin Farmer did the honors of the auction sale which netted a great deal for the needy in Bangladesh.

Mrs. Doug Henry of Toronto spent the weekend with Miss Genevieve Bruce.

Sympathy is expressed to Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Boettger in the passing of her mother, Mrs. George Lehman of Toronto. The funeral was on Friday from the Griffin-Mack Funeral Home on Danforth Avenue with interment in Dickson Hill cemetery.

The good wishes of the community follow Mrs. Clarence Bass as she moved this week from the Doner house west of the post office to an apartment in Stouffville. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tomlinson and four children, recently from England, who moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Bass October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mackey have recently returned from an enjoyable holiday in Western Canada.

Mr. Bill Baker and his fiancée Miss Darlene Hoskin were guests of honor at a miscellaneous shower Thursday night in the Fellowship Hall of the Missionary Church.

Mrs. Gladys Fraser of London and Mr. Allan Fraser of Toronto spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haxton and boys.

Church News

Misses Blanch, Freda and Ruth Henderson were pleasantly surprised recently when the congregation of the Oak Ridges Brethren In Christ Church presented them with a beautiful 400-day clock, in recognition of their devoted years of service in the Sunday school work of their church.

The Gideons were in charge of the Sunday night service at Heise Hill Church and Mr. Murray Bennett was the guest speaker.

More than 20 young people from the Missionary Church attended the ball tournament and youth rally at Kitchener Saturday. Gormley's junior team placed second in baseball and the senior team placed third. All report a very excellent day.
