

Markham Mayor Anthony Roman rides in the annual Thornhill Softball League parade with League President Bob Adams (right), driven by Umpire John Donaldson.

Marshal for the big 7th annual Thornhill softball parade was Stan Daurio. The hundreds of players on the marching teams, musicians, officials and vehicles stretched down Baythorn Drive and along Royal Orchard Boulevard as it travelled from Baythorn to Royal Orchard Public School.

Markham Parks and Recreation Director Dan Costea tries out the job of catcher as York Regional and Markham Councillor Robert Adams of Ida Street, Thornhill takes a practice swing before the big grudge match between the league executive and town council.

Business was brisk at the hot dog stand as two thousand of the insiders stuffers were prepared by lady volunteers ready for the arrival of the softball celebrations at Royal Orchard Public School.

The big Thornhill softball parade swings around a corner led by the Glenmore Pipe Band with the 7th Thornhill Cub color party following.

7th Annual Thornhill Softball League Presentation Day And Parade

Ward 5 Councillor Mrs. Alma Walker of 25 Princess Street, Old Markham, was out to umpire as the town council played against the softball league executive.

The catcher is League President Bob Adams as Mayor Roman bats for the town council team and coach Big Joe Greenfield, league vice-president, approaches the umpire for a ruling.

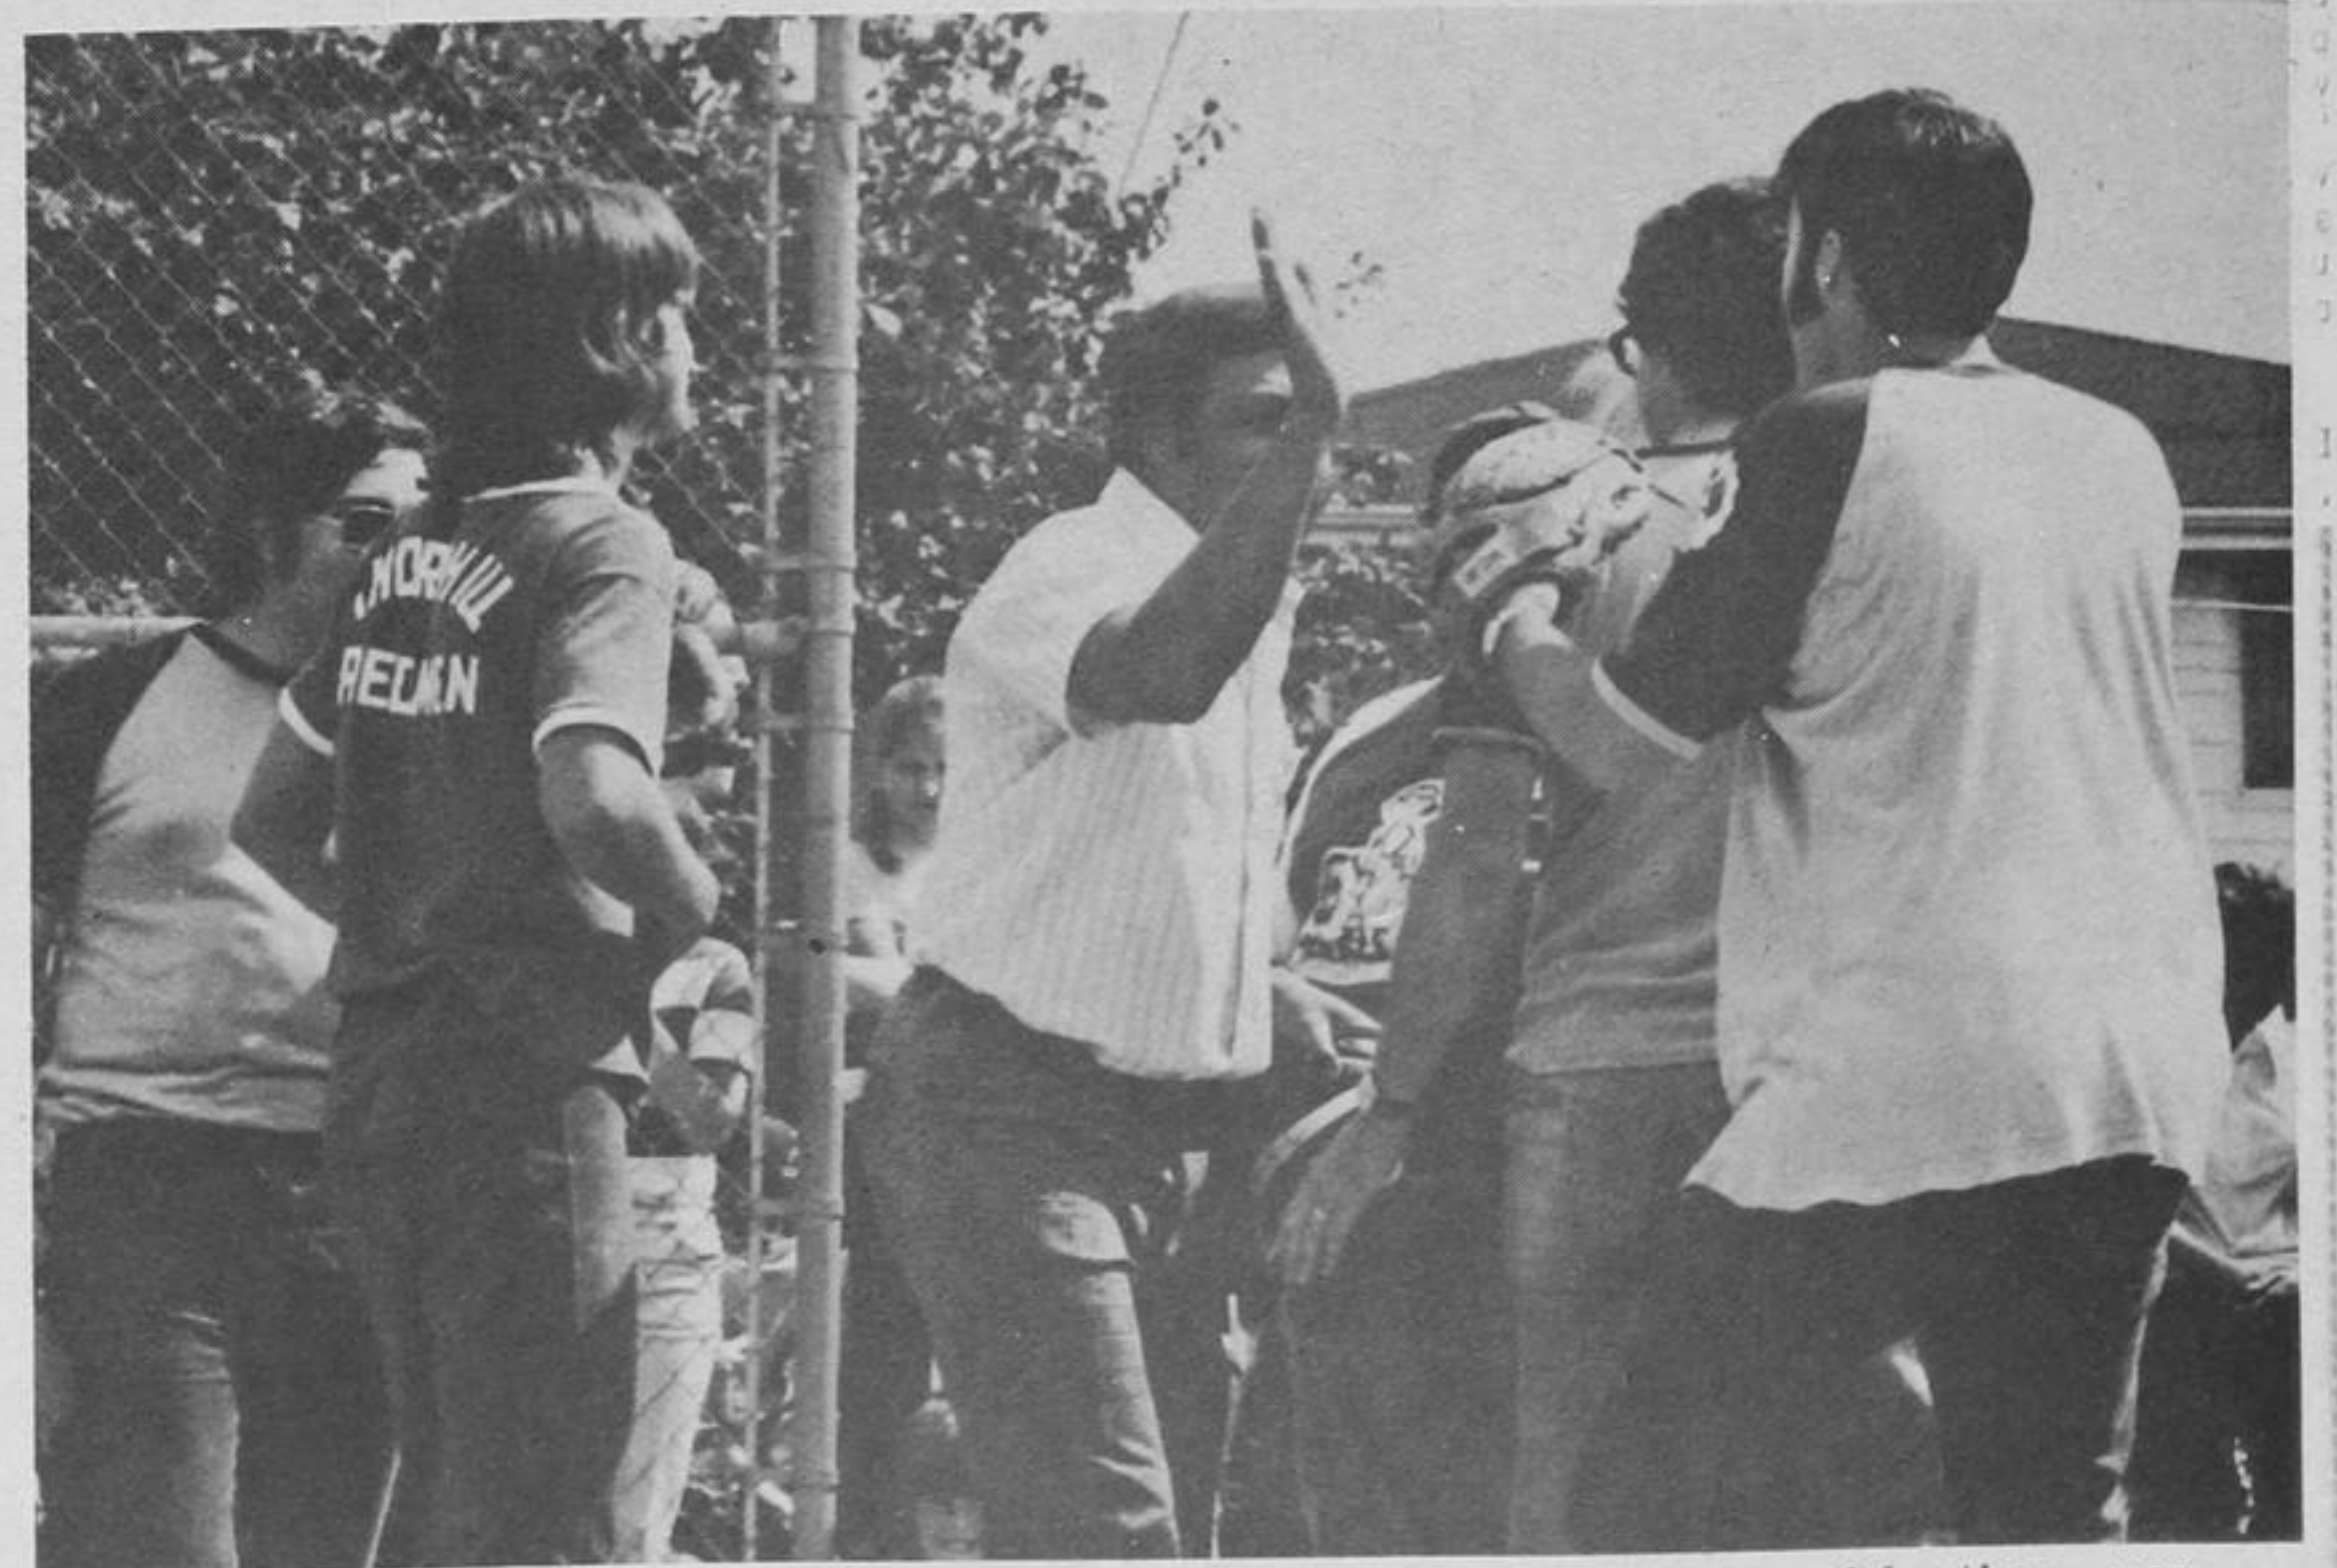

Photo
Story
By Dave
Barbour

Another special game of the 7th Annual Thornhill Softball League celebrations was the one played by the umpires against the juvenile Redmen. Here umpire Steve Kavanaugh and the Redmen's batter watch at left as game umpire Ivor Harriott holds up his hand to keep back angry player-umpire Dave Eaton who is showing an umpire can really do a job of arguing with the "ump". He's restrained by fellow player-umpire John Donaldson.