 The Matthews family (all six of us) spent a very enjoyable Thanksgiving weekend visiting friends Roma and Rose Lavictoire in Arnprior.

The Lavictore's have four sons. Arnprior is a pretty town with many large trees and big old houses, and situated where the Ottawa and Madawaska Rivers meet, north of Ottawa City. It was nice to visit old friends and find them unchanged.
 The Meals on Wheels organization holds a dance Saturday at Musselman's Lake.

All Saint's Parish Dinner is Friday evening. Friday a black cloud seemed to be hanging over my head. The day got off to a bad start when the school bus sailed by when my children were halfway down the lane. I just finished loading the car with garbage to transport to the end of the lane, and rummage for All Saint's Rummage Sale. I drove off and then realized I had a lovely flat tire. Undaunted I phoned Sandy MacDonald who came and took kids to school and relieved me of my rummage while I contemplated changing the tire myself. I chickened out (I wouldn't want to drive on a wheel on which I had tightened the nuts, even if I got that far) and telephoned my friendly local service station who came and put my spare tire (a snow tire, of course) on the car. All day I was apprehensive, but nothing more happened until 4:30 when my eldest daughter phoned to say she and some friends had missed the bus and could I pick them up. So off I drove to Langstaff Secondary School to act as chauffeur. I was glad to crawl into bed Friday night.

Monday the University Women's Club meets at Kingcraft House at 8:30 pm, also All Saint's Advisory Board meeting at 8 pm.

With the prospect of colder weather I realized it was time to have anti-freeze checked. Due to the fact my 'rad' boiled over during the summer, naturally I needed a refill. $8 a gallon and I needed two gallons. That sure blew the budget. That poor budget gets bogged a lot these days.
