

Thornhill Senior Citizens elect executive and plan activities

By Margaret Govan
North Thornhill
correspondent

The general meeting of the Thornhill and District Senior Citizens took place October 16 following a brief executive meeting.

The latter was mainly concerned with organization for the Big Euchre on October 22, and the draw which was also scheduled for that day. It was decided that should any of the out-of-town purchasers of Draw Tickets be lucky when the named prizes were drawn, those prizes would be sent to them, that is, unless as in the case of a plant in a hanging basket, it was impractical to forward them. Vouchers would also be forwarded to any lucky persons.

Elect Officers
The general meeting was both nomination and election day. As no other candidate came forward, the re-election for president Joe Wain was again confirmed, as was John Donaldson for vice-president, Harry Mizen for 2nd vice-president, and Social Secretary Mrs. Grace Baker. Miss Audrey Liversedge resigned as secretary and Mrs. Grace Cooper assumed that office. Miss Liversedge was appointed publicity secretary by acclamation.

Matters considered included plans for the Christmas dinner and bus trips. The one to Christie's was cancelled due to renovations in the factory. There will be an excursion to Yardley's Tuesday at 1 p.m. It was suggested a visit to Scarboro community plaza might be included if time permitted. As this will be a TTC bus the only up will be at the Sayvette Plaza.

Tickets are now available for the Ice Capades November 11 from Mrs. Dan Baker 222-3604.

Kitchener trip
The trip to the Kitchener Oktober Fest was much enjoyed. The entertainment was varied and of excellent quality, performers being Senior Citizens. They included a fine choir from Brampton; a Dixie Land Band from Kitchener; a reading, mouth organ and violin solos from Owen Sound; the Dixie Bells from Mississauga; a skit from Toronto; a solo, harmonica and a tap dance from Coldwater; and Indian Club swinging by ladies over 79 from Baden.

Two auditors were elected: Mrs. Matty Wismer and Mrs. Edith Chambers. The financial standing was reported to be satisfactory.

It was decided members must be present at four meetings during the year in order to qualify for inclusion in bus trips, some of which are subsidized by the Club.

New members
Two new members were welcomed: Mrs. Lillian Lawrie and Mrs. Wigglesworth. Delicious refreshments were provided. Mrs. Swenscoe is the latest volunteer for the catering. The club is always on the look out for new members. If you are 60 years old or more you will be most welcome. Apply to Mrs. Baker at 222-3604.

Festive fancies, fashions party at Heintzman House

The Heintzman House Auxiliary is a group of ladies whose aim is to restore and refurbish this 19th Century Thornhill landmark. Towards making some necessary monies for this purpose, they have planned "Festive Fancies and Fashions".

This event is to occur on November 12, 10 am to 10 pm, at the Heintzman House (North Thornhill Community Centre) at Royal Orchard Boulevard and Baythorn Drive. Admission is 50 cents and refreshments will be served.

Included will be the sale of Christmas crafts, a bake sale, toy sale and white elephant sale. There will also be a sale of arts and crafts by approximately 15 local artisans. These items will be: oils and water colors, pastel portraits, pottery, decoupage, dried flowers, candles and stuffed toys.

Special features
There will be two special features offered. First, Mrs. Betty Robinson, a psychic reader, will be available for the entire day to give readings.

Secondly, starting at 8 pm there will be a wine and cheese party with a fur fashion show. This will be co-ordinated and a commentary given by Ken Homeshaw, chairman of the Fashion Technology Division of the George Brown College of Applied Arts and Technology. The fur fashions, courtesy of the Leslie Wise Furs, will be shown at 8 pm and 9 pm.

BRADFORD: Several hundred boxes of eggs and a ton and a half of cheese, valued at more than $5,200, are missing from the Bradford Co-operative Storage Ltd. recently.

BOOK TALK TOWN OF MARKHAM PUBLIC LIBRARIES Suspense story with an almost unbearable climax

THE LITTLE GIRL WHO LIVES DOWN THE LANE — by Laird Koenig. This second novel by the writer who won the Grand Prix du Roman Policier in 1972, is a suspense story which builds up to an almost unbearable climax. The plot concerns an innocent-looking little English girl whose unnatural composure signals to the whole community she is hiding a very odd secret indeed. (Fiction)

THE LAST CAROUSEL — by Nelson Algren. A collection of short stories by a master story teller who is also an acute observer of life's absurdities and tragedies. Ever since Nelson Algren's MAN WITH A GOLDEN ARM was published, he has been recognized as a major modern talent. (Fiction)

THE SAILOR AND THE FOX — by Brian Burland. A magnificent suspense novel which tells the story of a brutal, destructive prize fight between an old sailor and a jaunty young black. As the novel unfolds, it reveals profound and moving truths about the shouting, screaming crowd as well as about the two desperate boxers. The author was educated at the University of Western

Ontario. (Fiction)

ONLY GENTLEMEN CAN PLAY — by Hugh McLeave. When Matt, a thoroughly professional British spy, and Laura, a Russian girl new at treachery but splendidly educable, fall truly in love, they cause all kinds of hell to break loose across the Moscow-London spy scene. (Fiction)

GATHER TOGETHER IN MY NAME — by Maya Angelou. A continuation of the unforgettable personal story which was begun in Maya Angelou's I KNOW WHY THE CAGED BIRD SINGS. In this book the author tells of her anguished experiences as an uneducated young black woman trying to raise her infant son in post-World War II America. (Non-fiction)

BALEFUL BEASTS: GREAT SUPERNATURAL STORIES OF THE ANIMAL KINGDOM — selected by Seon Manley and Gogo Lewis. A group of chilling stories for adults and young adults about ghostly cats, spectral dogs, demonic horses and other supernatural beasts, by such masters of eerie fiction as Conan Doyle, Edith Wharton and Ambrose Bierce. (Fiction)

Lionette Grey Cup party time again

By Margaret Govan
Do you remember the Lionettes' Grey Cup Party last year? It was so much fun. And a complete sell-out!

There is another one in the offing, November 23, 8:30 pm, at the North Thornhill Community Centre, Baythorn Drive and Royal Orchard Boulevard. The proceeds go to our new community centre complex on John and Bayview.

There will be a "Monte Carlo", dancing and a smorgasbord. Tickets are $6 per person, and may be bought from Doreen Parker 889-3459, Sue Rae 889-7839 or Shirley Schaefer 889-3561. Don't leave it till too late and be disappointed!

Need support saving historic Thornhill

If old Thornhill is to be saved, support from the town's newest residents is needed, General Graeme Gibson told a founding meeting of the Society for the Preservation of Historic Thornhill last week.

"If we are going to have some impact or life, we must have the support of a majority of the population," the new group's interim chairman said.

Meeting Wednesday of last week in St. Vladimir's Ukrainian Catholic Church, a 125-year-old building, 30 founding members decided on a concerted membership drive prior to an annual meeting in January.

Membership fee
A membership fee of $5 was agreed to and Bill Trow, 21 Thornbank Avenue, was selected to head a membership committee.

General Gibson said the fee will cover stationery and postage costs. Fund raising drives will be necessary if the group undertakes special projects, such as the restoration or purchase of historic buildings.

Though the proposed widening of Yonge Street and the future of the public library building were cited as general concerns, no projects were decided on at the meeting.

Future meeting
A group, including Philip Whitehead, 15 Colbourne Street, will meet in the next two months to discuss projects.

Terry Goodwin, 122 Thornbridge Drive, is heading a nominations committee to propose names for the 1975 executive.

Markham and Vaughan councils have given their blessing to the society and the constitution drawn up by the interim executive. They first met early in the summer.

Neighborhood notes

The staff and students of the four Thornhill Roman Catholic Separate Schools: St. Anthony's, St. Luke's, St. Michael's and St. Robert's (which are comprised of 1,000 students from kindergarten to grade 8) will be holding an Art Exhibit, Thursday and Friday, of next week from 7:30 pm to 9:30 pm at St. Luke's School, 160 Dudley Avenue, Thornhill.

On display will be examples of the children's art using many and varied media such as flat work, mobile, crafts and three dimensional models.

Members of the Thornhill and surrounding community are invited to attend and view stimulating and creative endeavors of our student population. During November 8 the Art Exhibit will also be open for teachers to bring their classes for viewing.

If there are any further questions pertaining to the Art Exhibit, please contact Don Hathway, Principal of St. Robert's School at 889-4982.

Let me again remind you that they are looking for crossing guards for John and Henderson, and Royal Orchard and Baythorn. The job pays $6 per day. Those interested can phone the Town of Markham at 297-1900.

Coming Events

The Thornhill Theatre of Performing Arts is holding a "Sock Hop" in the Lions Hall, 31 Spruce Avenue Saturday of next week with original music from the 50's. From the very generous donations there will be prizes for lucky ticket-holders, spot dances and best costumes. A penalty of 50 cents is being imposed on anyone admitted in inappropriate dress for this occasion! (Hair styles included?) Girls are to provide a box lunch for two to be raffled off to anyone of the gentlemen present.

Tickets at $2 each may be obtained from Judy Bunker 884-8084 if not at the door. Church news
At Emmanuel Anglican, MacKay Drive, work meetings have started for the ACW Christmas Fair to be held November 23. You may call in at the post office on Westwood and Yonge and see May Laframboise for tickets which are 50 cents each.

A reminder, too, that the next regular meeting will be held in the church at 8 pm Tuesday.

Please save your good used clothing for the rummage sale at St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church at Dunlop and Yonge Saturday. Doors open 10 am to 1 pm. Articles will be accepted in the church hall all day Friday until 8 pm.

Plans are under way for the parish "Novemberfest" to be held November 22. More details later.

A delicious turkey dinner is being prepared tonight (Wednesday) until 8 pm at Carrville United Church on Rutherford Road (extension of Carrville Road) just west of Bathurst. Perhaps it's still not too late to take the family to this homemade feast prepared by the ladies of the UCW.

Senior citizens
The Richvale Lions celebrated their 10th anniversary with the seniors on their sixth by inviting them to a dinner in the Lions hall. This was a very enjoyable occasion for both groups. The next meeting for the seniors will be November 13 at 1:30 pm in the hall at 31 Spruce Avenue. All seniors in the area are welcome.

YWCA
A special meeting for members only is being held November 27 at 8 pm in the "Y" headquarters at 10225 Yonge. You are asked to come and cast your vote regarding the future role of your "Y" in this community. Is it to become a "Family Y", to serve the whole community as previously voted by the board of directors October 10?

The TAB program which was to have taken place in Emmanuel Anglican Church Friday mornings has been cancelled. However, those interested may still join the one meeting Wednesday mornings in the Hillcrest Mall Auditorium.

Nursing home for cats
Recently I received a call, asking the whereabouts of a local lady who had advertised she would take in "sick cats". The inquirer had misplaced her address and phone number, so would this person let me know where she is located in Richvale.

SUTTON — Both East Gwillimbury seats on the York County Board of Education are open this year as Marianne Gillan and Thomas Johnston have announced they will not seek re-election.
