AWARD-WINNING POTTER'S DISPLAYS

Pottery and ceramics by one of Canada's foremost potters, Norine Rive of Willowdale, are on display to the end of November in two North York Libraries during library hours. Some of her award-winning works are in permanent collections of the Canadian Guild of Crafts, the CNE, the collection of Canadian Handicrafts at the Science Centre. Some have been exhibited at the International Exhibition of Ceramic Art in Ostend, Belgium, and the Smithsonian Institute, Washington. She has studied decorating pots at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre and spent five weeks in Hong Kong for further training in brush painting. Selections of her work are on exhibit at Willowdale Library, 5126, Yonge Street, and Don Mills Library, 888 Lawrence Avenue East. They will be at Downsview Library, Keele Street, throughout December.

BIG BROTHERS' CAR RALLY

Big Brothers of York and their Little Brothers are having a car rally Sunday, starting at 10 am at Aurora Community Centre and finishing at McDonald's Restaurant, Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, at between 1 and 2 pm. Anyone interested in finding what Big Brothers is all about is invited to attend at the finishing point.

TOLLGATE TO TURNSTILE

Inspired by the opening of the subway in North York, the North York Historical Society and Toronto Historical Board are presenting a graphic history of transportation in North York in the Upper Gallery at Gibson House Museum, 5172 Yonge Street, behind Willowdale Post Office, from October 24 to the end of January. From an original toll booth to dial-a-bus, the exhibit shows snow shoes, buffalo mitts, skates, black-smith tools for the horses pulling stage coaches and buggies, a penny-farthing bicycle, a private collection of license plates dating from 1908, an original wood-carved Golden Lion used to guard the stage-coach stop at the Golden Lion Hotel at Sheppard Avenue and Yonge Streets, and many more exhibits related to transportation. The house is open daily from 9:30 to 5 pm, Sundays from noon to 5 pm. Admission 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for children. For information call 225-0146.

DIVORCE AND SEPARATION

There will be a one-day workshop on divorce and separation at Humber College Saturday from 9 am to 4:30 pm. Sessions will cover children's needs, creative problem solving, coping with legal problems and beginning again. Speakers will include Margaret Campbell, MLA Toronto St. George, Lawyer Marie Corbett of the Canadian Bar Association's committee on family law as well as other lawyers, psychologists and individual resource leaders. The public is invited. The college's north campus is on Highway 27 three miles north of Highway 401. Admission $5 includes materials and lunch For information and registration call 676-1200.

Scout auxiliaries' first conference

York Summit District Committee for Scout ladies auxiliaries had a presidents dinner and conference at the Heintzman House community centre in Thornhill on October 24. The conference was chaired by Mrs. John Robertson, chairman of the committee.

Mrs. Arlene Chatfield president of 5th Richmond Hill auxiliary and a member of the district committee, paid tribute to all past presidents of auxiliaries in the district and made a presentation of roses to each. The roses were donated by H. J. Mills of Richmond Hill.

Provincial Advisory Committee member Mrs. Gladys Witherell brought greetings from that committee.

Merit medal The assembly also paid tribute to Mrs. Helen Todd, former president of 1st Richmond Hill Auxiliary and now supply secretary for the provincial executive. Mrs. Todd was recently awarded a medal of merit for her 22 years of service to Scouting.

District Commissioner Ron Harding showed slides of the 1974 Lakelan II pot luck camporee, showing both Scouting and Guiding in action.

Group services at the leader level and the need for new leaders in the district were major topics of discussion at the conference.

Handicap Scouting District Council President

Red Carlson spoke of "Scouting for the Handicapped". Mr. Carlson is the man who helped start Scouting for handicapped boys at Participation House in Markham. He now has 10 leaders working with him. Hearty applause were given to Mr. Carlson and men like

St. John's Baptist celebrates anniversary

Church, Richmond Hill St. John's Baptist had a day Sunday celebrating the 14th anniversary of the founding of the church.

In the morning Rev. Lloyd Pierce of Blythwood Road Baptist preached on "What Standards?" and how they are needed to grow to fulfill one's highest potential. Mrs. Jack Rumney sang two solos, as did the St. John's Trio of Mrs. Betty Harris, Mrs. Dawn Robertson and Mrs. Joanne Golew.

Evening service

In the evening Robert Richardson and the Thornhill Baptist Choir led in a time of singing and praising. The ministers of both churches, Rev. Dana Lamb of Richmond Hill and Rev. Ernest Johns of Thornhill, led in a consideration of "What the Music of the Church means to me," with members of the audience contributing their ideas.

After the service Mrs. Margaret McGowan and her committee served refreshments.

Monday event

The church is looking forward to acting as host to six Baptist churches for the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer at 8 pm Monday.

PUBLIC NOTICE

I need 10 strong, honestminded people to help us save our homes and small businesses from the runaround offices of the untouchables in Richmond Hill. The Fuller Auditorium Oak Ridges will be free for meetings of the public, the present political force and those wishing to participate in the coming election of December 2, 1974. Inflation, unemployment and welfare will be an issue in this forthcoming election. Visit where it all begins. No, it is not too late, remember today is the first day of the rest of your life.

savings or having your money available, you'll find what you need at Bank of Montreal.

True Savings Account

This earns you a record 91/4% per annum from the day you open your account. You eliminate the temptation of writing cheques, but you can withdraw your money any time you really need it. Interest is based on your minimum monthly balance and credited to your account twice a year.

Chequable Savings Account

The best of both worlds. You can use it like a current account and still earn 3% per annum interest based on your minimum halfyearly balance. And at Bank of Montreal, you get that interest no matter how low that balance goes. It's paid semi-annually.

True Chequing Account

Gives you complete bill-paying flexibility. You receive a monthly statement to help you keep your records up-todate. And your cancelled cheques are returned so you have proof of
