

Richmond Hill Free Methodist's Outreach Quartet placed among the top 10 in the gospel groups' competition in Nashville, Tennessee, a part of the national quartet convention, early in October. The quartet will be appearing in concert at the church, 212 Hillside Drive, Richmond Hill, at 7 p.m. Friday of next week.

Don Deacon says

MLA, YORK CENTRE

Raps big pipe line

Ontario Deputy Liberal Leader Donald Deacon MLA, York Centre has attacked the Davis' government's decision to proceed with the $200 million York Durham water and sewer scheme announced two weeks ago. He does not question the need for improved water and sewer services in this area but considers the big collector trunk sewer is an engineers' and contractors' dream and a taxpayers' nightmare.

He expressed concern for the destruction of thousands of acres of our richest soil caused by the big pipe which will take out of production future sources of food. This alone will cost us much more than $200 million.

His solution to the housing crisis in this part of Ontario is threefold: "The prime need is for major transportation and other service improvement projects combined with a program to locate government Ministries away from the Golden Horseshoe.

"The second is to substantially increase the capacity of existing treatment plants in York and to equip the latter with modern additional facilities which will utilize the nutrients which now pollute our receiving streams.

"The third is to finance and encourage, directly and indirectly, construction of water, sewage and transportation facilities to serve scores of communities and hamlets within 60 miles of Toronto which are located on poor agricultural lands.

This would include much of the moraine which lies north of Markham and Vaughan and could relieve some of the pressure on those two towns."

Garbage action
Another recent Queen's Park decision to proceed with a major effort to recycle garbage drew applause from Deacon.

"Although the first stage is merely a $17 million shredding and sorting program in seven communities, that will substantially reduce objectionable features of garbage — smell, rodents and bulk. The long range plan is to assume responsibility across the province for garbage and to undertake a construction program over several years of up to $400 million in plants to utilize waste through reclamation and conversion. This should finally see an end to the Ministry of the Environment's past obsession with garbage dumps," Deacon said.

Board election
He has also introduced a private member's bill in the Legislature to provide for the free election of members of the Moosonee Development Area Board. At present these members are appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, which is actually the Ontario Cabinet.

More than 2,000 people live in the area covered by the development board and it is Deacon's contention they should have the right to elect the officials who administer the affairs of their municipality.

Richvale Lionettes' gift to hospital

At a meeting in Richvale Lions Hall on Spruce Street October 21, Richvale Lionettes presented a cheque for $275 to York Central Hospital Administrator James Hepburn. The money will be used to buy a stationary bicycle and Mayo stand for the physiotherapy department in the hospital's new Langstaff Wing.

Maple United 104th year

Special services were held October 27 to celebrate the 104th anniversary of Maple United Church, located on Keele Street South. Two services were held (in the morning and in the evening) with Rev. Cerwyn Davies of Iondale Heights United as the guest speaker at both. At the evening service the choir from Iondale Heights sang and presented a musical concert during the fellowship hour which followed.

Ask Newkirk rezoning for vehicle compound

A rezoning to permit open storage in an industrial zone where it is not permitted at present was received by Richmond Hill Council's Planning Committee Wednesday of last week.

The application was presented by R. K. Bodrug as an agent of Morgan Davis. It is to permit York Regional Towing to establish a car compound on the property at the rear of Davis' printing plant on Newkirk Road.

Bodrug said it is intended to erect a 10-foot-high chain link fence to make an enclosure of about 100 feet by 200 feet. The surface will be gravelled to allow quick and safe drainage from wrecked vehicles. The compound would be flood-lighted at night to cut down on pilfering.

Essential service
York Regional Towing provides an essential service to York Regional Police and the Ontario Provincial Police, Bodrug explained. The service is impounding vehicles of impaired drivers, unsafe vehicles, vehicles involved in crimes or accidents, stolen, or abandoned vehicles. The irregular hours worked by the employees, he felt, would also be a deterrent to vandalism in the area.

He also said Classcomm, the property to the south, has fenced off the backyard to protect trucks from vandals. "Our enclosure will have much the same appearance," Bodrug said. At present York Regional Towing is located on the northwest corner of Yonge Street and Elgin Mills Sideroad. Members of the committee agreed that, in that location, it is an eyesore. The municipality would be most pleased to see it relocated.

Murray McLean lifelong resident buried October 28

A lifetime resident of Richmond Hill, Murray McLean, 453 Balkan Road, died in York Central Hospital after a lengthy illness October 25. He was born in Richmond Hill November 29, 1886, and as an active farmer had seen the municipality grow from a small country village to a large town of approximately 35,000 population. He was the son of Archie McLean and Euphemia Gamble and was the last member of their family to survive.

He is survived by one son Elwood and a daughter Verna (Mrs. Howard Caines). Rev. Donald Whitelaw of Langstaff Baptist Church, of which Mr. McLean was a member, officiated at the funeral service at the Marshall Funeral Home, October 28. Interment followed in Richmond Hill Presbyterian Cemetery. Three grandsons and a grandson-in-law served as pallbearers — James Caines, Elwood Caines, Stephen McLean and Rick Brushett. The other pallbearers were Barry Rollinson and Orville Knights.

3 arrested in phony money case

York Regional Police last week seized nine counterfeit $100 bills and arrested three men after two of the phony bills were passed at Atlas Camera in Richmond Hill, and Aurora Hobby Craft. When two men attempted to change another $100 bill at Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in Aurora, the teller became suspicious and telephoned police.

Arrested inside the bank was Allan Thomson, 19, of Simcoe. A second man escaped, but police later arrested Gary Hughes, 18, at his home in Simcoe, and also seized nine of the bills. Simcoe police next arrested a third man, David Churpita, and charged him with possession of counterfeit money.

People problems film at Baptist church Sunday

"For Pete's Sake!", a film credited as "unique in its capacity to reach out to meet the problems of people", will be shown at 7 pm Sunday at Richmond Hill Baptist Church, 50 Wright Street, and admission is free. The full-length comedy-drama was filmed in Eastmancolor by World Wide Pictures on location in Denver and the Colorado Rockies. It tells the story of Pete Harper, a family man and service station owner confronted with unexpected problems, but he finds strength to rise above them, to face life anew. The film, seen by over three million persons in theatre premieres, has been cited by one critic as "the perfect mixture — it's drama at its holdest, comedy at its lightest, and action at its liveliest. It is a family film ... families can see and feel exactly what is needed to develop deeper understanding and build stronger ties." Star of "For Pete's Sake!" is Robert Sampson, who also starred in World Wide's "The Restless Ones". Pippa Scott, as Pete's wife, is well-known for her Broadway appearances and numerous television roles. John Milford and Sam Groom are also familiar to television audiences. Other featured players include Johnny Jensen as Pete's son, Irene Tedrow as Grandma Harper, Nicolas Surovy as the leader of a motorcycle gang. All families of the community are invited to attend this special showing at Richmond Hill Baptist Church.

Cards of Thanks

I WISH to thank Dr. Arai and Dr. Sabo and all the nursing staff of York Central Hospital and all my friends and neighbours for the lovely cards they sent me during my illness. Many thanks Mrs. D. A. Davidson

WE would like to express our thanks to the many friends who called, sent cards and lovely floral tributes, and also gave donations to the Giddons and the Cancer Fund. A special thank you also to Dr. Kirby and the staff of York Central Hospital who gave such good care throughout our father's illness; also to the Rev. D. Whitelaw and the Marshall Funeral Home at the time of his passing. Family of the late Murray McLean.
