Boy's foot trapped in saxophone

Extensive damage in Tuesday house fire

Extensive damage was done to a home in Richmond Hill Tuesday in a late evening fire.

The fire, of unknown origin, occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey, 162 Kenvale Court, at about 10:55 pm.

Although no estimate of the damage was available, it was believed to be several thousand dollars.

Local firefighters were also called to put out a fire at the Black Hawk Motor Inn on Yonge Street, about an hour earlier.

The fire, which started in the drapes in one of the rooms, caused about $200 damage.

It wasn't all fire calls, however, for the town department.

Rescue boy Last week, the locals were also called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Bacon, 408 Elmwood Avenue, to rescue their five-year-old son from a trap of his own making.

It seems the child caught his foot inside a saxophone. The firefighters didn't blow him out. Instead they poured some liquid soap in the opening and completed the five-tootsie exercise.

In Vaughan, $5,000 damage was done to the home of Joseph Aspden,

Islington Avenue, Kleinburg, in a fire there, November 13, about 9:30 pm. The fire is believed to have occurred when a heater system being refueled, overflowed. Driver trapped.

The Vaughan department was also called to the CNR marshalling yards when a tractor-trailer overturned, trapping the driver inside. One of the doors had to be cut away to extricate the driver.
