

Here are scheduled events in southern York this week

Variety Night
Stouffville District Secondary School students will present their annual Variety Night November 28 and 29 with Richard Hawkins and Gail Newmarch as masters of ceremony. Admission is $1.75 for adults, 75 cents for children. Curtain time is 8 pm. All proceeds will go to local charities.

Union Villa Christmas Tea & Bazaar
The Union Villa Ladies' Auxiliary is holding its annual Christmas Tea and Bazaar, featuring home baking, gifts (many of them crafted by the residents) and tea in the very attractive residents' dining room. The date is November 30 and the hours 2 to 4 pm.

Art Show and Sale
Crosby Memorial Arena Expansion Committee of Unionville will hold its 2nd annual art show and sale at the arena December 6 (8-10:30 pm), December 7 (10 am to 10 pm) and December 8 (noon to 4 pm). Door prizes to be drawn every day include a weekend for two at the Inn on the Park. Wine and cheese will be served Friday and Saturday evenings. All proceeds go to the arena expansion fund.

Art and Handicraft Fair
The 3rd Annual Art and Handicraft Fair, in which a distinguished group of 50 artists and craftsmen will be participating, sponsored by the Havorah Branch, National Council of Jewish Women, will be held at the Council House 4700 Bathurst Street (between Sheppard and Finch, December 1 from 12 noon to 10 pm. On sale will be metal sculptures, weaving, macrame, pottery, handblown glass gold and silver jewellery, graphics, water colors, wooden toys, etc, and home baking. Admission is $1, children under 12 free, with continuous door prize drawings through the day.

One Parent Families
The North York Chapter of One Parent Families Association of Canada will meet in the North York Community Hall, 5090 Yonge Street, Willowdale December 10 at 8:30 pm. Mrs. Janice Berger will speak on "Parent Effectiveness Training". Refreshments will be served. Through this association the single parent families of our society are encouraged to come together for the betterment of themselves and their children.

Women's rights advocate county teachers' speaker

An outstanding and outspoken advocate of women's rights, Laura Sabia, will speak on the status of women at Aurora High School Tuesday at 8 pm. The public meeting is sponsored by the York County Women Teachers Association.

Mrs. Sabia is chairman of the Ontario Advisory Council on the Status of Women. This was established in 1973 by the Ontario government with the aim of helping women participate more fully in all aspects of life in the province.

Early liberationist
The guest speaker has been active for some years in promoting equality of opportunity for women. As chairman of the Committee on the Equality of Women, 1965-68, she is credited with persuading the federal government to establish the Royal Commission on the Status of Women.

She has been a member of a number of national and provincial organizations concerned with improving women's status, including the Business and Professional Women's Association and the Canadian Federation of University Women.

Public figure

Her trenchant and free-wheeling style has delighted — and sometimes outraged — audiences for several years. She has been a separate school trustee and an alderman in St. Catharines and was a moderator on an open line radio program.

More 'Life in the Hill'

The parish of St. Gabriel's would like to extend a warm welcome to its new rector, the Rev. David Metcalfe BA, STB, and family from Erindale.

Anglican Church in Erindale, is married and has two children, three-year-old Victor and one-year-old Lisa.

Duplicate Bridge
Winners on Monday last were — north south — Ruth and Gerry Browning, Bob and Edna Dunn, Bobbie Bub and Cecilie DeZoete. East-west — Paul and John Harris, Kathy Millree and Nick Bruno and Ross and Sandy Jenkins.

Wednesday winners were — north south — Rose Morrell and Grace Saunders, Bev Jones and Ev Sinclair, Marie Ryan and Lil Thompson. East-west — Freda Abercrombie and Phillip Pietersen, Edith Windsor and Phyllis Mountjoy, Sharon Mencil and Rita Parisella.

The winning team at the Swiss Tournament on Friday were John Leonard, Freda Abercrombie, Rose Morrell and Grace Saunders.

New players are welcome at any time. For further information please call Marie Cole at 773-4280.

Bill Lazenby has invested 17 years in our community

Bill Lazenby considers our town the ideal place in which to live, work and raise a family. He always has. He bought a home in this community, invested in a business in this community and, because he is a people-person, became actively involved with the people of this community... through church groups, community clubs and local professional associations. He sponsored hockey teams, soccer teams, bowling teams and other youth-oriented activities. He was personally involved with the original proposal to establish our Senior Citizen Housing program; and, was also an original member of the Richmond Hill Day Care Centre committee.

Bill Lazenby has been an active front-runner in local public affairs for more than a dozen years now... as a Town Councillor, Mayor of the municipality and Mayor/Regional Representative. He has also served as a Member or Chairman of just about every important committee or commission dealing with local projects and services for the people of this community.

Bill Lazenby has invested himself in this community because he is a dedicated, civic-minded individual who wants to participate in the challenging and constantly changing events that improve the lifestyle of the people of our municipality and region.
