

Maple Atoms fade, lose by 6-2

By Valerie Tintine
A second period rally was not enough to save the House League action

By Valerie Tintine
Nicki Giancola recorded his first shut-out of the season when Maple Superior Propane Peeewe-Bantams met the Maple Lions last. Superior counted four goals from Brian Rogers, Mario Massarella, David Long and Mike Schanck, assisted by Brad Demeo and Scott Wright.

DH&A edged Maple Farms 6-3 with the power coming from Ernie Chefero and Doug Hay, who each scored two goals. Chefero also had two assists. Brian Hassel felt had a single and Tim Taylor notched a goal and an assist.

Maple Farms' scoring came from Philip Notaro, Barry Key and Peter Morris, assisted by Allen Rotz.

Chris Stewart lead Maple Meat Shoppe to a 4-3 victory over Suburban Landscaping by counting two goals and an assist.

Carmelo Notaro followed with one goal and an assist and Mark Tyndall one goal. Bob Wilmot, Ron Line and Ted Perry were credited Maple Dominion Engineering Welding Atoms in Sutton December 1.

Entering the third period with a 2-2 tie, Sutton scored four unanswered goals.

with assists. Scoring for Suburban were Graham Hobbs with two goals and Robbie Morton with one. Assists went to Paul Gregoire, Robbie Morton and Grant McKinley.

Maple Lions edged Oak Ridges 3-1 with goals by Scoring for Maple were Scott Usher on a pass from Danny Alessandrini and Mark Fortin, unassisted.

Last Wednesday in Orillia, an exciting game

Gary Roberts, Steve Borneman and Chris Plunkett. Robert Freisner and Rob Horner each had two assists and Rob Fenton had one assist.

The lone goal for Oak Ridges was scored by Danny Catton, assisted by Larry Gilbert.

ended in a 4-4 tie.

Maple scored first at the end of the first period on a hard shot from Danny Munshaw. Scott Usher assisted.

Orillia scored the only goal of the second period, opening the way for a sea-saw battle in the third.

Scott Usher, assisted by Todd Smith, popped one in, but Orillia tied the game a minute later. Two quick goals by Maple followed, the first by Todd Smith from Scott Usher and Branko Kordez and the second by Tony Giancola from Sandy Grant and Danny Alessandrini.

It looked as though these goals had salted the game away for Maple, but Orillia came back to earn a tie. Maple's passing is improving and more entertaining, successful hockey is assured if they keep it up.

Despite hard, fast play by Maple November 27, the White Strip Construction Peeewe's lost to Schomberg in a home game.

After winning the first 11 games of the season the team went down 2-0, with Robert Amos as net minder.

December 1 the Maple Peeewe's shutout Sutton 3-0.
