

Students at Woodland Senior Public School celebrated Christmas in the style of several different ethnic groups and classrooms were converted into pavilions for France, Japan, Italy, Holland, Brazil, Mexico, Germany and the United Kingdom. Judy Speirs' grade 7 class had an early Canadian Habitant Christmas with homemade bread, apple cider, log

What's doing for holidays

A Merry Christmas to everyone!

If you have a birthday, anniversary, or a special occasion over the holidays, please phone me at 889-3443 and I will be glad to include a report on it in my column. News has to reach me no later than Thursday to be in the next week's issue of The Liberal.

Church news
St. Paschal's Church, Steeles Avenue West, held its Christmas party December 15 from 2 pm to 4 pm. The St. Paschal School Band provided the music for the afternoon. They played Christmas carols which everyone enjoyed singing.

The youth group put on two skits, "Santa's Workshop" and "Christmas Morn". Films were also shown. Of course the highlight of the afternoon was the arrival of Santa and his helper who gave candy canes to all the children.

Refreshments were served to all children and adults who attended.

News from next door
NEWMARKET: Don Harper topped all competitors recently in a Newmarket Chess Club tournament that saw 18 players ranging in age from 12 to 60.
