Police blotter

$2,800 tool theft at YRP station construction site

Nothing is sacred. Even the new York Regional Police building, which is just getting under way on Major Mackenzie Drive in Richmond Hill, has already been visited by thieves.

Taken from four storage sheds belonging to Van Bots Construction Limited, Scarboro, last week were $2,800 worth of power tools.

Thieves were also busy in other parts of Richmond Hill, preparing themselves for Christmas.

At Supersave Food Store, 10610 Bayview Avenue, someone entered through an open window and carted off 140 cartons of cigarettes, four cartons of razor blades and three of gum.

Just up the street at 11925, a home was twice broken into and a quantity of paintings, tapestries and household furnishings was taken.

Police said the owner, Ruth Battle, was in the process of moving in, so hadn't discovered the thefts right away. However, police have since arrested Cecil Ruddock, 35, of Toronto, in connection with the occurrences. He has already been charged by Metro Police with possession of stolen property.

Ida Del Plavignano, 36 Weldrick Road, told police entry was gained to her home by means of a key hidden on the grounds.

Taken were a gold engagement ring and $27 in cash.

After ransacking his home, thieves took $700 worth of jewelry and some blank cheque books, Otto Grebbe, 47 Stockdale Crescent, told police.

At 96 Pemberton Road, Joe Durizon, reported thieves helped themselves to a watch and a box of chocolates after breaking into his place.

The empty chocolate box was found outside the house. Two Richmond Hill youths have been arrested and face charges of breaking, entering and theft, as a result of the theft of 16 truck tires from Custom Tire Sales Limited, 59 Industrial Road. The tires, which were taken on two separate occasions, were later sold in Toronto for $1,500.

Arrested were Robert Baker, 17, and Terrance Huntley, 20, both of 256 Zelta Crescent.

Patricia Hineman, 18, of 10160 Yonge Street, faces a charge of assault occasional bodily harm, as a result of an altercation in the Richmond Inn last week.

Police said two young women were drinking at the Inn late at night, when they began arguing. One of them slugged the other one, knocking her unconscious to the floor.

Treated at York Central Hospital for a sore shoulder was Christine Lalacheur, 22, of 229 Zelta Crescent.
