Hill Ministerial Association

January 19 Community Forum follows housing talks in churches

Dear Mr. Editor:

The Richmond Hill Ministerial Association wishes to commend your paper for its handling of the issue of the need for housing for lower income families and young married couples.

Your coverage and your editorializing based on our letter to the town planner has been very thorough, and cannot help but stimulate the thinking of concerned people in the town.

Since the meeting of our association, you have capped it off with your visionary cartoon depicting three possible styles of clergy sponsored low cost housing. Quite a delight!

If in turn we were to envisage media sponsored low cost housing, then what might take shape. Surely just one type—a hot off the press factory build module, with paper thin walls, designed to give special audio effects, and with a fancy facade cunningly created to sell homes.

We wish to respond to the challenge of your second editorial on the subject. In it you throw the ball back to the churches as well as other community groups, suggesting we can take some initiative in building the desired housing.

Your point is well taken. In fact in our letter to Mr. Rimon, the town planner, we mention as specific objective number seven the following: "That the town give full encouragement to the formation of private or group sponsored non-profit housing corporations."

The United Church Development Corporation of York Presbytery is an example of this. This non-profit corporation was set up to sponsor plans for the use of 15 acres of land in Newmarket owned by the United Church.

At present, plans have been presented to the town of Newmarket which include 10 acres of passive park, a community use building plus 82 units of innovative townhouse type rental housing to house lower income families, young married couples and seniors.

What the Richmond Hill Ministerial Association is saying in the letter is that such venturing requires the full encouragement and support of government, especially the local municipal government. We hope this support will be openly stated in the new Official Plan.

Our objective is to have this issue discussed within our various churches, and to have it discussed at a special Community Forum, Sunday January 19 at 8 pm at Our Lady Queen Of The World Church, Bayview Avenue during the Week Of Prayer For Christian Unity.

We thank you, sir, for helping to foster unity around this most pressing social issue.

REV. ROBERT McELHINEY, Secretary, Richmond Hill Ministerial Association, Box 100, Oak Ridges.

Hard fought campaign wasn't dirty Business experience seen as not single most important councillor qualification

Dear Mr. Editor:

Your issue of December 18 contained a letter by a Mr. Clarke Lawson in which he maintained successful businessmen are best suited to govern Richmond Hill and that our recent municipal election campaign was a dirty one.

While I can accept the fact successful business experience is useful to those in government, it would certainly be a pity if voters look upon that qualification as the single most important one.

As to the quality of the campaign, I am prepared to admit it was a hard fought one, but not a dirty one. All of the campaigners who knocked at my door represented their candidates for office extremely well.

In Ward 4, those who came to our door on behalf of Mr. Stephenson and Mrs. Marylo Graham were courteous and never indulged in inuendo.

I am, therefore, saddened by the manner in which Mr. Lawson demeaned himself in his letter to you, by casting aspersions upon the successful councillor, Mrs. Graham, and the inuendo in which he indulged in reference to her. The campaign is over and the new councillor is about to take office.

Rather than condemning, out of hand, Counsellor Graham, simply because she has not sat on council before, let us see how she performs.

Mrs. Graham was elected by a very large majority and has a very responsible role to play in representing Ward 4 on council. In fairness, she should be given an opportunity to prove herself rather than throwing stones at her before she has even exercised her vote in council.

Personally, I believe, from reading about her long history of active participation in many of Richmond Hill's people oriented organizations, that she will make a good councillor and, God willing, will even win Mr. Lawson's heart.

Thanks from Unionville skating club

Dear Mr. Editor:

On behalf of the Central Ontario Section of the Canadian Figure Skating Association and the Unionville Skating Club I would like to thank you very much for the articles and pictures published during the recent skating competition.

It is press coverage such as we received from your paper that helps encourage young people and makes these events successful.

Thank you again.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brillinger mark their 58th wedding anniversary

Neighborhood notes

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brillinger who celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Conroy and family sold their Gormley home and moved to Lakefield.

Carman Henderson, who is working in Vernon, BC, enjoyed the holiday season with his wife and parents.

Sympathy is expressed to the McArthur family of RR 1, Gormley in the recent passing of their sister, Miss Elizabeth McArthur at home.

Miss Belle McArthur fell and broke her hip and is in York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Mrs. Harvey Cassel of Cambridge-Preston enjoyed a week with her sisters, Misses Freda and Ruth Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Elliott and family enjoyed Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoover and family of New Dundee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doust were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles James of Stouffville.

Rev. and Mrs. Grant Sloss and Stephen of Kitchener spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. David Sloss and sons.

And gave me a new one, all unspotted, And into my sad eyes smiled: "Do better now, my child!" — Author unknown

He came to my desk with quivering lip — The lesson was done. "Dear teacher, I want a new leaf," he said, I took the old leaf, stained and blotted. And gave him a new one, all unspotted, And into his sad eyes smiled: "Do better now, my child!" I went to the Throne with quivering soul — The old year was done. "Dear Father, hast Thou a new leaf for me?" I have spoiled this one." He took the old leaf, stained and blotted.
