

Mrs. Laura (Cox) Holman buried at Thornhill Cemetery

The Christmas season was saddened for members of the Cox and Holman families when Mrs. Laura (Cox) Holman died December 21 at Bronson Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Holman, widow of the late Oscar Cox, was a respected member of this community for many years when she and Mr. Cox lived at the farm on Highway 7 near the 5th Concession of Markham. The farm is now owned by William Champion. The Cox family farmed there from 1919 to 1946. During those years Mrs. Cox was associated with Brown's Corners United Church and an active member of Buttonville W.I. Mr. Cox died in 1939, and Mrs. Cox married Arthur Holman of West Toronto in 1944.

For several years Mr. and Mrs. Holman lived at Markham on Peter Street until they moved to Willowdale 10 years ago. A widely attended service was held Tuesday of last week at the Ring Funeral Home, Thornhill, with Rev. Allen Hallett of Brown's Corners United Church officiating. Interment was at Thornhill Cemetery.

Pall bearers were nephews Douglas Cox, Maple; Harold Ground, Richmond Hill; Roy Harrison, Victoria Square; Bill Thomas, Thornhill; Lawrence Coulson, Burlington; and George Harrison, Mississauga.

Surviving with her husband are five sons, Russell of Windsor, Harvey of Willowdale (former Chief of Police for Markham Township), Edgar of Markham, Clifford (sergeant of detectives with York Regional Police) of Gormley; Robert of Blenheim; two daughters, Hazel, (Mrs. Russell Olsen of Willowdale) and Muriel (Mrs. Paul Hickey), Willowdale; and one stepdaughter, Arlene, Mrs. John Niven. Also there are 13 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Yule Christening

It was a particularly happy Christmas for the Bill Hood family this year. Jim and his family were home from Edmonton for the holiday. And on December 22, the Hoods first grandson was christened at Brown's Corners United Church. His name is Shawn David.

John Geoffrey and Kimberley Jean, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pendrith, 9 Hughson Drive; Stephanie Lynn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kruuk, 3 Hughson Drive; and Melissa Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Preston, 4 Hughson Drive, were all christened during the same ceremony which was conducted by Rev. Allen Hallett.

Winter euchre

Mrs. Russell Boyington reminds us the winter euchre series sponsored by Buttonville W.I. will begin Friday.

Miss Dell Stephenson had the distinction recently of winning the trophy for best euchre score in the 1974 euchre series sponsored by the Police Association. Ron Godel received the trophy for the third highest score.

The committee members of the Harriet English Memorial Fund have set as their goal a new organ, with chimes, for the Brown's Corners United Church.

Recently, the Official Board of the church approved the project, provided funds are in hand before the organ is purchased.

Mrs. English who died in March, 1974, dedicated her life to music in the Buttonville community, particularly as it pertained to the church, where she led the choir for many years. Because of her, many young people learned to love music, and some have made it a career. An organ in her memory seems a fitting tribute.

Those wishing to contribute to this project may do so by sending a cheque to Mrs. Joy Crawford, secretary-treasurer of the Memorial Fund, c/o Mr. Edgar Fuller, RR 2, Gormley, or by contacting any of the committee members: Hank Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Reesor, Mrs. Marguerite Jones, Gordon Brown, or Rev. Allen Hallett. There will be receipts for all donations $5 and over.

The service at Brown's Corners United was conducted by Rev. Allen Hallett, with Peggie Brumwell lighting the third Advent candle. Mrs. Marguerite Jones sang "O, Holy Night, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Reesor.

On Wednesday night the children presented their Christmas concert, and Santa Claus, represented by Ken Stiver, paid a call at the conclusion of the evening.

The junior choir, directed by Mrs. Jones and accompanied by Gina Allen, sang "Sing", "Christmas Chopsticks" and "The Entertainer", with Glen Donaldson as the title comedian with hat and cane.

The kindergarten children, led by Mrs. Carol Newman and Mrs. Nancy Brown, sang "Away in a Manger", and "Jingle Bells". Kathy Stewart's class sang "The Little Drummer Boy", while Kathy accompanied.

Mrs. Garnet Stewart's children performed a playlet, and Don Reesor's seniors gave an updated version of "Snow White". There were carols, and the crowning glory was Santa Claus, loaded with gifts.

Neighborhood notes
Mrs. Mildred Sisler is a new resident at Union Villa.

She and her daughter Rebecca lived for many years at Buttonville. Rebecca, a sculptress, is the artist whose work stands in front of the Markham library.

Mrs. Lloyd Baker is still confined to her home after a bout of flu which has lasted since early fall.

Sabbaticals to 3 teachers

Sabbatical leave has been granted to three teachers by York County Board of Education.

Receiving leave were Donald Anderson and Douglas Allen of Thornlea Secondary School, and Douglas Threndyle of Langstaff Secondary School.

Masters degree
Anderson, a vice-principal, will take courses in educational administration at OISE, leading to a Master of Education degree.

Allen, a member of the English department, will study at OISE toward a Doctor of Education degree in the field of effective education.

European study
Threndyle, head of the language department at Langstaff, will spend six months each in France and Spain, visiting schools, attending conferences and polishing his skill in the two languages he teaches, Spanish and French.

Stouffville Lions give wheelchairs

Wheelchairs are available to the disabled in Stouffville on a short-term loan basis, thanks to the local Lions Club.

Disabled in the community who wish to shop or visit a friend may borrow one of the three chairs donated to Parkview Home recently by the club.

The chairs will also be used by residents of the home who wish to visit family or take an outing.

Parkview manager Herb Diller says loan time will be limited to 12 to 24 hours.
