A search by police of a Richmond Hill apartment Friday resulted in the arrest of three youths on charges of possession of marijuana.

Detective John Morrison, Constable Ivor Vitins and an RCMP drug squad from Newmarket conducted the search at Apartment 407, 274 Cedar Avenue, about 6:15 pm. The search produced a quantity of marijuana, plus a set of scales and other gear used for mixing chemicals, police said. Arrested were Roy Paltanin, 18, and Mathew

The man then got into his car and his assailants kicked the door, police said. Arrested were Bert Allan, 16, of Birch Avenue, Thornhill, and Richard Patterson, 18, of Steeles Avenue West, Willowdale.

Cattle rustling, indoor style, resulted in the arrest of a Toronto man last week. Police said a man broke into Hereford Meat Corporation, 9514 Islington Avenue, RR 3, Woodbridge, along with two other men, and stole two hind-quarters of beef and a calculator.

Facing a charge of break, enter and theft is Aden Peake, 30, of 29 Dornet Crescent, Toronto.

Other area thefts: Vassil Simon, Carnegie Court, Willowdale, reported the theft of some athletic equipment, an electric razor and a hair brush from his car while it was parked at the LCBO lot, Yonge Street in Richmond Hill December 21 about 4:30 pm. The car was locked at the time.
