Holiday happenings

Bayview Fairways The holidays are over for another year but the memories remain fresh.

The pre-Christmas wine and cheese party, for example, which was held at 7 Cypress Point Court was enjoyed by all. The evening open-house was given by Mr. and Mrs. Steve Burany and Mr. Julius Horvas. Among those who dropped in to toast the holiday season were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mather and Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe.

Another holiday happening was the New Year's Eve dance held at St. Luke's Parish Hall on Green Lane. About 100 people attended this community dance.

A trio, whose repertoire included selections from the forties right up to the seventies, added to the festive cheer. A hot and cold buffet was served that was said to be excellent.

Many of the merry-makers who attended last year found the evening so enjoyable that they returned this year. However, new faces were also seen. This dance is becoming a growing annual event and the feeling is that it cannot help but be just as successful next year as it was this year.
