INSTRUCTIONAL TIP

Lane Conditions — Last week I spoke of fast and slow lanes. Other variables in conditions are the pins. A four ounce tolerance is allowed in the pins, a set of heavy pins might add up to a difference of over one pound. The rubbers around the belly of the pin can vary from soft to hard. The climate can change pin fall due to temperature or humidity change.

But there is one thing that should remain constant, and that is a bowlers delivery. Once the bowler has achieved perfection in his delivery he should not vary it. But he must change other factors of his game as it becomes necessary.

On Dec. 22, a team of Senior girls and boys travelled to Stouffville, to have a small tournament amongst the teams of Seniors from Stouffville.

A total of three games was bowled by all teams and as a result, A.B.C. won all three games. The team of A.B.C. girls consisted of Rose Antl with her triple of 623, followed by Beth Shadoff with 541, Linda Rogerson 662, Linda Flear 550, and Heather Porter, with 642. The girls final total was 3394. The team of A.B.C. Senior boys consisted of Ron Price with his triple of 597, followed by Jim Davidson with 556, Mike Fraser 684, Larry Wade 673, Craig Rayson 656, and Mark Rogerson with 678. The boys final total was 3264.

The team of Stouffville mixed consisted of Patricia Tuck with her triple of 516, Don Martino 540, Bryon Tuck 552, Tina Martino 355, John Christie 499, and Mike Rigby with 657. Their total was 3222. The second team of mixed Seniors consisted of Chris McKay with 396, Jill Roper 435, Doug Marsen 446, Tom Tehnar 406, Doug Tehnar 442, and Kevin Fleet with 568. Their total was 2458.

Travelway Bantams goal happy trounce Owen Sounders by 10-1

Richmond Hill Travelways Bantams played Owen Sound at Ancaster Doublinks December 28. Eager to prove themselves, Travelways opened the scoring at the 6:50 mark of the first period. Jamie Gropp taking it from Phil Wood. Two minutes later Captain Wood and Tom Peden helped Stan Norman make it 2-0. Then Blair Lewis put Travelways ahead by three, Peden and Gropp assisting. Owen Sound put themselves on the scoresheet with only 30 seconds left in the first period. Brent Underwood scoring from Tom Henry and Randy Ransome. Blair Lewis picked up his second goal in the second period, putting Travelways ahead 4-1. Frank Nigro and Alan Clark assisted. Garry Gentry and Danny Girard picked up points within two minutes of each other with Gropp and Nigro getting the assists.

Nigro got the first goal of the final period, Clark and Girard helping. Peden put it past Owen Sound's Paul Hooley and Phil Wood made it 9-1. Norman assisting. With 10 seconds left in the game, Greg Walton make it 10 for Travelways. Garry Gentry also made a point, ending the game 10-1.

Dino Capotosto played a good game in the Richmond Hill nets, letting in only one of 12 shots.

Paul Glendinning scored three goals as London defeated the Richmond Hill Bantams 7-3 December 29. After coming off a 10-1 victory Saturday in the opening game of the Tiger Town Tournament in Hamilton the Hillers could not keep up the pace and fell prey to an eager squad from London, who outstuffed the Travelways team at every turn.

Travelways opened the scoring when Frank Nigro slapped one past Rodger MacKay unassisted at the 34 second mark of the first period. London came back with two goals before the period ended as Glendinning scored on a power play with Philip Oliva getting an assist on the play. Tim Hart got the second one on a breakaway as he was handed the puck at his own blue line by a Hill defenceman and skated in alone on Steve Shadoff who had little or no chance on the play. Glendinning scored his second goal of the game in the second period on a long shot which was misjudged by Shadoff.

With the score 3-1 for London going into the last period Travelways was still within striking distance, but London had different ideas as they got their fourth goal off the stick of Brad Clements with Rob Locking getting the assist. Peden put Travelways back into the game less than a minute later as he took a pass from Legere and made no mistake. London came right back and scored an easy goal which took the wind out of the Travelways sails. Although Nigro scored again to put the Hill team back in the picture, they just couldn't get themselves going again. With three minutes left in the game and London leading 5-3 Travelways went into a deep sleep after they had been dozing all game and allowed London two more gift goals.

Back to league play January 2 in Barrie and Travelways started the new year in the same way they finished the old one — with loss. In three previous meetings, Travelways have eaten Barrie for breakfast. They have outscored them 22-6. With a record like that one wonders what happened Thursday night when Barrie registered a 3-2 win.

Travelways were without the services of Phil Wood with a back ailment and Blair Lewis who has been ill with the flu the past week played very sparingly, but this is not enough to excuse the team for a very lackluster effort the past couple of games.

Once again Travelways played with no zip. They were continually beaten to the puck by the fast-skating Barrie club. Sometimes they even seemed to stop skating (something they were not doing very much of to begin with) to stand around and admire the way the Barrie club was skating and hustling.

This game once again proved that you can't win games when you're in the penalty box all the time. Barrie scored two of their three goals while they enjoyed a man advantage.

With Barrie leading 1-0 on a goal by Graham Griffen in the first period Travelways ran into a couple of foolish penalties in the second. While the Hill team was two men short John Cox made it 2-0 as he took a pass from Murray Hadley and made no mistake as he beat Capotosto with a quick slapshot. Barrie scored another power play goal in the third to give them a 3-0 lead. This time Randy MacIntyre found the mark with the assist going to Paul Tamblin. With 10 minutes left in the game Travelways made a futile attempt to get back in the running as Peden broke in alone after Nigro had won the face-off at the Barrie blue line and beat Paul Jackson with a hard shot to the top corner of the net. Gropp scored Travelways' second and final goal with Nigro again getting the assist.

In a must game for the Bantams they came through with a big 4-3 win over a Thornhill team who had not been defeated in their 12 previous starts. The goaltending of Capotosto managed to keep the Hill team in the game until they found their scoring punch. With Travelways leading 4-3 late in the third period Dino stopped a Thornhill player as he broke in all alone. That save preserved the much-needed win.

Playing a much more aggressive game and with a lot more zip in their skating the Hillers opened the scoring at the 1:50 mark of the first period as Greg Walton took a pass from Chris Nye and raced down the left wing. As he skated around the Thornhill defence he laid a perfect pass over to Garry Gentry who slid the puck under Davidson. Thornhill came back in the second to tie the score as Bell beat Capotosto with a quick shot. Less than a minute later Nigro took a pass from Peden and shifted around the Thornhill defence to go in alone to score a picture goal. Thornhill roared right back and 14 seconds later Kennedy took a pass from Howson (who was a stand-out for Thornhill) and whistled a hard shot past Capotosto.

The Hillers scored two more before the second period ended and started the third with a 4-2 lead. Peden took a perfect pass from Gropp and found himself in the clear. A Thornhill player pulled him down from behind and as he was sliding along the ice he managed to swipe the loose puck into the net. The best goal of the night came 37 seconds later as Girard, who was killing a penalty, took a pass from Gentry in full flight down the right wing. Just as he hit the top of the face-off circle Danny let go a bullet-like drive that ripped past the Thornhill goalie before he could move. This goal seemed to sag the Thornhill team and give Travelways the insurance marker they needed.

With 11 minutes left in the game Howson took a pass from Burkart and beat Capotosto on a long shot to move the Thornhill team to within one goal. Travelways not only won the game they also won the fight as Legere won a decision over Buchan early in the third period.

York-Simcoe's win 'star game

December 29 saw the return of the Tri-County All Star Trophy to York Simcoe Region as a result of the Legion Midgets' executive's efforts in putting together a tremendously commendable team from the best of Newmarket, Aurora, Thornhill and Richmond Hill. Barrie could not send any members because they were winding up their finals for the Wrigley Tournament representation, and Orillia just opted out.

The team was composed of Steve Wallace and Tom Tidman from Newmarket, Rich Vangos, Gary Greenslade, Mark Bedard and Craig Chapman from Aurora. Robert Browning was all Thornhill could send because of injuries and sickness, and the balance of nine players was from the local Legion team — Mike Doyle, Mike Cox, Randy Martin, David Earl, Glen Tatum, Mike Gallagher, Danny Jones, Peter Kendall and Doug Hodgson.

York-Simcoe drew first blood on a goal by Kendall, assisted by Jones and Earl. Tri-County tied the score, only to have York-Simcoe go ahead on a goal by Jones assisted by Earl and Hodgson. One goal only was scored in the second, that by Bedard assisted by Chapman and Martin for York-Simcoe.

The third period was all York-Simcoe who scored three big ones. The first goal was by Gary Greenslade assisted by Bedard and Martin, followed by Tatum's goal assisted by Bedard and Hodgson. The final marker was by Chapman assisted by Tidman and Gallagher.

Goalkeeping duties were shared by Doyle in the first half and Wallace for the last period and a half. Both lads played extremely well. On the whole the team performed very well despite the fact they had only one practise together.

Legion stumble loses to Barrie

The Legionnaires just couldn't get untracked against their old nemesis, Barrie, January 4. Despite carrying the play to Barrie for the better part of the game they came up with two very bad defensive lapses in the first period by leaving an attacker uncovered in front of Mike Doyle who made the initial save on both plays, but couldn't recover in time to block the return shots.

The Legion's offensive players were also at fault on many plays around the Barrie net — by not following the play in to the net mouth to pick up rebounds and loose pucks. The game produced a lot of good skating, but Barrie, proving to be the opportunists, they are known to be, made the effort pay off in a 3-1 win.

Legion's only goal came late in the third period when Glen Tatum was set up by Peter Kendall.

The Legion hosted Thornhill the next day and took their vengeance out on the visitors, piling up 27 scoring points as the final score read Legion 12, Thornhill 3.

Thornhill led 2-1 at the end of the first. The Legion led 7-3 at the end of the second and then piled in five more counters in the third.

Pointgetters for the Legion were: Danny Jones with three goals and one assist, David Earl with two goals and two assists, Randy Hughes Guest with a goal and two assists, Peter Kendall and Glen Tatum with two goals each, Doug Hodgson with three assists, Robert Wallingford and Robert Dynes with a goal and an assist each, Mike Ham with two assists, and single assists to Russ Middleton, Randy Martin and Marc Brillinger. Ben Bourget guarded the Legion twine and came up with a tremendous game.

Coming up: Return match with Barrie at Eastview Arena tonight (Wednesday) at 8:30 pm.

Newmarket here Sunday at 1 pm. Monday at Whitby at 8 pm. Tuesday at the Georgetown Tournament. Wednesday Orillia here at 9 pm. Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Georgetown.
