a lot of good hockey players and a new team spirit on the bench. Fred and I are enjoying very much working with these kids and anticipating a lot of success in 1975.

Thornhill Minor Midgets delivered their Christmas surprise at Newmarket Sunday night in a 5-1 romp that partially avenged several previous in-the-season defeats.

The four-man defence of Matt Nicholls, Marc Riden, Keith Turner and Barry McEwen played like it was Stanley Cup time, constantly thwarting the Newmarket attack on goalie David Howson. Howson was at his best.

Goals went to Pat Bertrand, Sean Leon, Keith Turner, Peter Loftus, Bill Coville with double assists to Mark Whitehead and Matt Nicholls.

The same team scored a 6-1 win over second place Barrie last Wednesday in an exciting match. This game demonstrated the power of team play with eight Thornhill players hitting the points column out of 12 players in the line-up.

Point scorers were Pat Bertrand, three, Barry McEwen, three, Matt Nicholls, three, Bill Coville, one, Peter Loftus, Jason Hurlbut, Allen Ralph, Mark Riden.

Goalie Howson played another outstanding game in the nets. On defence it was Keith Turner, Marc Whitehead, Mark Riden and Matt Nicholls playing a cool and highly effective game. Peter Loftus, a newcomer to the Thornhill squad, scored his goal on a strong individual end to end effort popping it in from almost behind the net.

MILTON TOURNAMENT

Following a 4-2 victory over Brampton in opening day action at the Milton Beaver Minor Tournament, Thornhill advanced to the semi-final against Newmarket.

It was a superb hockey game, one of those with few penalties, end to end action and outstanding play by both teams. One of the tournament organizers called it the best game of the tournament, and "the team that wins this one will win their group championship."

Newmarket went ahead by two goals. Matt Nicholls blasted one for Thornhill from the blueline with an assist from Bill Coville. Then the red and white really piled it on with successive scoring opportunities by Coville, Pat Bertrand, Peter Loftus, Jason Hurlbut, but always frustrated by the Newmarket goalie. Thornhill pulled its goalie in the last minute and Newmarket scored into an open net.
