

At inaugural Britnell predicts stability

More stability in spending tax dollars and a greater conservation of resources was the main theme of King Mayor Margaret Britnell in her address at that township's inaugural meeting of council January 6. Mrs. Britnell won a second term by defeating Murray Sheardown in the December 2 election.

About 50 citizens of the township attended the inaugural held at the Nobleton Community Hall with former Clerk Harold Rose, JP, presiding over the swearing-in ceremonies.

New Clerk Cam Duncan performed the investiture of the mayor with the township's beautiful chain of office crafted by the late Douglas Boyd of Richmond Hill, and read a Scripture passage.

Van Luyk ill
Councillor Jack Van Luyk of Ward 6 was unable to be present for the inaugural as he had suffered a serious stroke a week previously.

The mayor and councillors were piped on and off the stage by the mayor's son James, a member of St. Andrew's College Pipe Band.

In her inaugural speech Mayor Britnell also said she expects government approval of King's comprehensive bylaw in the spring.

More for seniors
She predicted the two senior citizen apartments in Nobleton and in King City will be ready and occupied by Christmas of this year. She said land is being bought for similar buildings in Schomberg and the Holland Marsh area.

The new council got down to business without loss of time at a special meeting called for January 8 to approve the wage settlement with outside workers and to discuss committee positions for the coming term.

Teenager is beaten senseless

Six members of the House of Concord in Vaughan face charges of assault occasioning bodily harm following the beating of one of their fellow inmates last week.

According to York Regional Police the youths were riding back to the home in the Concord bus the night of January 10 when someone snapped off the lights.

A group of the riders then got up and grabbed Billy Willett, 16, beating him unconscious.

The youth was taken to York Finch Hospital for treatment.

Arrested were Ronald Peterson, 17; Bernie Wagner, 16; Donald Evans, 16; Michael Collins, 17; Gregory Crowder, 17; and Frank Dean, 16.
