Members of the Buttonville York Central Hospital Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Russell Boyington for coffee and a business meeting January 10.

At the benefit held at Buttonville WI Hall on December 8 more than $200 was raised for the hospital, a larger sum than ever before.

The group plans to make tray favours for patients for St. Patrick's Day.

Neighborhood notes
Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fierheller spent part of the Christmas vacation with members of Mrs. Fierheller's family on Cape Breton.

Mrs. Morrison Sellar has returned home to Brantford after a month with her brother and sister here.

When Tracy Billingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Billingham, 33 Hughson Drive, celebrated her 12th birthday one day early on January 11, her parents entertained her and a friend, Ali Saunders, at dinner at the Mississippi Belle. There they danced to the music of the 'Headliners'. A party to remember!

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Walton returned home earlier this month, after a two months' stay in Dunedin, Florida. They cut their visit short by six weeks because of ill health.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stots whose 50th wedding anniversary took place January 21. On January 18 they were guests of honor at a celebration at the home of their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Stots of Don Mills. Guests were relatives and friends. Mr. Stots, a member of the York Regional Roads Department, retired last month after many years service.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Grant's son-in-law, Mark Niblett, has recently accepted a position on the staff of Centennial College, teaching Journalism.

There were snowmobile dealers, but little snow when the International Dealers' Association met January 8 at Massey-Ferguson Farms. Members of Brown's Corners UCW catered at the event, and the annual pie auction was held, with more than $200 raised for the church.
